EVENING NEWS.

Wednesday, November 26, 1879.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Home Missionary Meeting this evening at 7 o'clock.

St. Mary's Concert. We acknowledge the receipt of complimentary tickets to grand concert, held this afternoon in St. Mary's Academy, 14th Ward.

Will Adjourn. The Third District Court adjourned this evening until Friday morning, Saturday. It is expected will be the last day of the present term. The next term commences on the first day of February, 1880.

Snow. The sky was filled with indications of snow, this morning, and a quantity of the "beautiful" element managed to sift down through the chilly atmosphere. This afternoon, the feathery flakes are falling, and bid fair to continue during the night.

Around Again. Our esteemed friend, Justice Pyper, is again at his post, looking a little worn from his late illness, but as ready as ever to dispense justice. There was nothing doing in the Police Court this morning, but some business is going on this afternoon.

Passed Away. A man named John Langford, of Ontario, Canada, on his way home from California, while walking across the depot platform, at Ogden, yesterday morning, fainted away. He was taken into the depot and made as comfortable as possible, but expired a short time afterwards. His disease was consumption. So we learn from the Dispatch.

Birthday Anniversary. We clip the following from the last number of the Beaver Watchman: "On the 10th inst., Mrs. I. B. Pratt, residing in Beaver, had her 77th birthday, and she was visited on the occasion by a large circle of her friends, who adjourned a year previous to meet on the occasion. About a dozen gentlemen and some 20 ladies were present to congratulate Mrs. Pratt on the preservation of her physical powers and the blessings attending her old age."

Dramatic Success. Our genial comedian, Mr. Phil. Margolis, has returned from his theatrical visit to the north, much encouraged by the warm reception given him and his company. They played in Brigham City last Wednesday and Saturday nights to full houses, and since their return, have been telegraphed to perform there again next Saturday. Early in the new year the company will go on a professional trip to Providence. The troupe is well spoken of everywhere.

Hon. A. P. Rockwood Dead. Elder Albert P. Rockwood, one of the First Seven Presidents of the Seventies of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, departed this life at 4:35 o'clock, this morning, at his residence, Sugar House Ward. His ailment was a disease of the lungs, from which he had been confined to his bed for the past three weeks. He was born June 5th, 1805, in Holliston, Mass.; joined the Church in 1833, went through the persecutions endured in Missouri and elsewhere, and was steadfast and fearless in every good work. He was one of the pioneers of Utah in 1847, and since then has been a prominent member of the Church and a man of integrity, position and influence in the community. He served in the first Legislature of Utah, has been a member of the same body ever since, and was elected for the approaching session, this winter. He was the pioneer fish commissioner of the Territory also, and one of the directors of the Deseret Agricultural and Manufacturing Society. In fact, through all his career, he held high and responsible positions with honor to himself and benefit to the community in which he has so long resided. A good man has gone to rest after a long life of usefulness. He died peacefully, surrounded by his family and friends, and previous to his death shook hands with and bade them all good by. We sincerely sympathize with the bereaved family in their heavy loss.

Found. A shirt. The owner can have it by calling at this office.

City Council. Proceedings at the City Council on Tuesday evening, November 25th, 1879. Mayor Little presiding.

A petition from Joseph Bull represented that, in the year 1871, he purchased of the city two lots in plot "H" and paid for them the sum of $10; that afterwards said lots were made valuable to him through being included in the Fort Douglas Military Reservation. He therefore asked that $10 be refunded to him for said lots. Petition granted and $10 appropriated to be refunded to Joseph Bull.

A petition, dated November 5th, 1879, signed by Maria J. Helms, was presented which asked that the delinquent taxes for the years 1874, 5, 6 and 7, on the property known as the Carter estate, in the 11th Ward, be remitted. The petitioner represented that these taxes accumulated before she came into possession of said property, or before she derived any benefit therefrom, and consequently considered that she should not be held responsible for said delinquency. Petition received and laid on the table.

A lengthy report from George M. Ottinger, superintendent of water works and chief engineer of the fire department, was submitted as the result of his inquiries and observations while in Europe and the Eastern States, in relation to the best methods for obtaining an increase in the water supply for this city. The report was read and ordered to be placed on file.

A resolution, providing for the construction of the Jordan and Salt Lake City Canal, was presented as a substitute for the ordinance under consideration on the same subject, and after being read was accepted in lieu of the ordinance. The resolution was taken up and, after consideration, adopted and ordered to be published.

Bill of D. Bockholt, clerk of the County Court, for certified copies of registry lists furnished the City Recorder, $30, was referred to the committee on claims.

Surveyor Jesse W. Fox, now, was appointed engineer of construction on the city canal, and Alderman A. H. Raleigh one of the committee on construction, both of whom were authorized to work in conjunction with the Mayor, as set forth in the resolution on the subject.

