PARALYTIC STROKE.

Conveyed to Police Station and Then To His Home.

At a late hour vesterday afternoon an old man named Thomas Bedford, residing at 238 F street, was stricken with paralysis on the corner of State and Second South streets, and fell helplessly to the ground.

Officer Barlow saw the old man fai and ran quickly to his assistance. Finding that he was unable to arise or move his right arra or leg, the officer sent for the patrol wagon. Mr. Bedford was placed carefully on a stretcher and it. The wires will be laid in a con-duit, being enclosed in % and %-inch on a table in the officers' quarters. MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

At the council committee meeting: last night, the petition of Judge Tanner of the new city court, for addition. il furniture for his court room was brought up before the committee on municipal laws and was given rather a cool reception. The judge also asked for a bailiff, which the committee forthwith refused for the reason that the court does not transact enough bush ress to require the services of both clerk and bailiff. The petition aske for a witness box, twelve rotary chair for the jury, two rotary chairs one rotary thair for the clerk judge, book case, mirror, dresser, couch an stationery. The council has alread appropriated $690 for furnishing th oom and it was somewhat of a tery to the committee why it had no been properly done, so they all retire to the basement to see how the judge quarters looked and upon their they decided to refer the petition to the committee on control of city and county oullding.
