WALTER GREENWELL DEAD.

A death that brought with it great wrief, occurred last evening, when Walter Greenwell, son of the late Ambrose and Ellen Shaw Greenwell, and one of the members of Greenwell Brothers, butchers, died very unexpectedly at his residence near the corner of Monroe avenue and Twenty-third street. The news of his demise brought with it the greatest sadness and surprise, as only a week ago he was out attending to his a week ago he was out attending to his duties, and not many of his friends had learned of his illness. The immediate cause of death was inflammation of the stomach. His young wife, to whom he was married less than two years ago, cannot be consoled, her grief is heart-rending to behold. He was born at West Weber, Weber county, 23 years ago, but has lived in Ogden all his life. When a little boy his mother died, and his aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Greenwell, cared for him until he grew to manhood. He was a young man full of life and vigor, always had a kind word for everybody and was a noble character.

The funeral services over his remains will be held at the Fourth ward meetinghouse Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The remains may be viewed at the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Green-well, 560 Twenty-fourth street, on date of funeral from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m.

SCHOOLS OPEN SEPTEMBER 14.

The board of education held a meeting last evening, and decided to open th public schools of the city Monday, Sept. 14, for the coming school year. A. H. Rogers, instructor in the com-mercial department of the high school, tendered his resignation, which was not accepted, he having already signed his contract for the year. The board ordered $1,000 paid to the contractors on the high school annex, which is being built. It was decided to hold a special ses-sion Monday evening next to elect a high school principal, around which considerable interest is centered, also to but all secondles existing in the teach fill all vacancies existing in the teachers' roll.
