

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH, - SEPTEMBER 21, 1893.

Court News.

On Monday morning the case of C. O. Johnson vs. Logan City came up and was concluded for the term.

John A. Kirtland vs. J. M. Adams was returned to October 12, 1893, for settlement.

Robert Shipley et al vs. Frank Law, was returned to October 12, 1893, for settlement.

The next case was that of the People vs. M. M. Hodges. The defendant, who is proprietor of the late town roller mill, was charged with the possession of the streets of Logan during the winter season, and the resulting ice obstructed travel and damaged property in that neighborhood.

After hearing all the evidence in the case and the charges of the judge, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

The next case was that of the county register vs. M. M. Hodges. The county register was charged with the taking of the registration fee to be taken on any day, and the judge took the question under advisement. This case will be heard on Tuesday, October 10, 1893.

The next case was that of the county register vs. M. M. Hodges. The county register was charged with the taking of the registration fee to be taken on any day, and the judge took the question under advisement. This case will be heard on Tuesday, October 10, 1893.

It is rumored that a change in the management of the Utah opera house is likely to occur in the near future.

Judge L. B. Rhodes and daughter, of Ogden, have been in Logan during the last few days, the judge having business before the court.

The Philomathean Literary society of the B. V. college has been reorganized for the current term and officers duly installed. The society gives an entertainment on each Friday evening, of a high literary and artistic character that is greatly appreciated by the public.

Prof. J. M. Tanner, formerly principal of the B. V. college, was one of the speakers in the Logan Intercollegiate on Monday last. Since he severed his connection with the college, the professor has been taking a course at Harvard university.

Dr. P. Turpey of Salt Lake was a visitor in Logan today.

Dr. T. W. Wadsworth, a professor of agriculture at Breslau, Germany, accompanied by five of his pupils visited the Agricultural College on Monday, and were regally entertained by Prof. Harkness. They inspected the different departments of the college, and were surprised to find such evidence of advanced scientific knowledge in what, to them, is the outposts of the west.

After the afternoon they were taken for a drive up Logan canyon, where they were delighted to see the magnificent mountain scenery.

A four-year-old son of Mr. Robert Lowrey, while playing a few days since, got a pebble firmly wedged in his nose. A physician was called and soon removed the obstruction.

T. C. Thompson, for whose early achievement was noted, was not in his house when wanted for court of court.

On Monday evening Willie Thompson, a well-known son of Arthur Thompson of Minerva, was thrown violently from a horse he was riding and killed in the chest. The little fellow was for some time in a very serious condition. Dr. Davidson was summoned and found that several ribs were broken.

The Salt Lake Temple will suspend services from Monday and Tuesday, September 20th, 21st, and 22nd, on account of the death of the late President of the church, Joseph D. McLaughlin.

The next case was that of the People vs. M. M. Hodges. The defendant, who is proprietor of the late town roller mill, was charged with the possession of the streets of Logan during the winter season, and the resulting ice obstructed travel and damaged property in that neighborhood.

After hearing all the evidence in the case and the charges of the judge, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

The next case was that of the county register vs. M. M. Hodges. The county register was charged with the taking of the registration fee to be taken on any day, and the judge took the question under advisement. This case will be heard on Tuesday, October 10, 1893.

The next case was that of the county register vs. M. M. Hodges. The county register was charged with the taking of the registration fee to be taken on any day, and the judge took the question under advisement. This case will be heard on Tuesday, October 10, 1893.

It is rumored that a change in the management of the Utah opera house is likely to occur in the near future.

Judge L. B. Rhodes and daughter, of Ogden, have been in Logan during the last few days, the judge having business before the court.

The Philomathean Literary society of the B. V. college has been reorganized for the current term and officers duly installed. The society gives an entertainment on each Friday evening, of a high literary and artistic character that is greatly appreciated by the public.

Prof. J. M. Tanner, formerly principal of the B. V. college, was one of the speakers in the Logan Intercollegiate on Monday last. Since he severed his connection with the college, the professor has been taking a course at Harvard university.

