SPECIAL NOTICE.

To the Jobbing Trade and Retail Dealers of Utah.

Z. C. M. I.

WOULD CALL THE ATTENTION of its regular customers, as well as the Public in general, to its immense lines of all classes of MERCHANDISE, arriving daily and on exhibition, in its various Departments.

The RETAIL TRADE of the Territory can best serve their interests by replenishing their stocks from this source, and for the following reasons:

The business is conducted on the strictest principles of economy, hence the closest market prices can always be relied on.

The new goods coming in were purchased with special reference to the Fall and Winter Trade, and surpass all previous efforts.

Our abundant facilities and experience enable us not only to distance all first-class competition, but to offer inducements unrivalled in the Wholesale Trade of the Territory.

We are sole agents in Utah for many popular brands of Groceries and Hardware, which cannot be purchased elsewhere in this market.

Competent and experienced Salesmen are on hand in each Department, and the Public can rely upon having orders promptly and faithfully executed.

W. H. HOOPER.

Last Night's Dispatches.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Standing Committee.

WASHINGTON, 9.—Anthony submitted a list of the standing committees, including the former select committee on rules; agreed to. The former committee on transportation routes to the seaboard was continued for this session.

Will Recognize the Centennial.

Col. Forney announces that he has official information that the British government will recognize the centennial, and has resolved to appoint a commissioner to the exposition.

EASTERN.

Wool.

BOSTON, 9.—In the wool trade there is a very firm feeling, with a good demand from manufacturers, and full prices are now readily obtained. Stocks of all kinds are quite moderate for the season. There is very little medium, delaine or combing fleeces on hand, and the available supplies of fine fleece have been considerably reduced by recent operations. From present appearances stocks will be considerably reduced in December, and we look for a very firm market for some months to come. Sales of Ohio and Pennsylvania X and XX fleeces at 53 @ 56, XXX and pick lock nominally 57 @ 60. Considerable of the fine wool in the market is not offered at present, as higher prices are looked for. Michigan and Wisconsin fleeces range from 45 @ 52; superior combing and delaine fleeces have been at 55 @ 62½, and a desirable lot is now difficult to find. In California wool there has been no movement of importance. Spring is selling at 25 @ 40; fall 17 @ 25. In pulled wool there has been a fair business doing, and prices range from 37 @ 55.

Sent Over.

NEW YORK, 9.—The suit of Edna Dean Proctor vs, Moulton, which was set down for to-day, in the U. S. Court, Brooklyn, has been sent over under an order for reference, to ascertain the citizenship of the complaint.

The W. U. Tel. Report.

The report of the Western Union Telegraph Company states that the auditor's estimate of the profits of the quarter ending Dec. 31, were $856,527, but President Orton reduces the estimate to $841,527. The following is a comparative statement of the receipts, expenses and profits for the calendar years 1873 and 1874, with December, '74, estimated; the receipts of 1874 are $9,530,749; expenses $8,454,088; profits $3,076,660; in 1873 the receipts were $9,282,033; expenses $7,047,016; profits $2,235,017; the increase receipts $248,716, decrease of expenses $592,928 increase of profits $841,643.

The Proctor Libel Suit.

When the case of Edna Dean Proctor, against Moulton, was called in the U.S. court this morning, ex-Judge Fullerton said the defense was not ready, for two reasons. First—because the court has no jurisdiction, second, because of the illness of the defendant. He suggested that the case be referred to a referee which, after argument, was agreed to by the plaintiff's counsel, and Benjamin D. Silliman was appointed referee. Judge Fullerton said they didn't mean to offer any evidence to prove what is supposed to be the main charge; they had never pretended that they could prove that, and didn't expect to; they only wanted to say that it was told them, not that it was true. They confidently anticipated the complete vindication of both parties. After the settlement of the usual preliminaries the counsel went to Silliman's house, where they were joined by General Butler, of Moulton's counsel, and a conference was held on the question of admitting reporters to the reference, Butler opposing their admission, but plaintiff and General Tracy and her counsel being willing to admit them it was finally decided to admit them under certain conditions. The party then went to the U.S. building where the reference was to be held. Plaintiff amended her complaint by stating the residence of the parties to the suit, and Tracy briefly opened the case. Miss Proctor then testified to the highest esteem for Beecher, and declared that there was not the slightest shadow of truth in the stories that had been circulated in regard to him in which her name had been mentioned. There was never any improper behavior on his part, neither did he offer her any insults. She then related the circumstances under which she published her volume of extracts from Beecher's sermons, entitled "Life Thoughts," and the trouble she had with Beecher about the rival book. She never could forget Beecher's breach of faith in business arrangements in connection with this matter, and she had seen very little of him since then, but at all times she had been very friendly. The letter of January 10th, '71, published by Moulton, was given under the following circumstances: "Beecher called to see me on New Year's day '71, and said there was some trouble between Bowen and Tilton, and that he (Beecher) was implicated, and fearing that if I died there might be some wrong construction put upon one (Proctor and Beecher's) transaction, and that to save any such trouble he wanted me to write an expression of my feelings toward him. I went up to the library and wrote the letter, which Moulton published."

