

During the brush between 'Uncle Sam' and the 'Britishers,' a regiment was raised in Canada, called the King's own,' its advent in a place being more dreaded than an incursion from Yankeedom. The commendable spirit, the 'pillar' being Ensign D'E. He A new French hymn, by A. Dupont, of Paris, transwas the most consummate practical joker in the army, and his messmates held him in awe, in consequence of and his messmates beld him in awe, in consequence of the repeated success of his tricks upon them. After an outrageous affair which nearly cost the lives of two or three of his comrades, it was resolved to retaliate at the earliest opportunity, which soon offered. The regiment, on the march to the frontier, bivou-necked in the vicinity of L'Acadie. It then became a question of some importance to know how the mess-table was to be garnished. One suggested a very common expedient to holf forer students of the very table was to be garnished. One suggested a very table was to be garnished. One suggested a very table was to be garnished. One suggested a very table was to be garnished. The regiment to holf officers and men wit a wisit common expedient to both officers and men, viz: a visit to some neighboring hen-coop. Another immediately added, that, at about a mile from the encampment, he had noticed an old lady feeding some preity plump scene span, "Let's have 'em by all means," eried D'E. The party set out, and on reaching the old lady's premises, a reconnoissance showed the gener-penned in uniter one of those ovens which the gener-penned in uniter over the gener-penned in uniter ov ality of Canadians build near their houses, instead of party. "Certainly," cried the Easign, who always sought distinction in exploits of this kind; "I will, but some of you must go to the house and entertain the old of you must go to the house and entertain the old woman so she may not interrupt my operations." D.E., although a slight man, had to exert his utmost strength in order to squeeze himself half through most strength in order to squeeze himself half through the little door of the pen. "Now." he cried, warding off the attack of a hel-ligerent old goose, "run to the old woman." "And they did run in. "Madam! Madam!" they cried, "there's a fellow stealing your greese! Come quick—quick !?" The old lady flew to the chimney-corner, seized her broom-stick, and sallied out to surprise the En-sign in the hottest of his tussle with his ferocious antageonist, the natriarchal goose. She instanly nonpasser a terrific blow, the full force of which sat upon the exposed part with unrestricted effect, as he had on his 'shell-jacket' only.

"Hello, there ! Stop that, you fools, you hurt !" shouled the officer. "Hah, you rascal," the infuriated woman shrieked.

"Hah, you ruscal," the informated woman simpled "Pill teach you to rob a poor lone widder of her lorfill property," and she applied her weapon to the culprit with redoubled energy. "Murder!" yelled the Ensign. "That's it," whispered the captain, who owed D'E a grudge of long standing. "Give it to the fel-low," he added, 'patting her encouragingly on the shoulder.

ulder. Whack-whack ! went the broom-stick.

"Strike lower, my good woman." said the vindictive

The injunction was implicitly followed. D'E roared with prin, and made superhuman efforts to ex-tricate himself. His comrades, all but the inexorable captain, were rolling upon the grass, convulsed with "I'll give you a guinea if you'll stop," cried the En-

"I'll give you two-go it," whispered the captain,

She resumed the castigation with a blow that sent the broom-stick flying into two nieces. D'E grew desperates and with the yell of a Mohawk he escaped the others were too delighted to complain of a slim-ness in consequence.-[Cottage Gazette.

The young man was of sangujae temperament, and the intended bride, a joyous looking girl, with mis-chievous eyes, speaking with requisiness, that fold her lover not to "count his chickers before they were against President Rigdon, and was forgiren. entering the squire's office. that hatched." After lignitary approached the parties, and inquired in the

DRSHRHINRW " Truth and Liberty."

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, U.T., SATURDAY, MAY 1, 1852. VOL. 2. INO. 13.

From Etoile Deseret. THE MESSAGE.

lated by W. W. PHELPS.

We hail by our songs the celestial abode, Which the Great God of Israel did promise his Jehovah hath spoken-his message we heed.

What radiant splendor appears in the west!

That favor'd the Gentiles, salutes us from heav'n; Ye children of Ephraim, and Israel, be glad;-

Cease weeping, and raise up your heads,--you're forgis'n. Chorus-What radiant splendor, &cc.