Dr. P. Turpey of Salt Lake was a visitor in Logan today.

Dr. T. W. Wadsworth, a professor of agriculture at Breslau, Germany, accompanied by five of his pupils visited the Agricultural College on Monday, and were regally entertained by Prof. Harkness. They inspected the different departments of the college, and were surprised to find such evidence of advanced scientific knowledge in what, to them, is the outposts of the west.

After the afternoon they were taken for a drive up Logan canyon, where they were delighted to see the magnificent mountain scenery.

A four-year-old son of Mr. Robert Lowrey, while playing a few days since, got a pebble firmly wedged in

Hair Death

Prof. J. M. Tanner, formerly principal of the B. V. college, was one of the speakers in the Logan Intercollegiate on Monday last. Since he severed his connection with the college, the professor has been taking a course at Harvard university.

Dr. P. Turpey of Salt Lake was a visitor in Logan today.

Dr. T. W. Wadsworth, a professor of agriculture at Breslau, Germany, accompanied by five of his pupils visited the Agricultural College on Monday, and were regally entertained by Prof. Harkness. They inspected the different departments of the college, and were surprised to find such evidence of advanced scientific knowledge in what, to them, is the outposts of the west.

After the afternoon they were taken for a drive up Logan canyon, where they were delighted to see the magnificent mountain scenery.

A four-year-old son of Mr. Robert Lowrey, while playing a few days since, got a pebble firmly wedged in his nose. A physician was called and soon removed the obstruction.

T. C. Thompson, for whose early achievement was noted, was not in his house when wanted for court of court.

On Monday evening Willie Thompson, a well-known son of Arthur Thompson of Minerva, was thrown violently from a horse he was riding and killed in the chest. The little fellow was for some time in a very serious condition. Dr. Davidson was summoned and found that several ribs were broken.

The Salt Lake Temple will suspend services from Monday and Tuesday, September 20th, 21st, and 22nd, on account of the death of the late President of the church, Joseph D. McLaughlin.

The next case was that of the People vs. M. M. Hodges. The defendant, who is proprietor of the late town roller mill, was charged with the possession of the streets of Logan during the winter season, and the resulting ice obstructed travel and damaged property in that neighborhood.

After hearing all the evidence in the case and the charges of the judge, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

The next case was that of the county register vs. M. M. Hodges. The county register was charged with the taking of the registration fee to be taken on any day, and the judge took the question under advisement. This case will be heard on Tuesday, October 10, 1893.

The next case was that of the county register vs. M. M. Hodges. The county register was charged with the taking of the registration fee to be taken on any day, and the judge took the question under advisement. This case will be heard on Tuesday, October 10, 1893.

It is rumored that a change in the management of the Utah opera house is likely to occur in the near future.

Judge L. B. Rhodes and daughter, of Ogden, have been in Logan during the last few days, the judge having business before the court.

The Philomathean Literary society of the B. V. college has been reorganized for the current term and officers duly installed. The society gives an entertainment on each Friday evening, of a high literary and artistic character that is greatly appreciated by the public.

Prof. J. M. Tanner, formerly principal of the B. V. college, was one of the speakers in the Logan Intercollegiate on Monday last. Since he severed his connection with the college, the professor has been taking a course at Harvard university.

Dr. P. Turpey of Salt Lake was a visitor in Logan today.

Dr. T. W. Wadsworth, a professor of agriculture at Breslau, Germany, accompanied by five of his pupils visited the Agricultural College on Monday, and were regally entertained by Prof. Harkness. They inspected the different departments of the college, and were surprised to find such evidence of advanced scientific knowledge in what, to them, is the outposts of the west.

After the afternoon they were taken for a drive up Logan canyon, where they were delighted to see the magnificent mountain scenery.

A four-year-old son of Mr. Robert Lowrey, while playing a few days since, got a pebble firmly wedged in

Don't You Know

That to have perfect health you must have pure blood, and the best way to have pure blood is to take Blood's Pure Blood Purifier. It is a blood purifier and a blood tonic. It is a blood purifier and a blood tonic. It is a blood purifier and a blood tonic.

