

D. Burgess, a railroad official of the Missouri Valley, who had the deceased embalmed, and started with the body for this city, where he is now looking for the heirs.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., 3.—This evening a young man named Robt. Emdy, was run over and instantly killed by a switch engine in the Missouri & St. Louis freight yard. A large number of persons gathered at the scene and while two men, John Cochran and John Griffin, of Muscatine, were crossing the track of the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba on the way home, they were struck by the train and one was beheaded and the other instantly crushed.

CHICAGO, 3.—The Inter-Ocean makes a mysterious but prominent announcement that an advanced step in rail oads has been discovered which will revolutionize that service and put it 50 years ahead of the age. It says the officials of six of the largest and most enterprising roads in the Mississippi Valley have been for two days discussing the new improvement, the nature of which will be announced in a few days.

CHICAGO, 4.—A Rawlins, Wyo., special says: It is stated that the Shoshones and Bannock Indians at the Wind River Agency, 120 miles north of here, broke out upon the departure of the two companies of the third cavalry from Fort Washakie, which is the agency post. Only a few men were left to garrison the post while the two companies were sent to fight the Apaches. There are about 2,000 Indians in this reservation and all are splendid fighters, were excellent scouts under Gen. Crook, on his campaigns of '76 and '77 against the Sioux and Cheyennes. There are several theories of the cause of their outbreak, one that the killing of the Ute, Jack, incensed them. Army officers, however, believe they were ready to fight, and simply took advantage of the absence of troops to take the warpath and leave the reservation. No confirmation or contradiction of the report is obtained yet, but the best informed are uneasy and apprehend the report is true.

General Sherman has no official information regarding the outbreak reported to have occurred at the White River Agency among the Bannocks and Shoshones. He has, however, official dispatches from Colonel Forsyth, dated 30th April, confirming the news that 13 Indians were killed at the Horseshoe Canon fight on the 20th, and seven killed by Captain Tupper on the 28th of April also. Colonel Garcia, with a column of Mexican troops on the 29th attacked Indians Forsyth was pursuing, killed 78 and took 33 prisoners.

LONDON, 1.—The news of Emerson's death was read with wide regret, no American man of letters being so highly esteemed among the cultivated English people. The papers contained long obituaries and leaders.

The Times said that the world will not be agreed as to the exact nature of Emerson's literary merits, but on all hands it will be admitted that his country has lost a man of genius of whom it might be proud, and his generation a teacher whom it cannot replace.

The Daily News, contrasting Emerson and Carlyle, says of the former that the man was greater than his written words, and of the latter that his written words were greater than the man.

A melancholy scene was witnessed here during the last week. A procession of unemployed laborers bore through the streets a wretched banner, directing attention to their condition and to the fund attempted to be raised by the Lord Mayor to promote emigration, which amounted to the magnificent sum of £109. Had a subscription of thousands been wanted to retain Jumbo it would doubtless have been raised in one day.

The Middlesboro iron workers struck for an increase of wages. Many thousand hands are affected by the strike.

Mr. Darwin's funeral at Westminster Abbey, Wednesday, brought together representatives of every class of the most eminent in England except the royalty. No member of the royal family was present, personally or by deputy, their absence provoking much sharp comment. "He was ignored in death as in life," says Prof. Huxley, "by the ruling dynasty."

I have just received news from

Lawrence Oliphant, concerning the progress of his mission for the relief of the persecuted Hebrews of Russia. He had, when he wrote, just dispatched from Limberg 230 fugitives, who sailed from Hamburg on Wednesday for your city. These poor creatures have been living in the greatest distress for the last six months at Brady, on the pittance of 75cts. a week each.

MADRID, 1.—The principal towns of Catalonia have adopted the red cap of the Catalanian officials. Telegrams report that tranquillity prevails, but the latest hostility to the government continues. There has been a slight disorder at Boirgos, owing to the restricting of tradesmen for the non-payment of new taxes. The officials are compelled to demand the protection of the troops.

CITY OF MEXICO, 1.—The Central Railroad opened to traffic to Irapuati, 300 kilometers north of here.

The horse "Carrey," owned by President Gonzales, won the principal race yesterday. Purse $1,000.

The Quertaro exposition opened today.

The Central Pacific Company constructed in the Republic 557 kilometers of road; Mexican National Company 238; Tehuantepec Company, 63.

LONDON, 2.—A dispatch from the west coast of Africa, dated April 23, reports there has been heavy fighting between the native band of Calabers and the followers of Jumbo. The latter were the aggressors. The slaughter is described as fearful; at least 2,000 persons were killed. It was feared Jaga would take part in the fighting, thus causing a war which would become a wholesale carnage. There was much alarm among the English inhabitants.

