

Today's Ogden News

JURY VINDICATES FRANK CHECKETTS.

Slaying of His Father in Defense
Of His Mother Declared Justifiable.

FINDING COMMENDED BY ALL.

Heartrending Stories of Cruelty and Inhumanity of the Man Slain,
Mourned by None.

Ogden, March 2.—"We, the jury, find that Joseph Checketts came to his death from the effect of a gun shot wound in the left temple, said gun being in the hands of his son, Frank Checketts, in defense of his mother's life, hence justifiable, in our opinion. We also recommend his release from custody and his acquittal."

After 15 minutes' deliberation the coroner's jury, sitting at the inquest over the death of Joseph Checketts, who was killed by his son, Frank, early Wednesday morning, returned the above verdict about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. When the verdict was read some one in the crowded courtroom cried out "Good," and this seemed to voice the sentiment of all those who sat and listened to the unfolding of one of the most horrible tales of domestic troubles.

All through the ordeal the widowed mother, surrounded by her sons and daughters, sat sobbing, as if each point brought out by those who gave their testimony helped to gnaw at the heart strings that have been so nearly severed these many years. There were few eyes in the courtroom that were not filled with tears throughout the day. There were a score of witnesses called upon to testify, to matters pertaining to facts that dealt directly with the deed, or leading up thereto. There was no one ill word spoken against young Checketts, who is supposed to have fired the fatal bullet. Nothing but kind words were spoken for the widow and her children, who had suffered for many years rather than bring disgrace upon the family name by calling upon the police or the neighbors for assistance when the drunken father beat them and threatened their lives.

Eva Checketts was the first witness called after the noon recess and corroborated the testimony of those who appeared before her. She brought out the fact that the father let loose of the mother's throat when Frank pointed Manager, E. A. Larkin.

424 24th St. Telephone 135-8.
Advertisements for the Daily, Saturday and Semi-Weekly News should be made to the circulation office at the Salt Lake office.

Circulator, John J. McGregg.
225 West Ave. Ind. Tel. 151.
Office with Lambert Paper Co.

Payments for the Daily, Saturday and Semi-Weekly News should be made to the circulation office at the Salt Lake office.

the revolver at his head and called upon him to desist, also that in his drunken frenzy he had asserted that he would kill all the family before he would kill himself, avowing that even a more horrible deed had been planned in the mind of the dead man. Alexander Baxter, brother-in-law, and Mrs. Emily Baxter, sister of the deceased, were the next called to the stand. They told of what they knew concerning the disposition of Checketts and of the brutality he exhibited towards his family. Mrs. Baxter said he was at all times mean and quarrelsome, and she was always afraid of him; that he used awful language and had struck his father when he was past 60 years of age with such force as to knock him from a buggy and fracture three of his ribs. His injuries were of such a nature that the old man has not been able to do a day's work since. Then the old man, Charles Baxter, now having passed the eightieth milestone in life, was called, and in a clear voice he unhesitatingly told of the faults of his dead son. Not one good word did he speak for him. He said he was cruel to his wife and family and when he saw him strike his wife on the head with his clenched fist, during a party at the Checketts home, and when the house was full of guests, he went to the man and remonstrated with him for his cruel act.

Heber Checketts, brother of the dead man, and his wife were the next witnesses and added more testimony showing that Joseph Checketts had always been a cruel man toward his family. The brother said that he had been mean and quarrelsome ever since he could remember. Each of the witnesses testified to the good character of Mrs. Checketts and also that Frank was a good and obedient son.

Immediately after the reading of the jury's verdict, young Checketts was released from custody and permitted to accompany his heart broken mother, whose life he saved, and his brother and sisters to their home.

NO ARMORY, NO GUARD.

Company B, N. G. U. Threatens to Resign in a Body.

Ogden, March 2.—Announcement was made here yesterday by one of the officers of Company B, N. G. U., to the effect that unless Ogden got a new armory the local company would resign in a body. The reason that it would be impossible to keep the company together without the new quarters. On the other hand if the armory is built it is safe to assume that Ogden will sport two instead of one company.

With this fact in view and providing the new armory is built the structure will be erected on a plan so that it will accommodate two companies. It is stated that the plans so far advanced by David Eccles, is to the effect that he will erect an $18,000 or $20,000 building, providing the state will contract beforehand to lease the same for a period of 19 years, at a monthly rental of $175. If the state will agree to this contract and the same is signed by the governor, work on the new armory will be commenced within a short time thereafter.