Dr. P. Turpey of Salt Lake was a visitor in Logan today.

Dr. T. W. Wadsworth, a professor of agriculture at Breslau, Germany, accompanied by five of his pupils visited the Agricultural College on Monday, and were regally entertained by Prof. Harkness. They inspected the different departments of the college, and were surprised to find such evidence of advanced scientific knowledge in what, to them, is the outposts of the west.

After the afternoon they were taken for a drive up Logan canyon, where they were delighted to see the magnificent mountain scenery.

A four-year-old son of Mr. Robert Lowrey, while playing a few days since, got a pebble firmly wedged in his nose. A physician was called and soon removed the obstruction.

T. C. Thompson, for whose early achievement was noted, was not in his house when wanted for court of court.

On Monday evening Willie Thompson, a well-known son of Arthur Thompson of Minerva, was thrown violently from a horse he was riding and killed in the chest. The little fellow was for some time in a very serious condition. Dr. Davidson was summoned and found that several ribs were broken.

The Salt Lake Temple will suspend services from Monday and Tuesday, September 20th, 21st, and 22nd, on account of the death of the late President of the church, Joseph D. McLaughlin.

The next case was that of the People vs. M. M. Hodges. The defendant, who is proprietor of the late town roller mill, was charged with the possession of the streets of Logan during the winter season, and the resulting ice obstructed travel and damaged property in that neighborhood.

After hearing all the evidence in the case and the charges of the judge, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

The next case was that of the county register vs. M. M. Hodges. The county register was charged with the taking of the registration fee to be taken on any day, and the judge took the question under advisement. This case will be heard on Tuesday, October 10, 1893.

The next case was that of the county register vs. M. M. Hodges. The county register was charged with the taking of the registration fee to be taken on any day, and the judge took the question under advisement. This case will be heard on Tuesday, October 10, 1893.

It is rumored that a change in the management of the Utah opera house is likely to occur in the near future.

Judge L. B. Rhodes and daughter, of Ogden, have been in Logan during the last few days, the judge having business before the court.

The Philomathean Literary society of the B. V. college has been reorganized for the current term and officers duly installed. The society gives an entertainment on each Friday evening, of a high literary and artistic character that is greatly appreciated by the public.

Prof. J. M. Tanner, formerly principal of the B. V. college, was one of the speakers in the Logan Intercollegiate on Monday last. Since he severed his connection with the college, the professor has been taking a course at Harvard university.

Dr. P. Turpey of Salt Lake was a visitor in Logan today.

Dr. T. W. Wadsworth, a professor of agriculture at Breslau, Germany, accompanied by five of his pupils visited the Agricultural College on Monday, and were regally entertained by Prof. Harkness. They inspected the different departments of the college, and were surprised to find such evidence of advanced scientific knowledge in what, to them, is the outposts of the west.

After the afternoon they were taken for a drive up Logan canyon, where they were delighted to see the magnificent mountain scenery.

A four-year-old son of Mr. Robert Lowrey, while playing a few days since, got a pebble firmly wedged in

Shang-Hai & Co's. BAZAR,

Full assortment of Chinese and Japanese Ornamental and Fancy Goods. Ladies' Underwear. Suspenders, collars, cuffs, and all the latest novelties in the line. Goods at very low prices. 277 South Main, Salt Lake.

Dr. P. Turpey of Salt Lake was a visitor in Logan today.

Dr. T. W. Wadsworth, a professor of agriculture at Breslau, Germany, accompanied by five of his pupils visited the Agricultural College on Monday, and were regally entertained by Prof. Harkness. They inspected the different departments of the college, and were surprised to find such evidence of advanced scientific knowledge in what, to them, is the outposts of the west.

After the afternoon they were taken for a drive up Logan canyon, where they were delighted to see the magnificent mountain scenery.

