Home Agency-The Home Agency company of this city has filed its articles of incorporation with the county clerk. Its capital stock is $8,000, divided into shares of the par value 1 each. A. H. Ensign is president; E. L. Elder, vice president; T. H. Cartright, secretary and treasurer The company will engage in a general insurance agency business.

C. E. Wood's Condition-Word was received today from the bedside of Charles E. Wood, former assistant fire chief of this city, who contracted a case of blood poisoning last week by running a fish hook into his finger, that his condition today is He favorable as it was yesterday. spent a very restless night, but his physicians are still confident of his recovery.

Advance In Salary-Cashier David E. Evans of the Internal revenue office here has been notified that he will receive an advance in salary of $100 a ear, and the deputy in charge of Helena office gets an advance of $200. This announcement follows the rece Internal Revenue Collector Callister of the allowance for his department for the ensuing year. No changes have been made at the branch offices at Butte, Helena and Boise.

Another One Held-Justice of the Peace Dana T. Smith yesterday held to the district court in $500 bonds George Nicaros, a Greek, who charaged with engaging in a riot at Garfield on June 14. George Pappas, accused of a similar offense, took a change of venue from Judge Smith's court to that of Justice F. M. Bishop. He, however(fared no better than did s companion, and was bound over in a like sum to answer to a higher court.

Little Girl Hurt-Bessie Chase, the 9-year-old daughter of Detective Geo. Chase of the Sait Lake police force, was painfully injured at the family residence, 1177 Emerson avenue, yes erday afternoon. The little girl heard her baby sister screaming and while running to the assistance of the tot, Bessle fell and dislocated her left arm at the elbow. A physician was quickly immoned and attended to the injury. The child is now resting easily.

Car Hit Wagon-About 5 o'clock last evening there was a smash up between a street car and a brewery wagon, the latter in charge of Otto Grow. The car was on the Ashton avenue line and the accident happened at Ninth East and Ninth South. the wagon was crossing the tracks the car ran into it ow was thrown from the seat and his left leg was broken. The wagon was badly dam-aged. Grow was taken to the L. D. S. hospital where his broken leg was set by Dr. Joseph S. Richards,

The St. George temple will close its doors on Friday, June 29, and will not reopen again until Tuesday, Aug. 23, 1906. DAVID H. CANNON, Mrs. Mahan Dead-Mrs. Cora May Mahan, formerly Miss Cordon, yesterday morning at the family died dence, 48 east First North street, after a lingering illness. She was born at Rocktown, Iowa, in 1879, and lived for some years with her parents in Den-ver. In 1890 she was married to Archibald G. Mahan, and for seven Lake has been their home years Salt A sister, Miss Ella Gordon, lives here and two sisters, Mrs. W. M. Merrill and Mrs. T. J. Brown, are residents of Grand Junction, Colo. The funeral will be held from Unity hall Thursday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock.

Levy Arrested Again-M. Levy, the junk dealer charged with receiving stolen property, was again arrested . yesterday upon a second charge of the same character. A complaint was ised against Levy and sworn to by F. E. Hanson on behalf of the Rio Grande Western Railway company. It is al-leged that Levy purchased $100 worth of journal brass from Harry LeRoy and Bert Miller who stole the same from the railroad company. Levy was taken before Judge Whitaker and was admitted to ball. A third complaint will probably be issued against Levy upon request of the San Pedro road.
