LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

CORRESPONDENTS writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must in every instance accompany their communications, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

SABBATH MEETING.—In the morning Elders C. W. Penrose and Joseph S. Horne, returned missionaries, gave an account of their missionary labors in Europe.

In the afternoon, Elder Franklin D. Richards, just returned from presiding over the European mission, gave a short account of this year's emigration proceedings, the labors of the Elders, and the state of feeling among the people generally in Great Britain with regard to "Mormonism."

He was followed by President Young who spoke a short time. He invited all to come to Conference, saying that during its progress the necessity of the Latter-day Saints sustaining each other and the kingdom of God, only, would be discussed.

THEATRICAL.—On Saturday night "The Car of the Future" gave much satisfaction, the characters being well eliminated and the performance being very true to nature. The performance in the farce gave much satisfaction. Mr. Lindsay's O'Callaghan being a superior characterization. This evening the great sensation drama, "Under the Gaslight" will be revived, to give our friends in the city an opportunity to see it. Many of our citizens who have witnessed its presentation before will desire to see it again; and will take advantage of this, its solitary representation, to admire its beauties. We expect a crowded house.

FROM COALVILLE.—We are indebted to Wm. Henry Walter for a communication from Coalville, dated 29th ult., from which we learn the following items. The general health is good, some wheat and considerable potatoes have been raised on the Weber. Most of the Coalville men are at work on the railroad. There is considerable travel that way at present much more than usual. A number of the citizens have formed a co-operative society, like wise men, and are doing a good business; they are selling goods cheap. The Wasatch Mining Company are sinking a new shaft, and their steam engine is in working order; they will be able to load in the coal business.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Saturday afternoon a gentleman and lady from Kaysville, whose names we did not learn, were in a wagon near the southern end of East Temple St., when they were pitched from the wagon in consequence of the team starting. The old gentleman was bruised in the face and put in place; and the old lady suffered from a severe cut in the scalp, ranging from the forehead backwards a distance of eight inches.

IN TOWN AGAIN.—Our well known young friend and much esteemed contributor, "Saxey," is in town again. If this fact had been announced by or unchronicled for, the green-grocer fraternity, they could not have failed to discover it to-day, as he sat down in front of the store where one of the "kins" sold forth, and sold an old newspaper for less than a cent. Saxey, with his usual generosity lifted a melon, and handed it to the old gent; and, requested him to cut it, a solicitation which was promptly complied with; the receiver not thinking till half a minute too late that the melon had an owner and required to be paid for. Finally the owner of the melon on a streak for the active principal and Saxey enjoying a melon neither stolen, given, bought nor sold. Somebody was sold, though.

POLICE.—Patrick Quinn and Geo. Hobb were arrested for drunkenness and disturbing the peace, on Saturday night; and were this morning fined in $10 each for their enjoyment.

REMOVAL.—The banking house of Hussey, Dahler, & Co., is being removed from its old location in Bank Buildings to what was formerly the Miners' National Bank building, where changes and alterations have been made which convert a bold and bare outline into an artistically and tastefully finished office.

SUGGESTIVE.—Considering that there is little if any trading done during Conference while meetings are in, and that all who tend store and have any interest in common with the community desire to attend them, we suggest that the stores be closed during the meetings of Conference, and hope the suggestion will be favorably met by our merchants.

DIED.—At Salt Lake City, September 15, 1903, Emma Henrietta Wade, of teething, aged months and 32 days. Mill Star, please copy.

DANGEROUS.—A span of horses fastened to one end of the running gears of a wagon took fright near the Theatre to-day, and performed some very desperate circular maneuvers, winding up their dangerous sport by running down Gilbert's alley-way into the corral, where they were brought up standing, to the injury of several small straps belonging to the harness. As the city will now be crowded for a few days with all kinds of teams, it might be well to see accidents if persons would see their teams properly taken care of, and fastened, instead of leaving them alone, depending on their former good behavior. It is said a little preventative is much more valuable than cure.

POULTRIC.—We understand that John C. Orem, of pugilistic fame, is in town. He claims to be the champion of the Montana middle weights and of the Western heavy weights. He is here to challenge James Dwyer to fight, according to the new rules of the London prize ring, for any sum which Mr. Dwyer may feel disposed to stake on the loser, and as a guarantee he has deposited $50 in the Miners National Bank. Mr. Orem thinks the last encounter between them was unsatisfactory on all sides, and wishes to test manhood, science and ability in a way that will leave no room for doubt.

SEVERE.—Now is the very worst time in the season for persons who have little outstanding unsettled accounts. Our local says there is not a man in the Territory he is owing, but what he accidentally ran against to-day; and on the other hand has not met a single individual who was owing him.

LARGE RED.—Bro. J. B. Kelly brought in to-day a specimen of the "Large Red" apple which weighed seventeen ounces. Considering that the grasshoppers have almost ruined the quality and size of our fruit in this city, this is not bad.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Mrs. Dorcas Peterson, of Hyrum, Cache Co., who is daughter of Margaret Dorthen Jacobsen, wishes to learn the whereabouts of Mars Jacobsen, son of Peter Nielsen Jacobsen, born in Anglen, Schleswig Holsten. He emigrated to America many years ago.

Died: In this city, Sept. 21st, of dysentery, William Thorpe, son of Wm. and Rose Shires, aged 1 year and 2 days.

In St. Thomas, A. T., July 29th, of whooping cough, Joseph August, son of Frederick and Frederica Christensen, aged 10 months and 9 days.—Standard-Sjæerne please copy.