A four-year-old son of Mr. Robert Lowrey, while playing a few days since, got a pebble firmly wedged in his nose. A physician was called and soon removed the obstruction.

T. C. Thompson, for whose early achievement was noted, was not in his house when wanted for court of court.

On Monday evening Willie Thompson, a well-known son of Arthur Thompson of Minerva, was thrown violently from a horse he was riding and killed in the chest. The little fellow was for some time in a very serious condition. Dr. Davidson was summoned and found that several ribs were broken.

The Salt Lake Temple will suspend services from Monday and Tuesday, September 20th, 21st, and 22nd, on account of the death of the late President of the church, Joseph D. McLaughlin.

The next case was that of the People vs. M. M. Hodges. The defendant, who is proprietor of the late town roller mill, was charged with the possession of the streets of Logan during the winter season, and the resulting ice obstructed travel and damaged property in that neighborhood.

After hearing all the evidence in the case and the charges of the judge, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

The next case was that of the county register vs. M. M. Hodges. The county register was charged with the taking of the registration fee to be taken on any day, and the judge took the question under advisement. This case will be heard on Tuesday, October 10, 1893.

The next case was that of the county register vs. M. M. Hodges. The county register was charged with the taking of the registration fee to be taken on any day, and the judge took the question under advisement. This case will be heard on Tuesday, October 10, 1893.

It is rumored that a change in the management of the Utah opera house is likely to occur in the near future.

Judge L. B. Rhodes and daughter, of Ogden, have been in Logan during the last few days, the judge having business before the court.

The Philomathean Literary society of the B. V. college has been reorganized for the current term and officers duly installed. The society gives an entertainment on each Friday evening, of a high literary and artistic character that is greatly appreciated by the public.

Prof. J. M. Tanner, formerly principal of the B. V. college, was one of the speakers in the Logan Intercollegiate on Monday last. Since he severed his connection with the college, the professor has been taking a course at Harvard university.

Dr. P. Turpey of Salt Lake was a visitor in Logan today.

Dr. T. W. Wadsworth, a professor of agriculture at Breslau, Germany, accompanied by five of his pupils visited the Agricultural College on Monday, and were regally entertained by Prof. Harkness. They inspected the different departments of the college, and were surprised to find such evidence of advanced scientific knowledge in what, to them, is the outposts of the west.

After the afternoon they were taken for a drive up Logan canyon, where they were delighted to see the magnificent mountain scenery.

A four-year-old son of Mr. Robert Lowrey, while playing a few days since, got a pebble firmly wedged in

The Pulverizing Of Prices

It almost takes a flock of locusts with us at all times, even as business is picking up, undoubtedly, we are still holding prices down at rock bottom. Every Fall-weight article is panned to suit the season, whether it be men's or boys' suits, separate pants, underwear, hats, caps and gloves. For men and boys suits, we offer up as a sacrifice of the season at one-half and in many cases one-third of the original price. And in order to make the sacrifice more acceptable we throw in thousands of dollars worth of men's and boys' furnishings that are heavy enough for early Fall wear.

Here Are a Few Specimen Bargains for the Coming Week.

MEN'S SUITS, WORTH $15.00, AT $8.75

" PANTS "	1.50, "	.75
" " "	2.50, "	1.00
" " "	4.00, "	1.50

Notice: Weight Cannot Be Underwear, $3.00. All of our men's $3 and $4 Negliges which cost us $1.75. Outfit shirts worth from 75c to $1.50 at 35c to 50c.

Boys' Clothing.

At $2.00 and $3.00 each we are running off about 20 different styles of Boys' Knee Pants Suits, Mixed Cassimeres and Cheviots that are worth double the price and are first arrivals of Fall Goods.

At $1.00 and $1.50 we are showing a line of Boys' and Youth's Suits that will back against the best that can be found in Salt Lake for 50 and 60 per cent more money.

Goldsmith & Company.

THE CONTRIBUTOR

MAGAZINE

Volume Fifteen, 1893-4.

