Suit for divorce has been filed in the district court by Elizabeth Hunter against Joseph Hunter on the grounds of failure to support and habitual intemperance. They were married at Scofield on Nov. 20, 1893, and have one child of which plaintiff asks the custody. Mrs. Hunter also asks that her maiden name, Elizabeth A. Hardee, be restored to her.

Mayor Morris has called a meeting of the special water committee of the city council, appointed by President Hewlett last Monday night, to be held tonight in the office of Richards & Varian. The object of the meeting is to discuss informally the question of obtaining a larger water supply for the city and protecting its rights in the Utah lake project.

The next monthly meeting of the Benefit association of the Nauvoo Legion will be held Monday evening, April 11, at 7:30 o'clock, in the Bishop's office, Tithing yard. A continuation of the intcresting lecture given at the last meeting by Wm. Sanders on the life of Joseph Smith, the Prophet, will be given by Mrs. E. Roundy, All members of the association are cordially invited.

Students, patrons and friends of the Salt Lake High school were given a rare treat last evening at Unity hall. The German department of that institution rendered a German comedy in a truly enjoyable manner. Two songs were gung by the junior class girls' quartet, after which all joined in a dance. The evening was pleasant throughout and is regarded by the stu-dents as one of the events of the year.
