obtained for new inventions, or for improvements on old ones, for medical or other compounds, trade-marks and labels. Caveats, Assignments, Interferences, Appeals, Suits for Infringement, and all cases arising under the Patent Laws, promptly attended to. INVENTIONS perfected by the Patent Office may still, in most cases, be patented by us. Being opposite the U.S. Patent Department, and engaged in Patent business exclusively, we can make closer searches, and secure Patents more promptly, and with broader claims, than those who are remote from Washington.

INVENTORS send us a model or sketch of your device; we make examinations and advise as to patentability free of charge. All correspondence strictly confidential. Prices low, and NO CHARGE UNLESS PATENT IS SECURED.

We refer in Washington, to Hon. Postmaster General D. M. Key, Hon. F. P. Power, The German-American National Bank, to officials in the U. S. Patent office, and to Senators and Representatives in Congress; and especially to our clients in every state in the Union and in Canada. Address

SAVE YOUR HAIR

TO LEARN HOW TO DO IT READ AND HEED WHAT FOLLOWS.

SAVE YOUR HAIR.—The laws of Health and Longevity demand it, the customs of social life require it. The matter is of great importance in every way.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.—It is the surpassing crown of glory, and for the loss of it there is no compensation.

CULTIVATE YOUR HAIR.—For by no other means can it be saved and beautified.

LYON'S

KATHAIRON,

Discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

Besides being the best hair dressing ever produced, Lyon's Kathairon will positively prevent grayness, and will restore new hair to bald heads, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed.

It actually performs these seeming miracles, of which the following is

A FAIR SPECIMEN

I had been entirely bald for several years, constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and, to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.

COL. JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A.

In every important respect the Kathairon is absolutely incomparable. It is unequaled.

1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To Restore Gray Hair.
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.

BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is no sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to paint and daub the hair and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and limpid vegetable lotion, intended to restore the hair by natural growth and reinvigoration. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady's or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon.

FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 6.—Blaine presented a memorial from manufacturing companies of Maine, representing $12,000,000 of capital and employing thousands of persons, asking an appropriation for mail service between one or more of our Atlantic ports and South American ports. The memorialists say the money will be returned in increased commerce. The memorial was referred.

Paddock submitted a resolution instructing the committee on agriculture to inquire in regard to reports concerning infectious diseases among horned stock. Agreed to.

Wallace submitted a resolution requesting the committee on commerce to report the House bill, known as the inter-State commerce bill, at the earliest moment. Laid on the table. He gave notice that he would call it up at an early day.

The Vice-President laid before the Senate the joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution prohibiting the payment of claims of disloyal persons for property injured in the rebellion.

Bailey moved to postpone the pending and all prior orders and proceed to the consideration of the bill for the relief of book agents of the Methodist Church of the South. Rejected, McDonald, Voorhees and Davis (Ills.) voting with the republicans in the negative.

At the request of his colleague, Morrill, Edmunds consented that the unfinished business should be laid aside informally, and the bill to provide for taking the tenth and subsequent censuses was taken up. Morrill explained the bill.

Kernan offered an amendment that the superintendents and supervisors shall take an oath for the faithful discharge of their duties. Agreed to.

Conkling submitted an amendment that each subdivision shall contain not less than 3,000 inhabitants, where the last preceding census shows the inhabitants thereof. Agreed to and the bill passed—yeas 46, nays 4, these being Cameron (Pa.), Mitchell, Spencer and Teller.

The Vice-President presented the message of the President with a report of the Paris monetary conference. Referred to the committee on finance.

Adjourned, after an executive session.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 6.—Hayes introduced a bill for $500,000 to improve the Illinois River. Referred.

Cummings introduced a resolution asking for a statement from the commissioner of pensions regarding the amount required to pay the arrears of pensions. Adopted.

Eden, chairman of the committee on war claims, reported back the bill making an appropriation for the payment of claims reported by the commissioners of claims, but declined to yield to Waddell's amendment, that no war claims shall hereafter be paid to anybody. The bill then passed, and the House went into committee of the whole on the army appropriation bill.

Beebe's amendment, authorising the President to appoint General Robinson paymaster in the army, was rejected.

Garfield opposed White's amendment, which comprises the main features of the army reorganization bill, as it was improper to add to the appropriation bill.

Ewing supported the amendment as improving the army and saving $1,000,000 at once and gradually $3,000,000 or $4,000,000.

Fort opposed it.

Banning said Garfield, who, as chairman of the committee on appropriations, had reduced the number of the army, should not complain now of a reduction of the officers.

