

THEIR CHOICE FOR PRESIDENT

administration. As for second choice, I believe Secretary Root would be the most desirable man.

COL. J. J. DAYNES, JR.—My first choice, last and every time, is Theodore Roosevelt. I would be perfectly willing to go out and work personally for him, if called upon to do so. I am in for his serving a second elective term.

HENRY J. WALLACE—I am a Democrat, but have not yet made up my mind as to who my choice would be. I have a high opinion of Mr. Roosevelt, and if he were nominated and elected, I should not feel badly over it.

J. Q. CRITCHLOW—Roosevelt is my first choice. But he is not available. Secretary Root is my next choice. Roosevelt is a man of the people, one in whom every one has confidence.

H. M. WALKER—I am not in politics, and so do not care to express any special preference; but any good Republican who is nominated by the national convention will satisfy me.

W. S. NICOL—I am for Roosevelt for a second elective term, for the business interests of the country are safe with him. My next choice would be Secretary Root, who has shown himself to be a great statesman.

CR. BEARSALL—Theodore Roosevelt is my odds my choice for next president. For I consider him as strong a man as ever sat in the presidential chair. I have no second choice, as Roosevelt is all I want.

GEORGE D. MATTEER—I have no choice as to the presidential nomination. The date of election is too far away.

LOUIS SIMON—Roosevelt is my choice without the shadow of a doubt. With him in the presidential chair we all know just what to expect. We know that the country is under a safe guide. I have no choice as to second in case Mr. Roosevelt does not run.

COL. WILLIAM NELSON—I don't know as I have anything to say as to who my personal choice would be for the presidency, at present; only I am sure it would not be Mr. Roosevelt.

LITTLE BROS.—Our choice would be Senator Foraker; and after him, Senator Knox, both of whom are good men.

MANAGER LEVITT FOR BEN DAVIS—Roosevelt first, last and every time.

GEORGE T. ODELL, COL. WEBER and A. L. THOMAS declined to express any opinions.

C. W. NIBLEY—I favor President Roosevelt and believe he will run in spite of all that has been said to the contrary. If for any reason he should not, Taft would be my choice. But Taft would favor a platform which would protect the interests of the west.

THOMAS R. CUTLER, general manager of the several sugar companies—My first choice would be President Roosevelt, as I would like to see him carry out the great policy of reform which he has inaugurated. If for any reason he does not run, I will favor any candidate who will stand on a platform that will favor a square deal for the interests of the western part of the United States.

SPENCER CLAWSON—You may put me down for Gov. Hughes of New York. He has all the qualities of bravery that Roosevelt possesses.

JOHN D. SPENCER—I am for Taft, and I believe his years of experience, added to his knowledge of all the country needs, will enable him to steer right on the questions that affect all parts of the country.

DEPUTY U. S. MARSHALL L. H. SMYTHE—First, Theodore Roosevelt again for president; failing in that, Joseph G. Cannon of Illinois. "Uncle Joe" cannot be good enough for me."

DEPUTY MARSHALL JULIAN RILEY—President Roosevelt is my first choice, and I have not as yet picked out a second candidate.

E. D. R. THOMPSON, registrar of land office—Taft is my first choice and Knox second. "What of Roosevelt?" asked a bystander. "Oh, of course, I was considering President Roosevelt out of the race."

COL. MAURICE M. KAIGHN, receiver of land office—If it were not a question of a third term, I would be for Mr. Roosevelt, but as the situation is, Taft's candidacy meets my approval.

JAMES H. ANDERSON—I have always been a supporter of President Roosevelt, but do not believe that he will accept another nomination. The man who will most strictly carry out Roosevelt's policies stands the best show. Who that person is I do not know at present.

HON. W. W. RITTER—"Why Roosevelt, of course." "And your second choice, Mr. Ritter?" "Roosevelt," just as promptly came the reply. "Then with you it is Roosevelt, first, last and all the time?" queried the "News" man. "Exactly," replied the banker. "He does not want the nomination, but I believe that the conservative element of the country will unite in demanding, not asking Mr. Roosevelt to become a candidate, and nomination would mean election."

W. N. WILLIAMS, state senator—I favor President Roosevelt as first choice, and he is the only man of the other strong man who will carry out the policy Roosevelt has begun.