COURT AT MORGAN.

U. P. R. R. Co. Sued for $20,000 Damages for Death of C. E. Moore.

Ogden, March 2.—Judge J. A. Howell held a session of the Second district court at Morgan yesterday where the suit of George S. Burt vs. John W. Towner, to recover a horse and colt valued at $175. The jury returned a verdict of no cause for action.

Atty. King, Burton & King of Salt Lake and Maginnis & Corn of Ogden, appeared for the second time at the court at Morgan yesterday. A $20,000 damage suit against Union Pacific Railroad company, for Rose Moore, administratrix of the estate of Clarence E. Moore, deceased. The complainant alleges that on March 15, 1905 Clarence E. Moore the defendant company as a freight brakeman and was engaged in coupling the engine on to a box car when Morgan when the engine was backed,

NEW SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

The buildings and grounds committee of the county board of education met with several of the architects here yesterday in connection with the building of two new school structures in Weber county. During the afternoon the committee visited several of the city schools and inspected them with a view of obtaining information that would assist them in accepting the plans for the new buildings. Nothing definite has been arrived at as yet, and the committee will continue its labors until the sites and plans for the new buildings have been decided upon.

OGDEN BRIEFS.

Atty. M. D. Lessinger, is in Salt Lake where he has an action pending in the Third district court.

Attorney George Halverson was in Morgan yesterday, attending the session of court held there by Judge J. A. Howell.

Mrs. W. S. Jones and Miss Tillie Hancock returned yesterday from a visit to Logan, where they attended the military ball of the Agricultural college.

John Sheffield of Kayville is visiting friends in Ogden for a few days. John M. Cannon, Jr., stopped off in Ogden yesterday on his way to South Africa, where he is going on a mission. Hugh Dougal of Salt Lake has been engaged as choir leader and soloist of the First Congregational church of Ogden.

J. P. Smith, through his attorneys, Heywood & McCormick, filed a suit in the district court here yesterday, and action against Isabel M. and Eugene S. Sears, to recover the amount of $400, alleged to be due the plaintiff in connection with his cashing two checks for $200 each, and payment upon the same being refused at the bank.

PROVO DEPARTMENT

The "News" is Delivered by Carrier in Provo at Seventy-Five Cents Per Month. R. J. Dagdale, Agent.

KNIGHT HOME DEDICATED.

Interesting Event Participated in by President Joseph F. Smith.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Utah Co., March 2.—The beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Knight was formally dedicated last evening. President Joseph F. Smith and wife, President Anthon H. Lund and President Frank Y. Taylor and wife of Salt Lake, and a few intimate friends, together with relatives living in this city, to the number of about 60, were present. The dedicatory prayer was offered by President Smith, and a large number of the guests delivered brief addresses of a congratulatory and reminiscent nature, characterized by a spirit of fraternity and of gratitude to the giver of all graces. The speeches were interspersed with vocal and instrumental selections, and a delicious luncheon was served. The parlors were profusely and tastefully decorated with white and pink carnations, narcissus and amilies.

PROF. MILLS' LECTURE.

Wednesday evening, Prof. John M. Mills of the L. D. S. University delivered the first of a course of seven lectures on the Book of Mormon to be given Wednesday evenings in the First ward meetinghouse under the auspices of the Y. L. M. A. of the ward. In the lecture Prof. Mills traced the history of the plates from the time Lehi left Jerusalem six hundred years before Christ till the time they were delivered to the Prophet Joseph Smith. The audience was not large, owing to the very inclement weather, but those who attended were greatly interested. The lecture next Wednesday evening will be on the Book of Mosiah.

PEOPLE DON'T RECORD DEEDS.

W. D. Beers, assistant engineer in the United States reclamation service, is here checking up the title in the Strawberry valley "waterusers' contracts with the government. He finds considerable difficulty in his work by reason of the failure on the part of many people to record their deeds.

SWEN O. NIELSON ON MEXICO.

Swen O. Nielson of Fairview was in Provo yesterday, on his way to attend a meeting of the directors of the Utah-Livestock & Sugar company, to be held today in Salt Lake. Mr. Nielson went with the excursion to Mexico in January, to inspect the company's 100,000-acre ranch, and he is well pleased with the holdings of the company. He expects to build there and to spend the winter in that country of sunshine and flowers. The possibilities are great in the sugar possibilities of some capital in Mr. Nielson's opinion, but it is no country for a man who has to depend on common labor to make a living, because he will have to compete with the peons, which

MANTI.