Be gloried that man, who, in mercy, the Lord Rais'd up in his youth, to promulgate his law; To Joseph be honor-a martyr's reward,--His blood is the seal of cur union-with awe. Chorus-What radiant splendor, &c.

A feeble tree rising and heaten by storm-

Yet our church has supplied many nations with bread:

With millions of offspring the globe soon will swarm; Her message enlivens the living and dead. Chorus-What radiant splendor, &c.

ADDO.

*Ough -- murder ! Murder-r-r-r-p' yelled the With the mantle of Joseph, there Brigham presides, For eternity now, and eternity then, captain, with as much coolness as if he was superin- There the Spirit of God with the rightcous resides, For wisdom and power,-hosanna; anien. Chorus-What radiant splendor, &c.

[Copyright Secured,] LIFE OF JOSEPH SMITH.

espoused, and manifesting a strong dissatisfaction against the teachings of the presidency;"

The Young Man who is Half Married. also against Dean Gould for speaking unadvis-edly against elder Rigdon and other elders. In In A young couple appeared before a justice of the the case of John Gould, the accuser and defend-eace in Greenfield, for the purpose of being married. ant agreed the matter should be talked over, by ant agreed the matter should be talked over, by Dean Gould acknowledged that he spoke unadvisedly against President Rigdon, and was forgiven .-In the afternoon, i waited on most of the Twelve at my house, and exhibited to them the ancient records, and gave explanations. This Wednesday, 21st, at home. ancient records, and gave explanations. This

What can I do for yon, young friends? Groom-What can you do for us? Why, a dam'd te. Can't he. Sury? Sunday, 4th. 1 started early in the morning, mestic concerns. Bride-Well, I reakon it; if all's willin?. G.-Williv? I Why, what's up? Ain't going to Perry. When about a mile from home, we diswith brother John Corrill, to hold a meeting in shall it be measured to him again by the hand. Tuesday, 27th. In the morning I was called must go to the store. I invited him to stay; of his God, even an hundred fold. Angels shall to visit at brother Samuel Smith's. His wife guard his house, and shall guard the lives of his was confined, and in a dangerous situation.— He did so; while he was gone, brother posterity, and they shall become very great and Brother Carlos went to Chardon after Doctor William introduced the subject of our difficulty they shall be atterly confounded and brought delivered of a living child, and be spared. The then he should relate his story, and make they shall be atterly contounded and brought activered of a fiving conta, and be spared. The shall be intervards, and fession wherein he had done wrong, and then Why is it thought strange that we should be a unto the utmost; and his life shall be precious in the course of two hours she was delivered; leave it to brother Hyrum Smith and bro.Parrish We have not borne the root, but the root us. In our Lo, the Mormon has spied out life's promised rest! shake himself, as a lion riseth out of his nest, fulfilled, every whit. This evening I preached agree to the decision, and he satisfied therewith. Where the rainbow in grandeur the heavens doth and roareth until he shaketh the hills; and as i in the school house, to a crowded congregation. He observed that he had not done wrong, and lion goeth forth among the lesser beasts; so Wednesday, 28th, at home, attending to my that I was always determined to carry my points shall the going forth of him be whom the Lord family concerns.

house of my father; found him failing very fast. Sunday, 11th, waited on my father again, where were served to be haven of immortality. Who was very sick. In secret prayer in the morning, the Lord said, My servant, thy father conversation with the parents and the girl, at in the statement, in the secret prayer in the conversation with the parents and the girl, at in the statement in transgressing the outer the least according to the parents. Multiam Simith, against brother Elliot's favor, from himself through, he made his statements, justifying the lord said, My servant, thy father conversation with the parents and the girl, at in the statement in the name of Jesus who as a far food's own backt, had wrees and concu-ingent the parents and the girl, at in the fault, and that the neighbors our writing room; went to Doctor Williams' af-render them eapable of administering the mane wholesome advice. At evening, brother David Whith are came in; we called on the Lord in mighty prayer in the name of Jesus Curist, and his dour hands on him and rebuked the disease, he mather, returned home, and my seried he unameles, returned home, and my seried the mummies, returned home, and my seried the mummies, returned home, and my seried the the mummies, returned home, and my seried the mummies, returned home, and my seried the the mummies, returned home, and my seried the mummies, returned home, and my seried the the mummies, returned home, and my seried the the mummies, returned home, and my seried the the seried to dever the series the lowner to be the mummies, returned home, and my seried the the series this license to me. He went home the mummies, the mummies, returned home, and my seried the mummies, returned home, and my seried the the series the lowner to be and the series the lowner to be and the series the lowner to be been to be the mummies, returned home, and my series the mummies, returned home, and my series the lowner the lowner to ny with my wife, to purchase some goods at Wm. Lyon's store. On our return, we found a Mr. Bradley lying across the road. He had coming forth of the Book, the administration been thrown from his wagon; wis much injured of the angel to me, the rudiments of the gospe by the fall.

