Massirsoros, B. C., April 22—
Mitchell addressed the Senate in favor of the constitutional smendinear proposed by him for the selection of Senates by a popular vote. Already fifteen changes ind been made in the Constitution, and who could say that any of them had not been seed advised? All these sincediments led up logically to the pending proposition. The present system of electing Senators, he declared, was unrepublican and vicious. It was in purpose declaration that for some reason it was unusafe to commit the election of Senators to vote of the people and a reflection on the honesty or capacity, or both, of the voting classes. Among other things, Mitchell declared that secret executive sessions were no imager in harmony with the spirit of the age. It was a

WASHINGTON, April 22.—After concurring in the Senate amendments to the World's Fair lift, the House went into committee of the whole on the legislative appropriation full.

Butterworth, in a trief saplamation of the bill, said that in some boreaus of the disparaments there was substantially a civil pension into the committee of a number of old persons of the disparaments there was substantially a civil pension into the control of a number of old persons who had faithfully served the government in the past, but who were no longer able to perform their duttes. They were curried on the rills, but were of no service to the government. The committee of a propertations had allowed an increase in the other had been considered the control and the c

Allen (Miss.) quoted from a speech delivered by Cannon and used as a campaign document, declaring that the republican party was devoted to the country, and would, if it came into power, administer the government with greater economy and grantly reduce the expenditures. He then quoted from the civil service plants of the republican party and from President Harrison's letter of acceptance, but the republican party had gone back on its promises, and he would call the attention of the country to the civil service precisions of the administration.

Allen recalled

Cannon replied to Dockery's criticism. In view of the last administration and the last causes, it seemed that the gentleman had setallowed a cannel then and now was straining at a gust. In the Philish Congress there were created 95 offices, with an aggregate expenditure of $1,164,000. The increase in ralaries made by the pending full was only $5,000. The increase in ralaries made in the Frifich Congress was $1,20,000. Willfamr (IIa.) criticised the republican house for not bringing in a bill for the settlement of
