

FOUGHT THE OFFICERS. This morning it was dealded to send him to the county jail where he can receive more appropriate treatment but Wolf did not want to go. Lieu-tenant Hempel, Jailer Ripley, Ser-geant Blackstead and Policemen Pitts and Grundvig went into the cell to take him out. Wolf backed into a corner and glared defiance at the officers. He fought like the madman he is when they tried to take him out into the corridor and place his hands in a padded muff, used in such cases. The officers told him in a kindly voice that they would not hurt him but he kept up the moaning and fought with the most remarkable strength. It was necessary to throw him to the floor and it took the combined efforts of five big policemen to put his hands into the muff and strap his arms close to his body. He was then carried to the patrol wagon and Driver Moore lost no time in getting him to the county jail where Jailer Jos. Burblidge took charge of him. He tried to rush out of the padded cell but the door was shut in his face. Richard Drone, the man shot through the leg by Wolf, it still at St. Mark's hospital and will be there for several days although his condi-tion is favorable. Wolf will undoubt-edly be taken before a commission and tried on the charge of insanity. That he will be sent to the state mental hospital and not prosecuted on court, M. L. Jail-er Wilkinson placed Remick under ar-rest and locked him up in Jail. The battery occurred in front of the Salt Lake Thrater. Mrs. Remick said she had been out all evening visiting friends and as she was on her way to her rooms in the Tuxedo she met her husand and he at once accused her of being in the company of another man. She denied the charge and he be-gan to beat her, striking her several times and closing one of her eyes with a vicious blow. The couple were mar-ried on the 22nd of last September.

A gentleman who was in the audience and heard her, disagreed with the adjudica-tor in failing to give her the first prize, to such a degree that he called on Miss Davis, and after stating his opinion which was that she should have taken the first prize, presented her with a check for $25. Miss Davis feels much encouraged, so does Mrs. Morris, her teacher.
