Captured and Executed by Spanish Soldiers in Cuba.

MISTAKES FOR FILIBUSTERS.

Had They Been Americans, They Would Have Had Harder Justice Boat.

New York, Nov. 16.—Among the passengers who were arrived at New York yesterday from Havana were Captain Nelson and twelve crew of the British steamer Cello, which had been on blockade east of Cuba since Aug. 1. Later the steamer got into deep water and Capt. Nelson struggled to run her across the strait to Key West, but the water gained so rapidly that they abandoned the steamer, which shortly afterward sank overboard. The shipwrecked men found in the Cuban road about forty miles west of Havana, where they fell into the hands of Spanish soldiers. The English, believing them to be American pirates, were imprisoned, so that all English that they were taken to Havana, where they were taken in charge by the Spanish, who sent them to New York.

Henry W. Duray, one of the survivors now, after describing the scams of the Cello, said:

"We landed in Key West, where we saw a great many sailors today, during the morning, the President and his cabinet, and the Congress."

B. Boutelle left New York at 12 m., accompanied by his daughter.

Engines for Barbadoes.

CANTON, Nov. 16.—Major Kinney had a gaudy display today, during the morning, the President
and his cabinet, and the Congress.

12 m., accompanied by his daughter.

Major McKinley.

Major McKinley was the recipient of the famous specimen of the Bismarck Hall of fame of the American people today. They came in a letter from the Hon. G. W. McCrary, of Major McKinley's regiment.

D. Parsons on the cable says the engines "looked like Muskies," when they reached him, for arriving the same day.

"The girls are named 'Ogden' and 'Hanna,' respectively. The engine was given me only having been used in the exhibition or put in charge of representatives."

Hanna briefly relieved.

He has removed Majorine's Name from the books.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 16.—Chairman

A. H. Chase of the Republican national committee was honored a splendidly banquet tonight at the Union Club.