Garfield asked White what the bill meant by saying the general officers must be selected from the army.

White—Just what it says.

Garfield—That would exclude Washington.

White—Washington is in heaven.

Garfield—And Grant.

White—General Grant will be the next President, probably.

A vote was then taken on White's amendment. Agreed to—ayes 101, nays 91.

Whitthorne made a point of order against the section providing that every officer who has been 30 years in the service to be placed on the retired list. The point was sustained, and the section stricken out; also the section providing for the resignation of officers prior to January, 1880, with three years' pay.

On motion of Hewitt, the provision of the Revised Statutes was expunged, which permits the army to be at the polls on election day to keep the peace. Vote 98 to 90.

Boone submitted an amendment for the transfer of the Indian Bureau to the War Department.

Garfield said the system of tacking everything on the appropriation bills was making all other committees superfluous. The House had here totally revolutionised the army and restricted all modes of appointments, and it was now proposed to cut out a great department of government and say it was in order because some technical words declared it economy. The House had never done a more fatal thing to its business than when it passed rule 120. If this amendment were ruled in order, the House could abolish all the departments of the government, or break down the judiciary, or work revolution by a vote and it would be in order. He hoped that the chairman of that committee would rule upon this as a matter of discretion and patriotism, and prevent the flood of business being poured upon the appropriation committee, which would ere long break down that committee and array against it every other committee of the House. The time would not be far distant when the other committees would do their business taken out of their hands. He did not think that the committee on appropriations desired it. It was simply for the convenience of all sorts of business, and if desired it would be made the usurper of the authority of the House.

Randall said rule 120 had saved from $20,000,000 to $30,000,000 to the country in three years, and was adopted to prevent extravagance and encourage economy.

Garfield said this would enlarge the expenses by making new machinery.

A colloquoy arose between the Speaker and Garfield in which each accused the side of his opponent with a want of economy.

Conger said nobody expected the Speaker to decide in favor of the republicans on this question.

The chairman overruled Garfield's point, and declared the amendment in order.

Page offered, as a substitute, an amendment authorizing the President to transfer the care and control of any Indian tribes to the War Department temporarily, whenever he deemed it advisable, either on account of hostile action on their part against the United States or in any difficulties.

Scales raised a point of order, and during the discussion the House adjourned.

EASTERN.

The Cattle Disease.

WASHINGTON, 6.—A dispatch from Chicago to the commissioner of agriculture, declaring the non-existence of cattle disease in the west, was, yesterday, forwarded to the secretary of state, and to-day Secretary Evarts had a copy of the same sent to the British minister.

Appointments.

Among the appointments by the President, to-day, are the following: Postmasters for California—James M. Billings, Santa Clara; Wm. Ellington, Yuba City; A. W. Thompson, Akeah; Harlow L. Street, Sonora; Wm. Hall, Dixon; D. B. Carver, St. Helena, James R. Willis, Auburn; S. S. Merrill, Berkely; also Thomas J. Black at Corinne, Utah. Receivers of public moneys—Richard J. Monroe, Lewiston, Idaho; Thaddeus R. Harrison, Oregon City, Oregon; Andrew Miller, Susanville, Cal.

Mineral Land Laws.

The bill introduced in the House, to-day, by Patterson, to amend the mineral land laws, possesses great interest for miners and owners of mines in Colorado, including some of the largest which are controlled by eastern capitalists. Section 2,322 of the Revised Statutes provides that the locator of a mineral vein may follow the vein wherever it leads, even though in following it downward it should pass outside of the limits of his location boundary into and across the mining claim of another. When this section was adopted all known veins extended downward in an almost vertical line, or at least a very slight dip from the vertical. Hence but very little injury could be done by the law. Late discoveries in Colorado in the neighborhood of Leadville, which are creating so much excitement, are unlike any previously discovered lodes in position and stratification. Instead of extending downwards in an almost vertical line, these new lodes are almost horizontal and extend for miles a slight distance under the surface. The first locators now claim that they have a right to follow their lodes even for miles. Patterson says if this claim is sustained the entire vast mineral deposit referred to will pass out of the hands of several thousand miners who have made locations, and into the hands of a few wealthy corporations and other combinations of individuals, to the great injury of the community. He has therefore introduced and will urge for passage, to-day's bill, which provides in regard to all mineral lodes located in Colorado since January 1st, 1876, or hereafter, or has an average dip not exceeding 40 degrees, that locators shall not be permitted to follow the lode outside of vertical limits of the surface boundary lines, even if the apex of the lode lies outside of such vertical lines. The bill was referred to the committee on mines and mining.