Cor. Main and South Temple Streets, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. P. O. BOX 520.

We take great pleasure in promising those who favor us with their kind patronage for

• Volume Fifteen •

The following special features. The writers of these articles are so well known as to assure us of the excellence of their production.

PRESIDENT MOSES THATCHER has kindly consented to furnish, providing his health will permit, a series of papers on

THE ELEMENTS OF SUCCESS.

In which he gives suggestions which will be of the greatest value to all progressive souls of business and all ages. It contains articles on his First Missionary Experience, which, as a matter of fact, he was sent out to preach the Gospel, and gained in his labors the favor of the Lord and the full approval of his co-laborers. Also something concerning his OBSERVATIONS IN MEXICO.

In which country he later performed an successful mission. One of Zion's ablest teachers and writers, ELDER N. L. NIELSEN, of the N. Y. Academy, will prepare a series of articles on the subject of

PREACHING AND PREACHING.

In which, with very important subjects will be discussed in a manner to impart valuable instruction to all public speakers. PROF. WILLARD DONN, (LAWYER), of the Salt Lake L. D. College, has kindly consented to write a historical romance, entitled,

LA GIRONDE.

A Story of the French Revolution, which will afford interest and instruction to all our readers. PROF. W. J. NICHOL, of the Utah University, has made a special trip to Canada to gather data for a series of articles on Mathematical Science.

In five or six papers.

1. And II. Outline of Mathematical Science. (a) Origin and nature of mathematical science, viewed as a whole. (b) Fundamental divisions of the science, with something of the origin, nature, development, history, and comparative value of the various forms of the science. (c) The Logic of Mathematics. (d) In this latter part we will consider, on our last number, in which the paper comes face to face with the facts and history of mathematical science.

ed. recreation-room under an able teacher, is a biography in history, and for some light there is always an admitted debt to the past.

Value of mathematics as a means of intellectual training and culture.

IV. Utility of Mathematics in the Investigation of Nature. (1) Geography; (2) Physics; (3) Astronomy; (4) Chemistry.

V. Utility of Mathematics in the Development of the Arts. (1) Surveying; (2) Architecture; (3) Fortification; (4) Navigation; (5) Railroad and Mining Engineering; (6) Agriculture; (7) Mechanical Engineering; Machines, Instruments, Inventions.

Articles I, II, IV, and V will be illustrated.

Biographical and Literary Miscellanies.

By Hon. Frank L. Cannon, consisting of a series of articles from the pen of this brilliant young journalist, which will be a source of great information to our readers.

Science and Mormonism.

Will be the title of a series of papers by Prof. George F. Phillips, who will introduce in our Church School system, in which he will show the harmony of Science and the religion of the Latter-day Saints.

An Art Student's Experience and Observations in Paris.

Will be the title of a series of articles by our own artist, John Haden, who will narrate from what he saw and heard in the French metropolis which will prove of great value to the reader.

Dr. M. H. Haden, whose efficient and elegant conductors in the Association made him a highly respected member and made him a valuable contributor, will contribute a number of valuable papers on subjects connected with the L. A. work.

M. I. A. Practical Work.

Will be the title of a series of articles by Prof. Geo. H. Franklin, who will introduce in our Church School system, in which he will show the harmony of Science and the religion of the Latter-day Saints.

Rambles Around the World.

By G. H. Smith, will be continued for the latest and most interesting of our readers.

Notes M. M. Johnson, who has written under the name of John M. Johnson, will provide some valuable

Each of which will be complete in itself, but the whole of them covering a vast field.

The Musical Department.

Will be given special attention. Original and selected pieces, specially adapted for the Association, will be issued monthly. This department will be under the direct supervision of Elder O. R. Poyer.

OUR ENGRAVINGS

Will be selected and prepared with the greatest care, and all subjects treated in our columns which need illustrating will be provided with the best of illustrations that can be obtained. We may also count among our writers for the coming volume, who will write upon such subjects as the Union very highly.

