

A LONG LIFE ENDED.

Anna Miskus Lived 107 Years Without Worrying.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—A full century and a half of life without a single day of worrying was ended yesterday when Mrs. Anna Miskus died at her home of her grandson, Julius An-only a child in her native home in Marynepe, Poland, she took a vow never to worry and to this vow she attributed her longevity. This vow she kept, although assailed by war, pestilence and death itself. Through it all she maintained a smiling attitude and with a smile on her face she entered eternity.

ADMIRAL HEMPHILL RELIEVED

Manila, Aug. 1.—Rear Admiral Joseph Newton Hemphill has been relieved by Capt. Giles B. Harber, commander of the Maine, Admiral Hemphill sails for Hongkong on the cruiser Chattanooga on Monday and from that port for the states on the Mongolia. The battleships Maine and Alabama of the advance fleet of the Atlantic battleship fleet, sailed from Manila today for Singapore on their way round the world to the Atlantic coast again.

ARMED PIRATES.

Row to Fish Trap, Bind Watchmen And Take 5,000 Salmon. Bellingham, Wash., Aug. 1.—Two armed pirates rowed up to a fish trap of the Alaska Packers' association, just south of Point Roberts, yesterday, disarmed the watchmen, bound and gagged him and leaving him at the trap made off with 5,000 salmon worth $2,000. Besides the fish they stole, the pirates left the trap open and allowed 25,000 more fish to escape.

CHARLOTTE WALKER DIVORCED.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Galveston, Tex., says: Charlotte Walker, an actress yesterday was granted a divorce from her husband, Dr. John B. Haden of Galveston, whom she married about 12 years ago. Charlotte Walker is the only child of the late Col. James Walker, a distinguished confederate soldier, and is leading woman for James K. Hackett.

CHAFIN'S NOTIFICATION TO BE MADE AUGUST 18

Chicago, Aug. 1.—It was decided yesterday to hold the meeting for the notification of E. W. Chafin, prohibitionist candidate for president, on Tuesday, Aug. 8, in music hall, fine arts building, Chicago. The notification address will be delivered by Prof. Charles Scanlon, who was permanent chairman of the national prohibition convention. There may also be addresses by the members of the notification committee. A public reception for the candidate will be held the same day in the parlors of the Auditorium hotel. The national prohibition executive committee will meet at the same place to consider plans for the campaign.

"GHOST" MERELY A JOKE. New York, Aug. 1.—L. N. Scott of St. Paul and A. Leo Stevens, proved that the "ghost" was the work of a practical joker, Mrs. William Bachelder still insists that her home is haunted and that she will not live in the place again.