FUNERAL OF M. F. FARNSWORTH

Brilliant Career of Pioneer Closed at Seventy-Two.

Special Correspondence.

Manti, Sanpete Co., Feb. 28.—Funeral services were held over the remains of Moses Franklin Farnsworth this afternoon at the residence, President J. D. McAllister of the Manti Temple, Elders Henry Beal, Andrew Thompson, Dr. Shipp, President Andersen of the stake and F. M. Cox of the Bishopric, spoke words of consolation to the bereaved family and eulogized the character of the departed.

Elder Farnsworth was born in Edinburgh, Feb. 5, 1834, and came to Utah in 1853, locating in Pleasant Grove, where in 1834 he was baptized a member of the Church. He taught school in Mill Creek in 1854-5. He was early associated with the territorial militia, and at the approach of Johnston's army when the Nauvoo Legion was organized, he was appointed first lieutenant of company B, First battery, First regiment, and took an active part in all of its movements. He was also one of the 300 men who were left at Salt Lake City to set fire to it if needed, but when all the Saints moved south in 1858 and Johnston's army marched through the city.

In 1862-4 he filed a mission to England and in 1868 he took another mission to England, being away a year. He also took a trip east in 1892, to gather up genealogy and had it published in book form.

He moved to Kanab in 1870, being called to help settle that place, but in 1875 he went to St. George to help build the St. George temple and in 1877 he was made recorder of the temple, which position he held until 1888, when he came to Manti, where he was chosen to be head recorder of the Temple which position he held up to his death Feb. 23. He leaves 29 living children, and a host of other relatives to mourn his demise.

Louis H. Hougaard returned Monday from Ogden, where he has been with a shipment of horses.

Joseph L. Braithwaith has been compelled to remain in the house the past week and nurse a lame back.

The smallpox has been corralled now and many of the flags are being taken down so that before long the quarantine will be lifted and public gatherings allowed.

GARDEN CITY NOTES.

Fish and Game Commissioner Sharp was here yesterday, and with County Fish and Game Warden Jones, was looking into matters relating to the fish interests.

District Attorney Melville of the Fifth district and Sheriff Whitehead were in the case of the state vs. Arthur Parsons, to be tried in Nephi this week.

The Wolfe Stock company comes to the opera house for a week's engagement, beginning Monday evening.

The Commercial class graduates of the B. Y. U. has organized with S. P. Parker president and George Bartholomew, secretary.

Wm. M. Roylance went to Salt Lake today to attend a directors' meeting of the Utah-Mexican Live Stock and Sugar company.

A large number of the friends and relatives of Mrs. Joseph Walton, of Alpine, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walton Tuesday to celebrate Mrs. Walton's 85th birthday anniversary. The occasion was a very enjoyable one, alike for the many guests and the venerable couple, who have enjoyed each other's society as husband and wife for fifty-one years.

A proposition to bond for waterworks has been voted down in Alpine, but those who favor the improvement have not given up their efforts to attain it. They claim it is an absolute necessity for the preservation of the health of the people, as it is impossible to get wells and the ditches are in an unsanitary condition by reason of the large number of cattle which are constantly defecating the streams.

The Provo Commercial club will give a musicale and luncheon in the club rooms Tuesday evening. The following is the program: (1) Male quartet, (2) violin solo, Master Ralph Booth; (3) Vocal solo, Miss Pearl Boren; (4) Reading, Mrs. Byron W. King; (5) Clarinet solo, Mr. Johnson; (6) Ten minute address, "Utah County Fair"; (7) Vocal selections, Prof. A. C. Lund, Stories, Luncheon.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher

Brush Sale!

We are overstocked and have cut the price on all brushes. A complete line of all brushes, bath brushes, clothes brushes, shoe brushes and paint brushes to select from.

An exceptionally fine hair brush on sale this week for 35 CENTS.

Remember the number—

44 MAIN STREET.

Ansie Brice Drug Co.

Consults A Physician

But does NOT Tell Him All.

Few women confide fully in a physician. They simply will not tell him all. That's why many doctors fail to cure female diseases.

Every woman dreads the ordeal of the physician's consulting room. A sensitive, refined woman shrinks from the searching questions and the physical examination!

