

SATURDAY SERMONS.

(Written for the Deseret News by Elbert Hubbard.)

In order to be a somebody you must be willing to be a nobody.

There is a difference between joyous work and joyless toil—it is love that lightens labor.

An eye to see Nature, a heart to feel Nature, and the courage to follow Nature.

Complete success alienates man from his fellows, but suffering makes kind men of us all.

What others say of me, matters little, what I myself say and do, matters much.

Give me solitude, sweet Solitude; but in my Solitude give me still one friend to whom I may murmur, Solitude is sweet.

It is a greater disservice to be sick than to be in the penitentiary. If you are in the pen, it is a sign that you have broken some man-made statute, but if you are sick, it is a sign you have broken some God-made law.

We best redeem our past by forgetting it and losing ourselves in useful work.

If you have made mistakes in the past, reparation lies not in regrets, but in thankfulness that you now know better.

Your quarrel with the world is only a quarrel with yourself. Get in line with the plants.

The world has little use for the man who orders strawberries in January. He will let the other fellow pay for them.

The industrious man is light hearted—the man who works is the happy man.

The blunder of parents has been that they want their children to be clever rather than useful, and the educators have failed the fallacy—hence the incompetents.

Love, we say is life, but love without hope and faith is agonizing death.

No man regrets the flight of time excepting the one who fails to improve it.

What is a gentleman? I'll tell you. A gentleman is one who keeps his promises made to those who cannot enforce them.

Quit blaming people for your troubles—if you were big enough, you wouldn't have any.

Self-knowledge, self-respect and self-reliance are the trinity that will bring you truth.

Are you a cheerful loser? If so, you're bound to win out in the long run. Take your medicine.

Me congratulates themselves on their position, no matter what it is—the world is wrong, not they. The Pharisee thinks he is not like other men and the "other men" think they are not like the Pharisee.

Abscess.

W. H. Harrison, Cleveland, Miss., writes Aug. 15, 1902: "I want to say word of praise for Ballard's Snow Liniment. I stepped on a nail which caused the sore and leg contusion, and an abscess to rise in my knee, and a doctor told me that I would have a stiff leg so one day I went to J. P. Lord's drug store (who are now in Denver, Colo.) He recommended the Snow Liniment; I got a big size, and it cured my leg. It is the best liniment in the world.

ABCESSSES, with few exceptions, are fungous in constitution or debility. They may however come from a tick from foreign bodies introduced into the skin such as splinters, thorns, etc. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

SUMMER PHILOSOPHY.

One touch of sunburn makes the whole world skin.

The summer girl makes cowards of us all.

The proof of the plow is in the eating.

Surf bathing levels all ranks.

There's no fool like a summer fool.

Flitting is its own reward.

A hand in the hand is worth two in the glove.

A little summer girl is a dangerous thing.

Seaside communications corrupt good manners.

Alcohol makes the heart go yonder.

Foolish covers a multitude of sins.

Faith never won four ladies.

Money makes the time go.

Take care of the tents and the towns we will take care of themselves.

Two-hundreders are better than one.

A man is known by the secrets he keeps.

None men tell no tales.

In a multitude of summer girls there.

It's a long head that has no turning.

It's a long breeze that blows nobody home.—Puck.

WHY HE COULD NOT SPARE HIM.

The late Rev. Elijah Kellogg, it is said, was once fiercely opposed during the time he was a leader in all opposition to religion, and took much satisfaction in discovering inconsistencies in the lives of church members, and in publishing them through the neighborhood.

For some reason he decided to remove to another part of the state. Meeting the pastor one day, he said: "Well, I suppose you know I am going to leave the town, and I suppose you will be glad of it."

"What of it?" Why no," replied the pastor. "I shall be very sorry to lose you. You are so useful to me in my work here. I hardly know how I can manage."

The man was much taken back, and asked, "How is that?"

"Why," explained the pastor, "every time a sheep goes to its fold out of the fold you bring him back out of the town to the other. You are the most useful watching that I ever knew."—Boston Herald.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Gen. A. Sherman, Lisbon Red Mills, Lawrence Co., N. Y., writes: "I had kidney disease for many years and had been treated by physicians for twelve years, and other remedies that were recommended. But I had no relief until I began using Foley's Kidney Cure. The first salve I received me and four bottles have cured me of this terrible disease. Before I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure I had to make water at least fifteen minutes a day and night, and sometimes a slimy substance. Believe I would have died if I had not taken Foley's Kidney Cure."
