HOME FROM CANADA.

William McIntyre Returns from His 57,000 Acre Ranch.
Mr. William McIntyre returned last evening from a two months' sojourn in Alberta, Canada, looking after his ranching interests. While away Mr. McIntyre purchased 600 head of yearlings in eastern Canada. He already has a great number of cattle, and he is well as his herd right along. Only the other day Mr. McIntyre's possessions in Alberta were about 4,000 acres. Now Mr. McIntyre says his ranch covers 57,000 acres and is everything but a fair for a few years for cattleman in that section. The earlier rains were followed by a three day rain, falling from the 21st to the 24th inst., which has made the cattlemen rejoice. Mr. McIntyre did not see Jesse Knight, though he heard before he left that he had set out to his 22,000 acre ranch, which he is stocking with cattle.