It is not so in writing to Mrs. Pinkham. Thousands of women owe their present health and happiness (yes, and their good looks, too) to the fact that they have told all their physical troubles to Mrs. Pinkham and followed her advice and been cured of female diseases.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cures more women every year than any other medicine in the world. If you are in doubt about your case, write in perfect confidence to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. You will receive in reply a personal letter of advice free. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for twenty-five years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For three months I was sick in bed with female trouble and had four doctors who all agreed that I must undergo an operation. My sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before I submitted to an operation. I did so and am very glad to say that after I had used five bottles I was restored to perfect health, which I have enjoyed ever since. I am only too glad to recommend your medicines, as they saved me from an operation which might have proved fatal.

MRS. M. KUTNER,
556 South Main St., Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. Hayes also profited by Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Sometime ago I wrote you describing my symptoms (fibroid tumor) and asked your advice. You replied and I followed all your directions carefully and today am a well woman.

MRS. E. F. HAYES.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cures Where Others Fail

AT BARTON'S

Bring The Boys' Here
When they need their Spring Clothing. WE MAKE A SPECIALTY OF BOYS' CLOTHING THAT'S MADE TO LAST. Some of our Suit Prices are $2.50, $3.00, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00, $7.00, $8.00. We can please you. Then there are large lines of Shirts, Waists, Hats, Stockings, Etc.

Leading Clothiers for Men and Boys, - 45-47 Main St.

ALBERT S. REISER, JEWELER.

12 E. 1st South. Bell Tel. 2640-K.
Watches, Diamonds and Jewelry.
Repair Work a Specialty.

GODBE PITTS.

PRESCRIPTION DRUGGISTS,
101 MAIN ST.

WANTED

To Buy or Sell Household Goods—Redman & Jensen Furniture Co., 113 S. West Temple, Phones 555.

UTAH DENTAL CO.

DR. ZIMMERMAN, MGR.
MOST RELIABLE DENTISTS IN THE CITY.

234 Main.

SET OF TEETH (Best Red Rubber) $2.00

GOLD CROWNS, (23-k) ..... $2.50 to $5.00

BRIDGE WORK, (Best) ..... $2.50 to $5.00

GOLD FILLINGS, (Best) ..... $1.00 Up

OTHERS ..... $1.00 to $2.00

15-YEAR PROTECTIVE GUARANTEE.

TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAIN.

Open till 6 p. m.; Sundays, 10 to 2. Phone 113, Bell 113-7; Ind. 253.

Stubborn Coughs and Colds

Obstinate racking coughs that settle on the lungs and may develop into Pneumonia over night are quickly cured by

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

It soothes and heals the inflamed air passages, stops the cough, heals and strengthens the lungs. FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and is safest for children and delicate people.

Remember the name—FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR—and insist upon having the genuine, as no other remedy is so safe or as certain in results.

Given Up to Die With Croup.

Mrs. P. I. Corder, of Mannington, Ky., writes: "My three-year old girl had a severe case of croup; the doctor said she could not live and I gave her up to die. I went to the store and got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. The first dose gave quick relief and saved her life."

Editor Cured of Lung Trouble.

W. L. Straub, Editor of St. Petersburg (Fla.) Times, writes: "When coming across the bay from Port Tampa I got wet and caught a cold that affected my throat and lungs. I neglected it, thinking I would soon recover, but I kept getting worse, until I bought a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar, and it cured me completely."

Three sizes—25c, 50c, $1.00. The 50 cent size contains two and one-half times as much as the small size and the $1.00 bottle almost six times as much. Refuse Substitutes.

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY
F. J. HILL DRUG CO.

REMARKABLE EXPERIMENTS AND STUDIES ON THE STOMACH.

How To Eat Properly.

BY DR. VALENTINE.

Not long ago Horace Fletcher published a book called "The Art of Eating Properly," in which he advocated, "Do right the feeding of your body; Nature will do all the rest for you." After a dozen years of unimpaired experiments upon himself and upon dogs, cats and other animals, Mr. Fletcher concludes that the average human being eats three times as much as is good for him; that by eating only one-third as much and butting out the rest, he can live longer, and even more thoroughly than by Gladstone's famous thirty-two bites of each mouthful, a person is assured of unending health, strength, contentment and longevity. In a word, he will have annihilated the chief cause of all disease—indigestion. Mr. Fletcher conducted experiments at Yale and Cambridge Universities, and made them a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, which is indicated by a desire for some particular simple food, accompanied by a watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to homes, offices or factory, and in consequence the stomach must