She further stated that she never went out with Beecher but once for a few hours to see some pictures in Brooklyn, and that in the studio of a personal friend; she visited at his house with friends two or three times. One evening she went with the late Henry J. Raymond, on invitation from Beecher; they looked at pictures and engravings for an hour or two with other friends. On another occasion she went in the morning; she remembered being in his study a few moments. These were the only occasions she was ever in his house.

General Butler cross-examined her, and when her testimony was closed Butler said they proposed to let her testimony stand uncontradicted. What was published was made public in justification of their controversy with Beecher and of what Beecher told them; and that any reasonable expenses this lady may have incurred will doubtless be paid.

The Brooklyn Eagle says the suit was virtually ended yesterday; the defense made formal overture to the prosecution for compromise and settlement, which the attorneys for Miss Proctor eventually decided to entertain, and last night it was agreed that at the opening of court this morning, Judge Fullerton should propose to have the case referred, to which Macey & Co. should agree after some argument; that ex-District Attorney Silliman should be elected referee, and that Miss Proctor should testify that Moulton's allegations as to her illicit intercourse with Beecher were false in every respect; that Moulton himself should make an affidavit that he, of his own knowledge, knows nothing against Miss Proctor's character, and that the libel he uttered was based wholly on hearsay; that he should apologise to her, and pay all the costs, over $5,000, of both sides; that Miss Proctor should claim no pecuniary damages against Moulton, but would be satisfied with the vindication of her character, and that the referee should report according to these conditions, and thus end the suit. These terms were agreed to by all parties, and this afternoon the reference began.

Mr. Van Cott said their client had always asserted earnestly, that she would, even if large damages were awarded her, only receive enough for bare expenses; she seemed to abhor the idea of making money out of the case.

Judge Fullerton said his client had not actually libeled, but he had communicated, in self-defense, what had been told him. Counsel retired to fix the amount of the expense incurred, which was announced as $4375. Miss Proctor and and friends then retired.

A Bishop Elected.

DAVENPORT, Iowa, 9.—The Protestant Episcopal Convention of the diocese of Iowa met here to-day, and elected the Rev. H. C. Potter, rector of Grace Church, New York, bishop of the diocese of Iowa on the second formal ballot, the vote standing, the clergy, for H. C. Potter 13, Dr. W. S. Huntington 10, Dr. E. N. Potter 1, layman H. C. Potter 25, Huntington 8, E. N. Potter 1; the vote was then made unanimous and a committee was appointed to notify Dr. Potter of his election.

The King at Omaha.

OMAHA, 9.—King Kalakaua and party were met by General Ord and the mayor and city council a few miles out this afternoon, and were driven through the city; at four o'clock the party started east. A salute of twenty guns was fired from the battery.

Re-elected.

BALTIMORE, 9.—The directors of the Baltimore and Ohio R. R., to-day, re-elected John W. Garrett president.

$60,000 Fire.

BRIDGEPORT, 9.—The Presbyterian church and chapel were burned this evening; loss $60,000, insurance $35,000.

Republican Caucus.

WASHINGTON, 9.—The republican senatorial caucus adjourned without definite action on the Arkansas matter, the general opinion being against congressional interference; in regard to Louisiana several senators said it would appear that the government of other States had no more legal existence than Louisiana.

Utes Raiding.

CHEYENNE, W. T., 9.—Information has been received here to-day of a raid of Ute Indians into the Snake River settlements in Carbon county, Wyoming. The Indians are known as Jack's band, from the White River agency, Colorado, but they have left their reservations to go on the war path. The citizens of Snake River valley are arming, and the purpose is to give the savages a warm reception.

Commanded to Disperse.

JACKSON, Miss., 9.—Governor Ames issued a proclamation to-day, reciting the troubles between the whites and blacks in Vicksburg and vicinity, and commanding all riotous persons to disperse at once.

An Injunction Demanded.

PHILADELPHIA, 9.—In the U. S. Circuit Court, to-day, application was made on behalf of the stockholders of the Northern Pacific Railroad living in New York, Minnesota, Missouri, Pennsylvania and Canada, for an injunction against the trustees and committee of the creditors of Jay Cooke & Co., to restrain them from making any payment of dividends or proceeding with the distribution of the estate. The complaint made is that the railroad company is insolvent and has refused to present any claims against the estate, and that the bankrupts are liable to the extent of sixteen million dollars upon its bonds; the bondholders desire to come in for their share, and therefore seek to enjoin the distribution until their claims are recognized.

Resigned—Forgery and Embezzlement.

VICKSBURG, 9.—The Board of Supervisors, to-day, accepted the resignation of Sheriff Crosby; an election for his successor will be ordered soon.

The recent robbery of the records furnishes evidence of forgery and embezzlement by Sheriff Peter Crosby, chancery clerk Wash. Davenport, and other negro officials, who are all under indictment except Crosby; the stolen records were found this evening in or under Davenport's house. Davenport is a fugitive.

Excitement Subsiding.

The excitement is subsiding and business generally is resumed. Armed bodies of negroes are reported at various places outside the town, and some whites still guard the approaches to the city.

Legislature Convened.

Governor Ames has issued a proclamation, calling an extra session of the legislature on Thursday, the 17th inst., to take action on the situation here.

Dead.

ITHICA, N. Y., 9.—Ezra Cornell died this afternoon.