Fatal Railroad Accident.

CHICAGO, 6.—This morning a party of five workmen walking on the railroad track at Lawndale, were run into by an incoming train, and two, James Breda and Anton Ardlich, instantly killed. The others escaped with trifling injuries.

The Investigation of Judge Blodgett.

In the Blodgett investigation, George W. Kemp, a deputy in the United States Court stated that a large amount of business were thrown into the hands of Jenkins, Campbell and Hancock as assignees. He thought lawyers generally preferred them.

R. E. Jenkins, assignee in bankruptcy, testified that he never loaned money, never accepted interest from deposits in bank of funds of estates. The interest from all loans he ever made was applied to the estates from which it was derived.

Geo. W. Campbell and Bradford Hancock, assignees, testified similarly.

Wm. H. Bradley testified that the national Bank of Illinois was designated by Blodgett as a depository of funds in bankruptcy. Witness was a director in the bank. Blodgett was not a stockholder, but had two loans of the bank, aggregating $4,000.

After recess Chairman Knott said the memorialists had submitted five more charges, but three having been sufficiently covered would be returned to the memorialists. Chas. S. Crane testified that he bid for Fox & Howard's dredging property at a bankrupt sale in June 1875, $46,000. Assignee Hancock accepted the bid and Judge Blodgett confirmed the sale, but when he offered the first payment of $20,000, Hancock said the sale had been made to other parties. He applied to Blodgett for relief, who said he did not want to hear anything more about it. He finally got the property by a decree of the Drummond Court. The memorialists were going into the papers of this voluminous case when Judge Blodgett rose and said: "We admit all that." Witness denied that he had threatened Judge Blodgett; had said he was a corrupt judge and had considerable feeling against him.

Several witnesses were here called, who testified that it was a common practice of courts to appoint professional assignees, and those in question had given universal satisfaction; also that judge Blodgett never refused to appoint an assignee at the proper request of the creditors. The defense claimed here that they were not properly furnished with charges in advance by the memorialists, and Mr. Shellon complained that the district court hindered them in getting papers from its files.

Judge Blodgett—That is false.

The next charge was that the court records show that a petition was made by F. H. Winston claiming $30,000 as agent of the owners in making the sale of Bigelow block to the government. Adjourned. It is expected the investigation will close to-morrow.

Failure, Fire and Suicide.

NEW ULM, Minn., 6.—The store of H. Bonhke, was closed yesterday by the sheriff. Liabilities $30,000. This morning the warehouse in which his firm have 12,000 bushels of grain burned down. Later in the morning he committed suicide with strychnine.

Fatal Quarrel.

GALVESTON, 6.—A News' special from Goliad, Texas, says two men, Henderson and Lockhart, quarrelled, both drew revolvers, Lockhart caught Henderson's arm and fired six shots into him, killing him instantly. Henderson's brother rushed at Lockhart with a pistol, they closed in a struggle; Henderson emptied six chambers of the revolver into Lockhart's body, causing instant death.

Attempted Fraud.

RAWLINS, Wyo., 6.—J. R. Brown, president of the Seminole Gold and Silver Mining Company, was arrested here, to-day, by special Agent Adams, of the post office department for using the United States mail to defraud. The indictment was found by the United States grand jury at Laramie City.

It soothes and heals the membrane of the lungs, inflamed and poisoned by the disease, and remedies the night sweats and tightness across the chest which accompany it.

CONSUMPTION

is not an incurable malady. It is only necessary to have the right remedy, and HALL'S BALSAM is that remedy.

DON'T DESPAIR OF RELIEF, for the benign specific may cure you, even though professional aid fails.

READ THE FOLLOWING:

Dr. D. D. Wright, of Cincinnati, sends us the subjoined professional indorsement. "I have prescribed Hall's Balsam in a large number of cases and always with success." He adds that "in one case a patient with every appearance of confirmed consumption was restored to his usual health soon after commencing to take the BALSAM."

John Kuhn, of Lafayette, Ind., writes: "One year ago I was to all appearance in the last stages of consumption and got so low our doctor said I could not live twenty-four hours." Mr. Kuhn further states that after taking nine bottles of HALL'S BALSAM he is now in perfect health, having used no other medicine."

The above brief extracts are taken from a

MASS OF EVIDENCE

which has been accumulating during a period of TWENTY-NINE YEARS, proving an efficacy in HALL'S BALSAM in all cases where the breathing organs are affected, and showing the estimation in which the remedy is held by the public and medical profession. Sold by all Druggists.

Price $1.00 per bottle.
