Teamster is Shot Through Leg.

ANOTHER BOY SHOT IN PLAY.

Carl Critchlow Victim of Toy Gun-City School Affairs-Strike Of Carpenters.

OGDEN, May 8 .- Oscar O. Gorder, a teamster in the employ of J. C. Gale, while working in the gravel pit yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock, was mysteriously shot through the left leg between the knee and hip. The shot was fired from the brush near the gravel pit, Fellow workmen went to n's aid and brought him to the city for medical attention. The police were advised and an investigation was made. E. M. Di ... was arrested on suspicion of firing the shot, but was later released.

ANOTHER BOY SHOT IN PLAY. OGDEN, May 8 .- Carl Critchlow, the 9-year-old son of W. J. Critchlow, was accidentally shot through the hip yes-terday afternoon at 7 o'clock, with a 22 caliber rifle in the hands of his playmate, Earl Stuhr, the 14-year-old son of John Stuhr, foreman in the Southern Pacific shops. The boys were playing pear the Stuhr home, 443 Twenty-ninth street, when the Stuhr boy got a rifle and told the Critchlow boy that he was going to shoot him. No sooner were the words out of his mouth, than young Stuhr pulled the trigger. The builet struck young Critchlow in the left side above the hip joint. Drs. E. C. and E. I. Rich were summoned, and after an examination extracted the bullet. It is thought that the Critch-low lad will fully recover. This is the second case of this nature to occur in Ogden within the past four days, where children have se-cured possession of guns and used them with direful results. The other case was the accidental killing of Alfred Lo-renzo Boyle, aged 10 years, Wednesday evening, by George Smith, aged 13

(Special Correspondence.) SPRINGVILLE, May 8 .- Yesterday afernoon fire utterly destroyed the old Springyllle, or Whitehead Woolen mills, later known as the Western Woolen ater known as the Western Woolen mills, entailing a loss estimated at $25,000, with no certain insurance. The fire broke out in the carding machine. The work hands sent an alarm to Provo and did all possible to put out the flames, but the fire was soon beyond control. When the Provo fire department arrived, the building, which was of lumber, with all of its contents, was a mass of ruins. The mill was probably the oldest in the state, having been built 50 years ago by Bishop William Bringhurst and Jacob Houtz. A number of Springville people were stockholders in the con-cern, but the heaviest loser is J. A. West, proprietor of the West Mail Or-West, proprietor of the West Mail Or-der House in Salt Lake. Charles Burrows had just leased the mill and had begun the manufacture of mattresses. His personal loss is about $300. While the firemen were endeavoring