President Joseph F. Smith and some of the apostles. Prof. Geo. F. Phillips, J. H. Paul, J. W. Whitely and other leading educators. Hon. Young Gates, Joseph Smith and other able writers from among our writers.

Also many articles will appear from our gifted authors upon almost every interesting subject, which space will be given to the production of those who are not acquainted in literary work, but whose talents will get shine in the midst of the great.

All our articles, though possessing a high order of merit, will be written in such a popular style that they can be understood by all classes of people.

We solicit your kind patronage for Volume Fifteen of THE CONTRIBUTOR, and assure you that every effort will be made to give our kind patronage full satisfaction.

Price, $2.00 Per Year, Postpaid, Address—

The Contributor Co.,
P. O. Box 520. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

P. S.—Kindly remit by P. O. Order; postal note, bank note, bank draft, registered letter or Express money order.

Prizes For Contributions.

As an incentive and in order to encourage literary talent among our people, we have decided to offer the following

CASH PRIZES

For articles which are to appear in Volume Fifteen of "The Contributor,"

For the best Christmas Story. First prize, $25; second prize, $10.

For the best New Year's Story. First prize, $25; second prize, $10.

For the best Washington's Birthday story. First prize, $25; second prize, $10.

For the best Fourth of July story. First prize, $25; second prize, $10.

For the best Pioneer Day Story. First prize, $25; second prize, $10.

Rules of Competition.

1. All articles to be accepted as prizes.

2. No story to be longer than 4,000 words in length, and no more than 100 lines.

3. All stories offered in competition, to become the property of "The Contributor," when accepted, and no other publication.

4. Writers to be notified the day after the close of the competition.

5. All articles to be original and not previously published, and to be accepted by a committee consisting of the editor and two other members of the staff, who will select the prize articles from the entries.