very much recovered from his sickness indeed, they have made no request of the kind. which caused us to marvel at the might, power, and condescension of our Heavenly Father, in gathering apples. Friday, 16th; was called into the printing of-fice to settle some difficulties in that depart-ment. At evening I baptized Ebenezer Robin-ble, w BOD.

elder John F. Boynton in the afternoon. had an interesting time. Monday, 19th, at home. Exhibited the records of antiquity to a number who called to see

Thursday, 22d, at home attending to my do-mestic concerns. Fridar, 23d, at home. At 4 o'clock, after-timony. The complainant, bro. William Smith, so william Smith, so we remarks upon them; after which sacra-bonon. Oliver Cowdery, David Whitmer, Hyrum arose and accused me of invalidating or doubt. noon, Oliver Cowdery, David Whitmer, Hyrum arose and accused me of invalidating or doubt- ment was administered. I then confirmed a let him confess and acknowledge the corn and say G.-Willief Why, what's up? Ain't going to gin up now, I hope? You don't mean to say I shart get married? B.-Oh, no, John, you've come to get married, and B.-Oh, no, John, you've come to get ma I won't balk you. G.—Good as goold There, Squire, there's a got-tern to begin with—[seizes her, and plants a few that dove. So now, Squire, gear up your fixins and crack dove. So now, Squire, gear up your fixins and crack dove. So now, Squire, gear up your fixins and crack dove. So now, Squire, gear up your fixins and crack dove. So now, Squire, gear up your fixins and crack dove. So now, Squire, gear up your fixins and crack dove. So now, Squire, gear up your fixins and crack the dove dot will give us means dove. So now, Squire, gear up your fixins and crack dove. So now, Squire, gear up your fixins and crack dove. So now, Squire, gear up your fixins and crack dove. So now, Squire, gear up your fixins and crack the dove dot will give us the placed by means the the clores of nor all our afflictions the the clores of nor an excited in my feelings on account of his the the clores on account of his the the clores on account of his the the clores on account of his the the the fixed in my feelings on account of his the the the fixed in my feelings on account of his the the the fixed in my feelings on account of his the the the fixed in my feelings on account of his the the fixed in my feelings on account of his the the the fixed in my feelings on account of his the the the fixed in my feelings on account of his the the fixed in my feelings on account of his the the fixed in my feelings on account of his the the fixed in my feelings on account of his the the fixed in my feelings on account of his the the fixed in my feelings on account of his the the fixed in my feelings on account of his the the fixed in my feelings on account of his the the fixed in my feelings on account of his the fixed in my feelings on account of his the fixed in my feelings on account of his the fixed in my feelings on account of his the fixed in my feelings on account of his the fixed in my feelings on account of his the fixed in the fix rangement; but conversed freely with brother of our debts; that he will open the way and de- stubhornness, and was about to leave the house; liver Zion in the appointed time, and that with but my father requested me not to do so. out the shedding of blood; that he will hold our complied, and the house was brought to order lives precious, and grant that we may live to after much debate on the subject, and we pro-the common age of man, and never fall into the ceeded to business. hands nor power of the mob in Missouri, nor in The decision of the council in the case of hurry. G-Now. Sary, don't say boo! till its over-let them much instruction concerning their duties that it will the carth sufficient to carry us to Zion, and them much instruction concerning their duties the carth sufficient to carry us to Zion, and the carth sufficient to carry us to Zion, and bis daughter, and upon this church; because he souri next season; also this fall to attend the solern assembly of the first elders, for the or-the the will even enough to carry on and accomplish the solern assembly of the first elders, for the or-the the will even enough to carry on and accomplish the solern assembly of the first elders, for the or-the the will even enough to carry on and accomplish the solern assembly of the first elders, for the or-G-Now, Sary, our is grown with a feast of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of Go at its squire, have used the state of the growth and its sate of Go at its squire, have used the state of the Go at the squire of the state of the Go at the The squire, in turn, performed the service which uses to extort acquiescence to her lower's wishes, but instead of the precious words, "I will," gusting of our present difficulties. May God bless and property, with up from the pure fountain of her maiden heart, a present difficulties. May God bless and property, with uses of Suure and groom.

