Propaganda's Doings Reach America Before Meetings Are Over Rome, Nov. 23.-When the cardinals omposing the congregation of the proaganda met today, they received a sharp reminder that they have at their head, in the person of the prefect of propaganda, Cardinal Gotti, a church-man of clearly defined and strong opinions. Those present at the meeting were Cardinals Agliardi, Vannutelli, Segna, Pierotto, Cassetti, Martinelli, Satolli, Mathies, Delli Volpe and Gotti. The cardinal prefect in his opening address dwelt most earnestly on the bad impression made of both the pon-tiff and himself by the receipt of remonstrances from apostolic delegations and from cardinals abroad against the publication of the decisions of the propaganda before they had been officially informed of these decisions and even before the decisions had been ratified by the pontiff. This matter had gone so far, said Cardinal Gotti, that the re-sults of the meeting of the propaganda would be known in the United States even before the meetings of the car-even before the meetings of the car-dinals had been actually concluded. Continuing, Cardinal Goti said that he had in the strongest manner called to the attention of all the clerks in at-tendance on the congregation of the propaganda that it was their duty to observe the most complete secrecy and he wished to recommend the same course not only to the secretaries, Man-agers Vaccia and Savelli but even to the members of the sacred college themselves, although he added, he did not suppose for a moment that any of them would condescend to lower his dignity by action contrary to the spirit of the law regulating the affairs of the propaganda. Egg Speculators Are Now Reaping a Very Rich Harvest.

Eggs continue to soar, metaphori-cally, and are stiff at 49 cents per dozen. There is at present no indication that they will lower until after Thanksgiving, if they do then, as the hens are still on a sympathetic strike, and seem likely to keep it up. Farmers and poul-try fanciers who take particular care of belowing the the strike strike and seem their chickens in the way of comforta-ble, spacious and clean quarters, and provide suitable food are reaping a harvest. So are owners of cold storage plants who laid away large stocks of hen fruit when the same was ranging at 15 conts, and are now bringing them out for sale at over double the price paid. Eastern fresh mackerel, red snappers, pom pano and small fry are the latest in the fish market. The prices