W. P. O'MEARA—I am for Roosevelt first. Speaker Cannon second. Cannon comes from Illinois, so do I.

CAPT. DUNCAN MEVICHIE—I am too busy to think about politics. However, Roosevelt is good enough and I wouldn't object to his being re-nominated. Hughes of New York ought to make a good president and I don't know but he would be just as preferable as Roosevelt.

J. J. GREENWALD—I have only one choice for the next Republican presidential nomination and that man is President Roosevelt. I consider him to be the greatest typical American that America has ever produced. He was elected only once and I do not consider that he would be serving a third time if elected again. The people of this country are not going to let him refuse the nomination of the Republican party, and I am for Roosevelt, first, last and all the time.

GEORGE W. HEINTZ, traffic manager of the United States, Traffic, Refining & Mining company—Roosevelt, first, Root, second; Hughes, third.

J. R. WOODBRIDGE, vice president Taylor & Bruntton Sampling company—My first choice would be President Roosevelt and after him William H. Taft, who is probably better qualified to carry out the policies of the present administration than any other person.

J. B. COSGRIFF—Of the Commercial bank and a Wyoming delegate to the national convention which nominated Roosevelt last time, is undecided whom he wishes to succeed the man he helped place in office. The rank and file of the Republican party is leaning toward Taft as Roosevelt has practically spoken for him, but personally I believe Root would be an excellent man.

At the convention he was regarded as a successor to Roosevelt in a very favorable light. I think Root in Taft's shoes would be a great thing."

O. C. REEBE—Of the Zion's Savings bank is for Roosevelt. When it was suggested that his favorite will refuse to run again in all probability, Mr. Reeb said he had given no other possible candidate any thought and had no choice.

J. J. DALY—Theodore Roosevelt would be, of course, my first choice. I am a great admirer of him. Should he refuse to run—why, then I will abide by the choice of the convention. Taft or Root? Well I consider Root one of the greatest men in the United States.

JUDGE J. E. DARNER—Legal light and an American party leader, picks Fairbanks, and so does Judge D. H. Wenger. Both believe their choice has the brains and grit necessary to fill the nation's highest position in a befitting manner.

A. FRED WEY—Is for Roosevelt. "Just because he is a good man," explains Mr. Wey, "mine host" at the Wilson.

FRAN KNOX—Of the National Bank of the Republic has his favorites lined up thus: Roosevelt, Root, Fairbanks, Taft, and United States Senator P. C. Knox of Pittsburgh. Mr. Knox believes Root would be the best man because he would originate new policies as occasion demanded.

LOUIS COHN—Of the department store bearing his name, has selected Taft as a successor to Roosevelt if the latter will not yield to the pressure being brought on him to run for office a third time. Gov. Hughes of New York is Mr. Cohn's second choice. Both men, he explains, have individuality and in their election no great changes would be occasioned.

A. H. CRABBE—Of the men's furnishing store bearing his name, is for Taft, because that candidate, if elected, would carry out the undeveloped plans of Roosevelt.

I. A. BENTON and Wm. Huntsberger of the Rio Grande are both for Hughes. "The people are going to elect this election, and Hughes is the kind of man the people want," Root is also in second favor with Mr. Benton and Mr. Huntsberger, because he would carry out the ideas originally advanced by Roosevelt and in favor throughout the country.

JUDGE C. B. DIEHL—My first choice among the probable candidates for the presidency is Roosevelt. Taft is my second choice.

MAJ. H. P. MYTON—Roosevelt has made a good president. Taft would be nothing if he did not have Roosevelt behind him.

CHIEF OF POLICE SHEETS—I don't know much about any of the candidates. Taft would suit me.

ATTY. SOREN X. CHRISTENSEN—Out of all the Republican leaders my choice is Foraker and my second choice is Knox. I think Foraker is the best of all.

A. J. DAVIS—Taft is my first choice and Cannon second. I don't believe there is a brighter man in the country than Cannon.

C. M. FREED—I do not know who would be my first choice. I have thought little about it, but I don't like Roosevelt.

A. W. RAYBOULD—What? Oh, Roosevelt first, last and all the time. As to second choice with Roosevelt eliminated, Taft.

CAPT. J. B. BURRIDGE—I have given the question no thought what, ever, but at present would say Taft.

