Semi-annual Conference of the Y. M. C. A.—The Semi-Annual Conference of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association of the Territory was held at the Assembly Hall last evening at seven o'clock.

The General Superintendent of the Association, W. Woodruff, Jos. F. Smith, Moses Thatcher, and Assistant J. F. Wells were present. The congregation was large, the house being crowded.

The opening prayer was offered by Apostle Brigham Young. The roll called showed fifteen Stake organizations represented, exhibiting an aggregate membership of over 9,000.

The general authorities of the Association were presented by President Joseph F. Smith and unanimously sustained.

A committee was appointed to get up a uniform style of record to be used by all the associations.

Reports of associations, showing they were doing a large amount of good, were given as follows:

Utah Stake, by Mr. H. Hardy; Sevier, W. H. S. Eggleston; Sanpete, J. P. Alford; Davis, A. V. Call; Cache, L. R. Martineau; St. George, A. W. Ivins; Weber, E. H. Anderson; Wasatch, Brother Watson; Tooele, C. Anderson; Millard, L. Holbrook; Panguitch, J. W. Crosby.

Besides these, Sister Clark gave a report of the Young Ladies Association of Davis Stake; Sister Clifton of the Utah Stake and Sister Elmina Taylor of the Territory generally.

Instructive remarks were made by President W. Woodruff and Smith, and Apostle M. Thatcher, of the general superintendency.

The benediction was pronounced by Apostle Erastus Snow.

Salt River.—We were pleased to receive a call to-day from President A. F. McDonald, of Salt River District, Maricopa Co., Arizona.

We learn from him that it is a promising country, having more facilities than this had when it was first settled.

All the necessary facilities for a fine agricultural district are there, excepting timber, which is scarce. The water is conveyed by canal on to the mesa or table lands.

The entire country bears the marks of a high civilization long past, in the form of scientifically constructed aqueducts, mounds, ruins of buildings and other remains of an intelligent people.

The settlers of Mesa City now use five miles of one of the ancient canals, which answers their purpose admirably.

The climate bears a strong resemblance to that of Southern Utah, being very warm from May to September, but mild during the balance of the year.

Brother McDonald says that Mesa is greatly in want of a good schoolmaster, music teacher, blacksmith and school teacher. Any person proficient in either of these pursuits would find a good opening. Information can be obtained from him.

The schools of Maricopa are free, and good salaries are paid to teachers, by the county.

Comparative New Testament.—The Comparative New Testament, both versions on the same page, in parallel columns, published by Porter & Coates, has been universally pronounced to be the best form in which the work has appeared; and the great success that has attended it has induced the publishers to add whatever improvements have occurred to them, or have been suggested by those who make constant use of the book. In accordance with this idea, the following improvements have been made, and it is now believed that the Comparative New Testament is, beyond all comparison, the most valuable and desirable edition of the work in the market.

ADDITIONS AND IMPROVEMENTS.

1. Chapter headings in Roman numerals.

2. Running head-lines as in the old version.

3. Chronology of the New Testament.

4. The readings preferred by the American committee, which were adopted by the committee on revision, are incorporated in the text. Those which were rejected are collectively in the appendix, and for convenience of reference are also inserted as foot-notes to the respective passages.

5. A history of the revision, and account of the methods followed by the committee on revision.

6. The text can be relied upon as absolutely correct.

Homicide.—A letter from one of the brethren at St. David, on the San Pedro River, Arizona, states that a man named McMinimann, owner of a large sheep herd, whose ranch was about three miles from the settlement, was found murdered on the 26th of March. Three bullets had been fired into his body. The deceased was possessed of considerable wealth, and is supposed to have been murdered for his money, by rogues, of which class there is quite a number in that part of the country. That element is, however, getting somewhat thinned down by a vigorous enforcement of the law.

A Fude Fellow.—On Saturday night, W. Patenger went to a house on First East Street, near the old St. James' Hall, and made a violent effort to gain an entrance. He broke a window, and when Wachman George Hilton arrived upon the scene, he was making powerful effort to break in the door, which was about two-thirds open, while a couple of women on the inside, in a state of terror, were struggling to keep him out. Mr. Hilton at once arrested Patenger and took him to the City Hall. To-day Justice Pyper fined him $25.

School and Farm Work.—A Fairview, Sanpete, correspondent writes: Day and Sunday schools have been well attended this winter, and the much good has been done in the way of training the young and tender minds in the right way. We have also a small Presbyterian school now, to accommodate such as are weak in the faith of the true God.

Spring work is now being pushed.

School Notice.—Superintendents and teachers of Sunday Schools in this Stake of Zion will please remember their meeting to-night, at half-past 7 p. m., in the upper room of the Council House.

GEORGE GODDARD, Stake Supt.

An Impetuous Trio.—This morning, John Pickering, W. Price and James Shields were before Justice Pyper on a charge of obtaining meals on false pretences. It appears that this hungry trio went into Mr. Gallagher's restaurant and after laying in supplies, could only muster 80 cents with which to foot the bill. Each was fined $5.50.

Before leaving the court, Shields remarked pathetically that he did not think he should have been fined. The Judge replied, with sedate humor, that as that was merely a matter of difference of opinion, it was not overwhelmingly important.

ORGANS WITH MEDALS AND TESTIMONIALS

VERSUS Organs Without Them.

THE MASON & HAMILIN ORGAN COMPANY HAVE entered into Competition with American and European makers of Organs at all the World's Great Exhibitions with their various styles of Organs, from one stop to the most elaborate, and at each one of them they obtained the FIRST PRIZE AND HIGHEST DISTINCTION OF DEMONSTRATED SUPERIORITY over all of the Most Celebrated Makers of Organs in Europe and in America. The most eminent Musicians, Organists, Artists and Musical Critics in all countries have declared, in written communications, that these organs are unequalled by any others in the world. The principal musicians in the Territory, recognizing these facts, have purchased the Mason & Hamelin Organs for their own use in preference to all others. There are many, and they are in the great majority, who never presumed to compete with first-class manufacturers at any of these exhibitions, some of whom now advertise that they "Never exhibited their instruments to compete for premiums" for the reason that "Awards are made the subject of the Greatest Misrepresentation and are but a source of jealousy, corruption and falsehood." These charges cannot apply to the Mason & Hamelin Organ Company, because a fact of all the medals and diplomas awarded to them, and the certificates of directors of each of the World's Exhibitions, and sent board-wards throughout Europe and America, (copies of which can be obtained at my office.) It is not probable that European jurors would have permitted an American firm to carry away evidences of so many victories over their own countrymen, if they could have honestly prevented it. If "management, intrigue and bribery" could have been used to influence the jurors in their decision, who will doubt that the awards would have been retained on the other side of the Atlantic? If, on one firm has the authority to give in its own case, the non-competition of each of the World's Exhibitions, and sent board-wards throughout Europe and America, (copies of which can be obtained at my office.)
