PARK CITY, JULY 7, 1893.

FELONY AT THE PARK.

The Celebration—Pioneer Naphtha Stone Dams—Certainty in Mining Circles.

During the past week items of interest have been few, and the general depressed feeling is felt in every quarter as well as other places.

ON THE FOREMAN.

The Foreman was quietly spent in the Park and in the program was carried out. It was intended to make the celebration a grand one, but on account of the time just a summer on everything.

MANAU AND OYSTER.

The Manau and Oyster will keep going, and a full crew of men is constantly employed. It is rumored, though, that no ball will be dropped from either place until silver looks up a little.

ARCHER AND SILVER KING.

David Keith and others of our leading mining men have been in Salt Lake the greater part of the week on mining business, and it is an undecided question as to whether they will return to the Park, or to the manau.

THE SAMPLER CLOSURE TOOK.

On Saturday the Altman sampler at Sandy, and Philadelphia sampler at Cripple, have kept the sampler still very quiet the week.

THE LEACHING PLANT.

H. C. Chambers was in the Park during the only part of the week viewing the construction of the new leaching plant of the Outlook. A large force of men is now employed on the stone walls, and the magnitude of the work can now be seen.