JUDGE COLBURN—It's too soon, dear boy; we might want to switch our minds. You know, we couldn't without stultification. It really don't make any difference anyhow what we want, for it will not affect the result.

DON PORTER, proprietor of the Kenyon hotel, is for Roosevelt, first, and always. "But should Roosevelt refuse to run again, I favor Root strongly, considering him one of the most brilliant men in the United States. While the corporations need further attention, they must not be saddled too suddenly, and other matters just as big and important must be met with too roughly, and I believe Root is a fearless, thoroughly honest man, with plenty of discretion, so necessary in this make-up of an ideal president."

CHIEF JUSTICE MCARTY, supreme court of Fairbanks is my first choice, as I believe him to be as safe a man as any mentioned in that connection.

JUSTICE D. N. STRAUP, supreme court—Elihu Root is first in my mind, as I consider him the ablest man in administration, and he will carry out the policy of the administration.

JUSTICE PRICK, supreme court—President Roosevelt is my choice and next to him is Elihu Root, as I consider the latter as the ablest man there outside of President Roosevelt.

STATE SUPT. OF SCHOOLS NELSON—Roosevelt would be my first choice, and then comes Taft, whom I lecture and then comes the Roosevelt policy.

COL. GEORGE B. SQUIRES—President Roosevelt first and then any man whom he wants to carry out the policy of the administration. It appears that Taft is the man, hence he is my second choice.

ATTY. GEN. BREEDEN—President Roosevelt without any reservation. Next to him I would choose Vice President Fairbanks.

DIST. JUDGE CHRISTIANSON—President Roosevelt is my first choice and next is either Root or Hughes.

STATE AUDITOR EDWARDS—President Roosevelt would be my first choice, but I don't know as to second.

COUNTY CLERK ELDERIDGE—Roosevelt is first in my mind, and in the event that he would not accept I would favor Foraker.

SHERIFF EMERY—Roosevelt is my first choice, and I have no second.

COUNTY AUDITOR HENINGBOTHAM—President Roosevelt is first with either Taft or Root second.

COUNTY RECORDER PERKINS—I would say that President Roosevelt is my first choice and Taft second.

COL. M. A. KAIGHN—Roosevelt would be my first choice, but for the third term matter. Next to him I would prefer Taft.

J. M. BOWMAN—President Roosevelt first, and second as I consider the latter an ideal man for the office.

H. V. VAN PELT—Hughes is my man.

B. G. SCHULDER—Taft would be my selection for president, with Hughes as vice president. With those two we could easily control New York and Ohio.

W. A. LEE—Taft, in my judgment, would come nearer to carrying out the policy of the administration than is a policy of the administration, and is a very able man. He is my first choice.

C. E. MARKS—Roosevelt is first with Root second. I consider Secy. Root as a very conservative and able man.

A. R. BARNES—Taft in my opinion is the most popular man for the place.

C. S. PRICE—Roosevelt, first with Taft second, choice as he would carry out the Republican policy.

JUDGE J. A. STREET—Root in my estimation is the best man mentioned for the office and is best fitted to solve the great problems before the American people.

W. R. HUTCHINSON—I am for Taft. CITY ENGINEER L. C. KELSEY—Root would be my choice.

P. J. MORAN—Taft would be my choice as I think he is the strongest man.

COUNCILMAN T. R. BLACK—I would prefer Gov. A. B. Cummings of Iowa. He is the people's man.

W. H. BRAMEL—Roosevelt is my favorite as he is the best Democrat in the country and to Bryan, I would put Bryan as second.

CITY SUPT. OF SCHOOLS CHRISTENSEN—President Roosevelt is the favorite candidate as he is for no party but for what is right.

CLERK L. P. JUDD, of the board of education—I think I would favor Taft with Hughes as second.

COUNCILMAN W. MONT PERRY—Taft is the man for I believe he will carry out the policy of the administration.

COUNCILMAN A. R. CARTER—I am a Taft man also.

COUNCILMAN E. C. O'DONNELL—Although I am a Republican I would favor W. J. Bryan as president. I have voted for him twice and would do so again should he be nominated.

COUNCILMAN C. J. CRABTREE—I favor Taft.