very numerous on the earth; whomsoever he Williams. I went out into the field and bowed at the council. I told him I did not want to in the sight of the Lord, he shall rise up and and thus what God had manifested to me, was to decide the matter between us, and I would

Tuesday, 13th, visited my father, who was I expect to baptize them in a few days, though answering our prayers in his behalf. Wednesday, 14th, at home. Thursday, 15th, labored in father's orchard, tcreation was indulged in, on both sides, and wife and daughter; after baptism we returned Sunday, 18th, attended meeting in the chap-el, confirmed several that had been baptized, and blessed several children with the blessings of the new and everlasting covenant. Elder Parley P. Pratt preached in the forenoon, and older LAD F. Boundar is the afternoon.

ror to reflect the dark and secret characters and conduct of thousands who affect outwardly to despise such things, but secretly practice all, and more than they access him of? If this be so, may not the cause of virtue and right.

eousness receive liberal contributions and heavy ac-cessions by the alleged vices and corruptions of Gov. Young, inducing many to look at themselves—sense their own deprayed condition, and resolve to reform? We cannot see why he may not be as successful a preacher of rightcousness in this way, as Paul was in another, when he said: "If the truth of God abound through my lie unto his glory, why am I thought an evil doer?" Bat perhaps the gentleman does not beevil doer?" But peraps the genueman does not be lieve that "all things work for good;" and his taste may lead him to prefer the light of the picture with-out the shade to increase its beauty. If the nerves of our brother editor were so shocked as to cause him to drop his pen and turn away in dis-gust when thinking about Gov. Young's sixteen wives and fourteen children, what must he do when thinking about wiser and better men having a thouand wives, perhaps, and better men having a time Judging by the rule of proportion, we should suppose that he would not only drop his pen, but paper, hat and press, and fly from christianity with that rapidity besseth they shall be blessed; whomsoever he before the Lord, and called upon him in mighty converse upon the subject until Hyrum return-blesseth they shall be cursed; and when his energy rin her behalf; and the word of the Lord mies seek him unto his hurt, and destruction, same unto me, saying, My servant Frederick and let him rise up and curse, and the hand of shall one, and shall have wisdom given him, ad, and wherein I had been out of the way, I God shall be upon his energies in judgment; to deal predently, and my handmaid shall be would confess it, and ask his forgiveness, and be his track, and be founded of the lord of the way to its con- owner.

early childhood, we were left an orphan. If we pos-sess talent, energy, and a well-balanced mind, accor-He observed that he had not done wrong, and int I was always determined to carry my points has generously given us, Mormonism has bequeathed shall the going forth of him be whom the Lord family concerns. whether right or wrong, and therefore he would to us that legacy. It found us the foot of the hill, hath anointed to exalt the poor; and to humble Thursday, 29th, Brother W. Parish commen- not stand an equal chance with me. This was and if we have ascended at all, that is the car in hath anointed to exait the poor; and to humble Thursday, 29th, Brother W. Parish commen- not stand an equal chance with me. This was and if we have ascended at all, that is the car in the rich; therefore his name shull be on high, ced writing for me at fifteen dollars per month. Insult, but I did not reply to him in a harsh is inflammatory disposition; If therefore, Mormonism has and his rest among the sanctified. This after committee store. Father and mother Smith orders. Thursday, 8th, at home. I attended on my father with great anxiety. Friday, 9th, at home. Waited on myfather. Friday, 9th, at home, Waited on myfather. Saurday, 10th, at home, and yfather; found him failing very fast. Sunday, 11th, waited on my father again.