Gladstone in the House of Commons made an announcement similar to that of the Earl of Granville in the House of Lords. Gladstone stated that a large number of other suspects are to be released and the government instead of renewing the coercion act would introduce a measure remedying the administration of justice in Ireland. He said the instruction had already been sent to Ireland for the release of three of the imprisoned members of Parliament and that the list of suspects were being carefully considered with the view to release of all except those who were arrested on suspicion of having been personally concerned in the outrages. These releases would be on the government's sole responsibility. Gladstone stated that Forster had resigned because he was not willing to share this responsibility and that Forster would make a personal explanation on Thursday. The measure which the government will introduce remedying the administration of justice in Ireland deals with the protection of life and property. At the conclusion of Gladstone's remarks he said the government had taken the first step in a policy that would crown the administration with glory and would produce a mutual interest between England and Ireland.

YARMOUTH, 1.—A terrible battle was fought near this place today between a company of dragoons under the command of Cayetina Noviega and the famous bandit known as Teodora Caballeros. The troops were badly defeated after a hard and long fight, Noviega being killed. The robbers rode away to Maunhams after the struggle.

PARIS 2.—Premier Desfeyncinet today received the bureau committee of the Franco-American treaty. One of the spokesmen stated that American opinion seemed to be veering from the system of high tariffs. He thought the present was the opportune time for endeavoring to improve commercial relations with the United States. Desfeyncinet replied he was favorable to the idea of the treaty of commerce between the two republics.

He was pleased to hear of the change of opinion in America, and thought there was consequently good reason for resuming your pourparlers. He said he had already acquainted Roustan of his desire in this respect and would now give precise instructions. The deputations retired well satisfied with De Freycinet's declaration.

LONDON, 3.—St. John has it been the lot of the Premier to announce a change of policy amid such derision as was manifested in the House last evening, Gladstone seemed to feel himself in a false position. His anxiously awaited statement was made with an air of timidity quite foreign to him, and with a brevity of phrase altogether unusual. His embarrassment was especially evident when he endeavored to show consistency and unchanging purpose on the part of the Government, while to the sense of the whole House he was announcing a retreat all along the line. The mocking laughter and bitter scorn were with from time to time his words were greeted, made the task painful though he tried hard to put a bold face on the matter. It was the general feeling of the House, even on the Ministerial side, that Forster had been made a Jonah, and that he entirely disapproved of the policy of the Government in releasing the three members of Parliament and the other suspects. This was evident from the curt, stern answers to questions put by the Irish members, and to his defense of the Irish police and magistrates. His full statement, or "apologia," as it is being called, will not come until Thursday, owing to the necessity of obtaining the personal sanction of Her Majesty to his retirement. He, however, took no trouble to conceal his disgust. The Land League party are mild and conciliatory. A promise of anything from that quarter means a good deal. They have, in fact, beaten the Government, and know it.

The Times says: If Parnell will make use of his liberty to restore order, there may be an immediate improvement in the condition of Ireland.

The Post says: The government is in despair, and is like a desperate man playing a desperate game to retrieve his fortune.

The Times says: If the latest daring change avails to vanquish disorder in Ireland there can be no doubt of the fate of the cabinet.

Dublin, 3.—There was great excitement on the news being received of the resignation of Forster. Crowds gathered on the streets and cheered for Parnell, and groaned for Forster. Bands paraded the city, playing national airs. The news to the land leaguers was quickly transmitted through the country, and soon fires were blazing on Wicklow Hill. There was spontaneous rejoicing everywhere. At Limerick many people danced for joy, shouting "Forster is gone, God save Ireland!" Bands paraded at Waterford and illuminations were general. Parnell, Dillon and O'Kelly were released at 11 o'clock today. Further changes at Dublin Castle are expected. Thomas Henry Burke, Under Secretary and Colonel Hillier, Inspector General and the constabulary will probably resign.

LOMBURG, 3.—The number of Jewish refugees arriving here is constantly increasing. Yesterday 102 women and children, whose relations had already emigrated, were forwarded to Hamburg with 93 Jews from Jassy. The assembly of Polish Jews pronounced in favor of the emigration to Palestine. Seven hundred families applied to the emigration committee at Jaffa, for assistance to enable them to settle in Palestine.

CAIRO, 3.—The Minister of War has ordered 90 Krupp guns.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 3.—Col Hakk, aide-de-camp to the Sultan, soon starts for London to purchase torpedo boats. He will be accompanied by two officers, who will make it their special business to learn how to handle torpedoes and launches.