6. The names and new Year's names are to be in the possession of the Contributor Company as of Volume Fifteen, 1893-4, and the Fourth of July, 1894, and the Pioneer Day, 1894, and the Washington's Birthday, 1894, and the New Year's, 1895, and the Fourth of July, 1895, and the Pioneer Day, 1895, and the Washington's Birthday, 1895, and the New Year's, 1896, and the Fourth of July, 1896, and the Pioneer Day, 1896, and the Washington's Birthday, 1896, and the New Year's, 1897, and the Fourth of July, 1897, and the Pioneer Day, 1897, and the Washington's Birthday, 1897, and the New Year's, 1898, and the Fourth of July, 1898, and the Pioneer Day, 1898, and the Washington's Birthday, 1898, and the New Year's, 1899, and the Fourth of July, 1899, and the Pioneer Day, 1899, and the Washington's Birthday, 1899, and the New Year's, 1900, and the Fourth of July, 1900, and the Pioneer Day, 1900, and the Washington's Birthday, 1900, and the New Year's, 1901, and the Fourth of July, 1901, and the Pioneer Day, 1901, and the Washington's Birthday, 1901, and the New Year's, 1902, and the Fourth of July, 1902, and the Pioneer Day, 1902, and the Washington's Birthday, 1902, and the New Year's, 1903, and the Fourth of July, 1903, and the Pioneer Day, 1903, and the Washington's Birthday, 1903, and the New Year's, 1904, and the Fourth of July, 1904, and the Pioneer Day, 1904, and the Washington's Birthday, 1904, and the New Year's, 1905, and the Fourth of July, 1905, and the Pioneer Day, 1905, and the Washington's Birthday, 1905, and the New Year's, 1906, and the Fourth of July, 1906, and the Pioneer Day, 1906, and the Washington's Birthday, 1906, and the New Year's, 1907, and the Fourth of July, 1907, and the Pioneer Day, 1907, and the Washington's Birthday, 1907, and the New Year's, 1908, and the Fourth of July, 1908, and the Pioneer Day, 1908, and the Washington's Birthday, 1908, and the New Year's, 1909, and the Fourth of July, 1909, and the Pioneer Day, 1909, and the Washington's Birthday, 1909, and the New Year's, 1910, and the Fourth of July, 1910, and the Pioneer Day, 1910, and the Washington's Birthday, 1910, and the New Year's, 1911, and the Fourth of July, 1911, and the Pioneer Day, 1911, and the Washington's Birthday, 1911, and the New Year's, 1912, and the Fourth of July, 1912, and the Pioneer Day, 1912, and the Washington's Birthday, 1912, and the New Year's, 1913, and the Fourth of July, 1913, and the Pioneer Day, 1913, and the Washington's Birthday, 1913, and the New Year's, 1914, and the Fourth of July, 1914, and the Pioneer Day, 1914, and the Washington's Birthday, 1914, and the New Year's, 1915, and the Fourth of July, 1915, and the Pioneer Day, 1915, and the Washington's Birthday, 1915, and the New Year's, 1916, and the Fourth of July, 1916, and the Pioneer Day, 1916, and the Washington's Birthday, 1916, and the New Year's, 1917, and the Fourth of July, 1917, and the Pioneer Day, 1917, and the Washington's Birthday, 1917, and the New Year's, 1918, and the Fourth of July, 1918, and the Pioneer Day, 1918, and the Washington's Birthday, 1918, and the New Year's, 1919, and the Fourth of July, 1919, and the Pioneer Day, 1919, and the Washington's Birthday, 1919, and the New Year's, 1920, and the Fourth of July, 1920, and the Pioneer Day, 1920, and the Washington's Birthday, 1920, and the New Year's, 1921, and the Fourth of July, 1921, and the Pioneer Day, 1921, and the Washington's Birthday, 1921, and the New Year's, 1922, and the Fourth of July, 1922, and the Pioneer Day, 1922, and the Washington's Birthday, 1922, and the New Year's, 1923, and the Fourth of July, 1923, and the Pioneer Day, 1923, and the Washington's Birthday, 1923, and the New Year's, 1924, and the Fourth of July, 1924, and the Pioneer Day, 1924, and the Washington's Birthday, 1924, and the New Year's, 1925, and the Fourth of July, 1925, and the Pioneer Day, 1925, and the Washington's Birthday, 1925, and the New Year's, 1926, and the Fourth of July, 1926, and the Pioneer Day, 1926, and the Washington's Birthday, 1926, and the New Year's, 1927, and the Fourth of July, 1927, and the Pioneer Day, 1927, and the Washington's Birthday, 1927, and the New Year's, 1928, and the Fourth of July, 1928, and the Pioneer Day, 1928, and the Washington's Birthday, 1928, and the New Year's, 1929, and the Fourth of July, 1929, and the Pioneer Day, 1929, and the Washington's Birthday, 1929, and the New Year's, 1930, and the Fourth of July, 1930, and the Pioneer Day, 1930, and the Washington's Birthday, 1930, and the New Year's, 1931, and the Fourth of July, 1931, and the Pioneer Day, 1931, and the Washington's Birthday, 1931, and the New Year's, 1932, and the Fourth of July, 1932, and the Pioneer Day, 1932, and the Washington's Birthday, 1932, and the New Year's, 1933, and the Fourth of July, 1933, and the Pioneer Day, 1933, and the Washington's Birthday, 1933, and the New Year's, 1934, and the Fourth of July, 1934, and the Pioneer Day, 1934, and the Washington's Birthday, 1934, and the New Year's, 1935, and the Fourth of July, 1935, and the Pioneer Day, 1935, and the Washington's Birthday, 1935, and the New Year's, 1936, and the Fourth of July, 1936, and the Pioneer Day, 1936, and the Washington's Birthday, 1936, and the New Year's, 1937, and the Fourth of July, 1937, and the Pioneer Day, 1937, and the Washington's Birthday, 1937, and the New Year's, 1938, and the Fourth of July, 1938, and the Pioneer Day, 1938, and the Washington's Birthday, 1938, and the New Year's, 1939, and the Fourth of July, 1939, and the Pioneer Day, 1939, and the Washington's Birthday, 1939, and the New