Smith, who had retired to rest, that he might praise the Lord with us, by joining in songs of praise to the Most High. Monday, 12th, rode to Willoughby, in compa-ny with my wife, to purchase some goods at Wm. Lyop's store. On our return, we found a this occasion; I can only pray my Heavenly Fa-ther to open their eyes, that they may discover wife, then we have no sense of propriety, or of the down and reinted to them the institution of the angel to me, the rudiments of the gospel of Christ, &c. They appeared well satisfied, and I expect to baptize them in a few days, though they have made no request of the kind. Went to the council. The Presidency arose and adjourned. On my return, elder Boynton baserved that long debates were bad. I replied that it was generally the case that too much al-their debates protracted to an unprofitable length. We were coulded to support while scated at ta-

We were called to supper; while seated at ta-le, we indalged in a free interchange of wrong he had done. Sunday morning, November 1st, 1835. Ver- pion, and even in unbelief of the correctness of their Detober 3d, I attended the High Council to investigate charges preferred by Reynolds Ca-hoon against elder John Gould for making ex-hoon against elder John Council to injurcthe cause we have > and siprocated from the company around the table; sight; therefore go and declare unto him these We and my heart responded, amen; God grant it, I words. I went immediately and delivered this ask in the name of Jesus Christ. After supper I went to the High Council, in I called him in, and read what the Lord had Ider John F. Boynton in the atternoon. We and my heart responded, amen; too grant it, i words. I went immediately and delivered this in a case not so generally established or admitted) and my heart responded, amen; too grant it, i words. I went immediately and delivered this in a case not so generally established or admitted) and my heart responded, amen; too grant it, i words. I went immediately and delivered this is a case not so generally established or admitted) and my heart responded, amen; too grant it, i words. I went immediately and delivered this is a case not so generally established or admitted out rejecting control out

"Pronounced "la plase don' trey ho," and render-ed, "the place of the Most High.

G.-(Impatiently)-In airnest? Of course we're in aimest. Don't player so-go into it-ip out the tigued from riding in the rain; spent the rein the reading, spent the read cool, and bid de- mainder of the day in reading, meditation, &c., innee to physickers short distance from the Squire's; prominent among turn in health them, too, was Betsy Bradford. He is known as, their families.

Sanire-(Rising)-Well, if you are in carnest I Corrill's relatives, which allayed much prejudice; may the Lord have mercy on their souls.

Monday 5th, I returned home, being much famince matters, Pd a had for. The groom left with rather a ruclu counterance, and appeared to be lost in deep meditation, which was only disturbed by the merry peals of a bey of girls, who saluted him with boisterous laughter, a short distance from the Squire's; prominent among turn in health and in safety to the bosom of the least kind befal them, that they may re-short distance from the Squire's; prominent among turn in health and in safety to the bosom of the least kind befal them, that they may re-short distance from the Squire's; prominent among turn in health and in safety to the bosom of the least kind befal them, that they may re-short distance from the Squire's; prominent among turn in health and in safety to the bosom of the least kind befal them, that they may re-testimony to prove that F. G. Williams was of what took place at the council last night, for by what we have heard, it is considered rather the source of the least kind befal them. the prove that F. G. Williams was of what took place at the council last night, for by what we have heard, it is considered rather the prove that F. G. Williams was the prove that short distance from the Source's; prominent among them, too, was Betsy Bradford. He is known as they soung man who is half married. Ato row ITALV.—A correspondent of the N. York Commercial, writing from Rome under dute of Dec, shy been deposited somewhere in Rome under dute of Dec, shy been deposited somewhere in Rome for the issand induced to the bishopric shall not be taken away from this we leaved of the Lord is brother Whitney, even the shall overcome all the narrow mindedness of ently been deposited somewhere in Rome for the issand induced to the bishop of the church of Latter Day Saints; the neglect of our counsel. or lawyer, who did sured unjustly, considering that his cause was for the bishopric shall not be taken away from him while be liveth: and the time cometh that to see the shall overcome all the narrow mindedness of ently been deposited somewhere in Rome for the bishopric to the bishopric shall do diverces. Four bundred thousand dollars, it enter the seall overcome all the narrow mindedness of ently been deposited somewhere in Rome for the seall overcome all the narrow mindedness of ently been deposited somewhere in Rome for the seall overcome all the narrow mindedness of ently been deposited somewhere in Rome for the seall doel with a might here unlawk to the used to the light and walketh is account of our faith, that the unggoing account of the dissatisfaction of our faith, that the unggoing account of our faith, with an officer to mater and belt encerts and belt encert 10, says that it is well known due shown due s from Liverpool. It is reported that there are at least 30,000 muskets secreted in that city and the fatherless, and marvellously and minaculously shall the pagna. Astronomical. — Mr. W. Lassel, of Liverpool, announces his discovery of two new satellites of the planet Uranus, interior to the innermost of the two bright satellites first discovered by Sir W. Herschel, known as the second and fourth. His reported that there are at least sick and afflicted, the widow and the fatherless, and marvellously shall the belease of this neglect, a fine was imposed on and give him all the satisfaction I could. This sometimes act in that capacity) and in diping up vine to this contor Astronomical. — Mr. W. Lassel, of Liverpool, bright satellites first discovered by Sir W. Herschel, known as the second and fourth. His reported that there are at least sick and afflicted, the widow and the fatherless, and marvellously shall the the conserve of the sate) for event works upon the Island of Folster and marvellously and in the capacity of the sate) for some weeks upon the Island of Folster and marvellously and in second after him sometimes act in that capacity) and in dipping up vine to this second after him to planet Uranus, interior to the innermost of the two known as the second and fourth. His reported that there are at least sick and afflicted, the widow and the fatherless, and marvellously and in the satisfaction I could. This second the there are at least sequence of this neglect, a fine was imposed on and give him all the satisfaction I could. This sometimes act in that capacity) and in dipping up to the fatherless, and marvellously and his fellow-laborer run the capacity to expression to generation; and it shall come the shall come the sate state of the sate of

