Magazines. - Puck for July 7 has some very striking cartoons, "The Army Worm" being the best in its allusions and easily recognized likeuceses of public men. Harper's Weekly for July 10 is as full of attractive items and illustrations as ever, and Leslie's Weekly is unusually fine in all its departments. Dwyer has them all for sale, with other popular periodicals.

Descendants of the Pilgrims, Attention'-All descendants of the Pilcrims of Plymouth Rock, are cordially invited to join in following the Pilgrim tableau car in the procession on the 24th, and are requested to report by letter or otherwise, to Naport by letter or otherwise, to Na- money at the mine. In the mean-thaniel H. Felt, Chairman of the time, it is said that Pollard went organization of the natives of New England, or to George Hamlin, or farrangements.

In-stead of this, they will be permitted to witness the grand procession from the sidewalks, and then be dismissed for the day. The arrangements are Stephens, such that there will not be room for the little ones inside the Taberna-

Two Engines Collide. - Ogden had a railroad collision yesterday morning, between the Central Pacific witch engine and the engine of the ('tah Central accommodation train. The Junction says the former was endeavoring to pass over the track where the two lines cross, just as the latter was moving into the station. The U. C. engine tore off the rear truck of the other's tender, did other damage, and was somewhat battered itself. No further harm.

"Rosedale, or the Rifle Ball."-

The beautiful and romantic play "Rosedale" is undergoing active redearsal by the Home Dramatic Club, and will be produced first on the evening of Friday, the 23d inst., night preceeding the grand jubilee celebration. Visitors to the city who arrive 'on Friday, as most of them are sure to do, will therefore have an opportunity of witnessing an enjoyable dramatic entertainment, as a preface to the extensive exhibition of the following day.

Railroad Talk .-- Under this caption, yesterday's Enquirer has the following:

"fhere has been considerable said of late about a project said to be in contemplation for the building of a road from Echo, on the U. P. rail-road, through to this city, to join the I tah Southern at this point. There or the rumor from what we have been able to ascertain from railroad men. The contemplated road will run from Echo to Park City, thence to Heber City, Wasatch County, and from there down Provo Canyon to Provo City. This road will take away from the Utah Central all the traffic coming over the Union Pacific that is designed for Pacific, thus avoiding Ogden and Halt Lake.

The Pioneer Celebration. - The committee on celebration for the "4th inst, held another meeting last evening. The names of J. P. Freeze and E. T. Wooley were added to the committee on nationalities. The question coming up as to whether the various trades and industries to be represented in the procession were to be permitted to advertize their business therein, after considerable discussion it was decided that inasmuch as the exhibition did not. have as its object the advertising of individuals and their personal interests, only the names of producers or manufacturers should be displayed ou banners, placards, etc, in the procession. The programme of exercises in the Tabernacle was also discussed, but action thereon was suspended until the next meeting, which will be held on Saturday evening next, at 7.30 o'clock, in the
