DR. GREEN
corrected this statement and said that the stockholders' meetings three-fourths of the time had been frequently represented.

Hebbs said in this country there was practically no competition in the telegraph business, and there could be none, for it was a business which could be carried on more easily and cheaply by one company than by a number, and the question arose whether the government could not manage it more cheaply than the Western Union, and whether the Western Union itself could not manage it more cheaply than it does.

DR. GREEN
said that the United States government had demanded of Spain heavy damages on account of the alleged ill-treatment of the sailors of the U. S. S. Albatross, and that the United States government was not strictly correct. The diplo-

New York, Jan. 20.—An extra edition of the proceedings against Chas.
Benson, the roving aviator, who has been indicted for the murder of the amount of $50,000 by selling bogus Patent opera tickets, were begun yesterday before United States Commissioner Lynch. Benson's lawyer had arranged to have Benson arrested at the time of Benson's arrest, and also manager manager Abbey and sub-manager Mayer. The old complaint of forgery was withdrawn by the prosecution, and instead Benson was charged with