Sunday morning, November 1st, 1835. Ver-from the Guardian, in Response to the "Delicate Matters at the Great , with our opinions and pleas without respect to an ad-be experienced to be fully realized.

G.—G-eat shakin' agers! Sary, what did you sar? B.—No! [The Squire looks perplexed, and Sary! Squire, hold 'ert G.—Stand your ground, Sary! Squire, hold 'ert B.—No you dow't. Yon've no right to complain. You wanted to gest mented, and married I So pay the Squire, and run home You wanted to gest married. Joint or solutor to respect, though the same and married I So pay the Squire and run home Skinged to the Redeemer's sake, amen. Shing the convice with largents converting to complain. To complain the state many solution to respect, the Redeemer's sake, amen. Shing the convice with largents converting to complain. To complain the state many solution to complain. Shing the converting to complain the state many solution to complain. To complain the state many solution to complain. Shing the converting to complain the state many solution to complain. To com with the sarvace mark and married to solution stock. The nad ocen re-states his neighbor, or he who, believing he has a justi-mate. The most impression upon them. The mark and your ground, Sary! Squire, hold 'ert and meditation. States the most in the salvace of the day in reading the stock business among us; that every man enjoined brother before the most into stock business among us; that every man enjoined brothers the provecation, hut he shows hown, and sisters, about one hour. The Lord poured before your "mamma knowys you're out." And way sould convert with hurding up of Zion. Showen in the gift of tongues, and interpreted, the poor and needy, or the building up of Zion. spoken in the gift of tongaes, and interpreted, the poor and needy, or the building up of Zion. Monday, 26th, went to Chardou to attend the county court, in company with Brothers Harvar. Pm not married i So pay the Squire, and run home the statements concerning Gov. Young's sixteen before your "mamma knows you're out." And away for Chirst the Redeemer's sake; amen. skipped the little jill convulsed with laughter. G.—Great Casar, Squire, it's your full. If you'd started by land in the stage, for Buifalo, New only put 'er right through, an' had'at stopped to mittee's store. May God grant in the name of mittee's store. May God grant in the name of store the name of store store him immediately to health our his Spirit, and some glorious things were secret liberally or illiberally or ill

EXTRACTS.

Dearly beloved brother Richards .- Since that time, the "Delicate Matters at the Great Salt LakeValley," alluded to by the Savannah Sentinel.

"the most part of the people were come together," without knowing why or wherefore, and nothing could be heard for two hours, but the cry of "Great is Diana of Ephesna;" at such times doors, winlows, benches and the like, suffer hornbly, and the elders and saints, not unifequently, get more or less logging and their clothes toru off. But thanks be to florging and their clothes to

We have resorted to the law sometimes, when we could find an officer honest and bold enough to under-take to do his diffy. In one instance recently here, in Copenhagen, (to their praise be it said) the offend-ne were mainted.