Adjourned to next Tuesday evening at the usual hour.

Explains. Last evening, we published an item to the effect that Hon. A. P. Rockwood was lying sick, in a very critical condition, and at the earnest request and on the authority of a number of his personal friends, who informed us of his condition, stated that unless he received proper aid and nursing immediately, he would soon be beyond all hope of recovery; at the same time suggesting that the Relief Society, if they knew of some good person skilled in nursing the sick, that they report the same to Brother Rockwood's family at once. We had no intention of conveying the idea that the Relief Society neglected, or was not furnished with every known remedy to make him comfortable, that could be obtained. But, it is not unusual for a scarcity of nurses and those skilled in attending the sick, to be experienced, and at the request of a number of friends, among whom was a prominent physician, and out of regard for the family of Brother Rockwood, we published the notice in reference. The following communication, from the physician in attendance on the deceased, during his last illness, was called forth by our article of last evening:

Editors Deseret News: Dear Sir. A paragraph appears in your last issue to the effect that Hon. A. P. Rockwood was lying sick, and that he was not sufficiently cared for during his last sickness. As his physician, I feel it my duty to the family and truth to inform the public that in a practice of twenty years I have never seen a sick person receive more tender and efficient nursing and care than Mr. Rockwood did during the whole time of his sickness. GEO. C. DOUGLAS, M.D. Salt Lake City, Nov. 25, 1879.

This statement is corroborated by others, who were with Brother Rockwood constantly during his sickness, and who emphatically assert that he had the best of care and nursing throughout. We regret that the article last evening should have been construed as it has been, as we are satisfied our informant had no intention of casting reflections on any one, and were actuated in their course by the best of feelings toward the family of the deceased.

Hermann and the Lorells. A fair sized audience witnessed Hermann's opening performance last evening, and were thoroughly delighted with the entertainment. Professor Hermann is one of the most skillful artists of his profession, his slight of hand feats bordering on the marvellous.

The Lorells kept the audience on the qui vive from the moment they made their appearance to their leaving the stage. Even the wonderful Majillions, tumbler and contortionists, are eclipsed by the grotesque, laughable and wonderful capers of the Lorells. To-night the performance will be repeated, the closing of the engagement.

Additional Items. Bishop Dorn, of Ephraim, sends us an account of the shooting of young James Beal, the other day, which we have already published. From this communication we learn that the accident occurred at West Point, and that the wounded boy was taken to Ephraim afterward, where he died. His age was 12 years. The age of young Erastus Christensen, who had the gun when it went off, is but nine years.

Our correspondent states that six or seven children have recently died of diphtheria in that locality, and that the dreadful disease still lingers in the community.

Thanksgiving. We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to a grand Thanksgiving dinner at the CHH House, to-morrow, at 1 p.m., and thank the host, Mr. R. C. Ewing, for the courtesy.

Grand Jury Discharged. The Grand Jury came into court this afternoon, shortly after 3 o'clock and presented 8 new indictments, six found under the Territorial laws and the remaining two under the laws of the United States. They also presented their general report, pertaining to the Finance Asylum and other matters, and were then discharged by the court from further action.

Thanksgiving To-morrow. In conformity to the proclamation of His Excellency, Governor Emery, to-morrow, Thursday, the 27th inst., will be observed as a day of Thanksgiving, by the people of Utah Territory. The principal stores and business establishments of this city, will close, to allow their employees the privilege of enjoying the day of rest. The News will also suspend publication until Friday evening, to give editors, correspondents, pressmen, and all its attaches, a chance to celebrate the welcome occasion.

District Court. Proceedings in the Third District Court, Saturday morning, Nov. 25, 1879, Chief Justice Hunter presiding.

Application of A. P. Rockwood for certified copies of registry lists furnished the City Recorder, $30, was referred to the committee on claims.

Married Silver Mill Co. vs. John A. Nelson, water-right case, on motion of plaintiff, cause dismissed.

United States vs. John H. Fugh, charged with breaking in post office, grand jury ignore charge. Cause dismissed.

E. W. Billing vs. Helen Tarbet et al, trial before the court.

Elder Stayner's Lecture. A good-sized audience assembled last evening in the 15th Ward Meeting House, to hear Elder C. W. Stayner for the second time in his new and already popular lecture, "The Pulpit, the Press and the Home." The lecturer has improved his views since his first presentation and delivered it with his usual vim and earnestness. Some of the passages are very striking, the language choice and expressive, and the interpretation of amusing and instructive anecdotes (appropriately) relieves the more serious parts, and gives spice and attractiveness to the whole lecture.

DIED.