THOMAS HULL—"A second choice is out of the question while there is a possibility that Mr. Roosevelt will accept renomination. You might as well ask a young man who is madly in love with a girl whom else he would marry."

WILLIAM SPRY—"Unless he positively declines, there is but one man for the place, and of course that is President Roosevelt. Secretary Root is a strong man."

OGDEN.

JUDGE J. A. HOWELL—My first and second choice for president are Theodore Roosevelt and William H. Taft, respectively.

STATE SENATOR HULANSKI—Fairbanks is my man for president.

A. T. WRIGHT—Roosevelt.

R. A. HOAG, banker—Theodore Roosevelt first, Mr. Taft second.

DAVID MATSON, county clerk—My choice for president? Senator Knox.

H. C. BIGELOW, banker—Taft first, Hughes second.

J. S. LEWIS, jeweler—Taft is the man.

SENATOR C. R. HOLLINGSWORTH—If not President Roosevelt, then Mr. Taft.

GEORGE HALVERSON, district attorney—Taft first, Root second.

HON. JOSEPH STANFORD—Roosevelt is my first choice, with Fairbanks second.

JOHN FINGREE—President Roosevelt is my first choice, and that falling, I would like to see Secy. Root become president.

JUDGE A. R. HEYWOOD—Root first, and Senator Murray Crane, second. That is my lineup for presidential candidate.

PROVO.

DIST. ATT. D. D. HOUTZ—From what appears up to the present, I am in favor of Secy. Taft for the next president of the United States. The reforms in progress must be firmly and thoroughly, but wisely, executed. Mr. Taft stands for them, with a record testifying to his eminent ability for the work. The present administration suits me exactly. Mr. Taft is in accord with it. I am not in favor of Theodore Roosevelt for a third term, and do hope the high favor in which he stands will be dissipated, and that the temptation of what is greater than a crown, will not lure him to disregard, not a sentiment, but a part of our Constitution, though unwritten. I have no second choice.

MAYOR J. H. FRISBY—Theodore Roosevelt; second choice, Secy. Taft.

JOS. T. FARRER—Who is my first choice? Theodore Roosevelt; my next choice would be a man who is in the closest harmony with President Roosevelt's policies, possibly Secy. Taft.

EPH. HOMER, Republican county chairman—Roosevelt, Senator Knox. My reason for naming Knox is that I consider Knox the strongest man, the brightest man, the man best qualified to fill the executive chair in the Republican party today, outside of President Roosevelt.

W. H. RAY—Taft first, Root second.

POSTMASTER CLOVE—Well, I am for anyone that Roosevelt wants. I am for a successor to the administration, in other words. That means the carrying of the administration policies.

A. L. BOOTH, Republican city chairman—Roosevelt; second choice, Root or Taft, with a sneaking regard for Bryan. Foraker would not make a bad president. But in connection with Roosevelt I want to say that I would abjure him from any promise or pledge that may seem to stand in the way of his acceptance of the nomination, and I think if he does not take it this time the people will insist upon his nomination at some future time.

W. E. RYDALCH—First, Elihu Root; second, William H. Taft.

COUNTY CLERK GEE—Roosevelt. Taft. Roosevelt has already established his policy in business affairs, and there will be no change if he is re-elected. Neither would there be if Taft was elected.

W. LESTER MANGUM—First Roosevelt; second, no second.

JACOB EVANS—First, Elihu Root; second, William H. Taft.

Chicago, June 28.—Freight rates in the territory between the Mississippi river and the Rocky mountains will be advanced 5 per cent by the action of the western railroads in raising the minimums on carload shipments and other changes in the classification.

It has not yet been determined to cancel many of the carload commodity tariffs, though a few of those whose usefulness has passed will be canceled and the commodity rates will be put to classification. It is the intention to cancel all less than carload commodity rates but as they were made to meet special conditions, the shippers generally have not made any specific complaint.

The call for the meeting of the western classification committee at Chicago, Minn., July 16, was sent out yesterday. The docket contains 425 subjects, many of which were rulings issued by F. O. Becker, chairman of the committee, since January 15, 1907, and will be ratified by the committee. The most important of the subjects is "to revise the minimum weights" on which special commodity rates are based. The committee has been authorized to make such changes as it may deem proper in the classification of commodities.
