MAYOR WINS THE INJUNCTION SUIT.

Judge Hall Holds That City Has No Right to Transfer Liquor Licenses.

HEATH PETITION WAS DENIED.

As a Result the Bar Near the State Fair Grounds Was Closed Up Tight Today.

The injunction suit brought by Heath Brothers against Mayor Morris and Chief of Police Lynch, was decided late yesterday afternoon by Judge Hall in favor of defendant and it was ordered that the petition for a permanent injunction be denied and that the temporary restraining order issued on Wednesday afternoon by Judge Morse be set aside. Acting under the decision of the court, the bar run by plaintiffs opposite the entrance to the fair grounds was ordered closed again by Mayor Morris and hence plaintiffs will deprived of today's business. parties to the action were ordered by the court to pay their respective costs. The point at issue in the case was the right of the city council to transfer a liquor license from one locality to another in the city. Although Judge by denying the injunction, he has held that the council has no such authority

STOLE JEWELRY. Hotel Robbery Traced to George Murphy, a Kenyon Porter.

Grand larceny is the charge on which George Murphy, second porter of the Kenyon, was arrested last even Jewels valued at $250 were stolen several days ago from a guest's room, and after working secretly for a period, the local detective force and hotel manage ment succeeded in fixing upon Murphy as the gullty person. He secured his board bill at the Blackmore lodging nouse, where he had been living, with a gold bracelet, a day after the theft ocjewelry over to Mr. Porter of the Kenyon, with a statement of how it was procured. That led to a suspicion of Murphy, and after a day's hunt through Ogden and Salt Lake, he was finally lo-cated last evening about 6 o'clock in this city, by Chief Lynch and Capt. Burbidge.

Mr. Porter hopes to recover the rest of the stolen jewelry, and has received a confession from the thief that he pawned another piece in a gambling house. Murphy denies his guilt, and claims he found the jewelry in the base-

GREEK PLAY ABANDONED

University Dramatic Club Will Tour The State With "Our Boy."

At a meeting of the University Dramatic club yesterday, it was decided to abandon the giving of a Greek play, and instead to stage Byron's "Our Boy," and take it on a "barnstorming" tour of the state during the Christmas re-cess. The play is a comedy full of laughable situations, and is peculiarly fitted to the abilities of the club's star members.

The omission of the Greek play makes Shakespeare's "A Winter's Tale" the main production of the year. Applications for places in the two productions are so numerous that but few students will have roles in both. Consequently rehearsals can go on at the same time, without evertaxing the available talent. It is hoped to have the comedy ready for the stage within a month and a
