

QUEBEC'S HISTORIC PAST REPRODUCED

Spectacle Ushered in Three Hundredth Anniversary of Founding of City by Champlain

EXCHANGE OF FELICITATIONS

Between Vice President Fairbanks and The Prince of Wales—Latter Visits American Warship.

Quebec, July 23.—The Prince of Wales was the central figure today in the morning spectacle reproducing Quebec's historic past and ushering in the three-hundredth anniversary of the founding of the city by Champlain. Aside from the spectacular features of the event, it was the occasion of a notable exchange of addresses between Vice President Fairbanks and the Prince of Wales, in which each spoke of the existing relations between the United States and Great Britain, and the prince delivered a message of good will to the American government.

An enormous crowd filled the Place d'Armes, fronting the Champlain monument, where the exercises were held. Here the prince received the addresses of the American and French representatives, the mayor of Quebec, and, finally, Champlain himself, reproduced as in the days of old, coming from the mimic reproduction of his original ship, the Don de Dieu, with some 5,000 followers, represented every phase of old France included. It was a splendid spectacle, carried out under bright skies, with a setting of this picturesque old city and its harbor, filled with a fleet of warships. Tonight the city and harbor are a blaze of light. The warships, with their electric lights, marking every line of hull and rigging, while the parliament and many other buildings are similarly outlined with a myriad of lights. From the citadel the prince is looking across the St. Lawrence at a gigantic display of fireworks on the heights of Lewis, showing in fiery outlines portraits of King Edward, the falls of Montmorency, and the battles of Wolfe and Montcalm.

FAIRBANKS' ADDRESS.
In addressing the prince during the exercises, Vice President Fairbanks said:

"Your Royal Highness: I acknowledge with grateful appreciation the welcome which you so generously extend. The sentiments which you are pleased to express with regard to my country I receive with profound satisfaction. They are renewed evidence of that respect and cordiality which have so long existed between the United States and Great Britain and will tend to strengthen and preserve the amicable relations between the two nations."

"Permit me to extend to Quebec my hearty congratulations upon the distinction which you enjoy in the presence of your royal highness and upon the enthusiasm with which she has welcomed you within her gates. It is, indeed, a signal honor which you have done her. It is a happy circumstance which brings you across the sea. The event is one which will be long treasured among the annals of Quebec."

"The eyes of the western world are upon this historic city. The celebration of the tercentenary of Champlain's founding of Quebec is altogether admirable, both in the comprehensive nature of its conception and in the execution of its execution. It is an event which awakens interest not only in the Dominion of Canada but in the United States also. From this point as a base, intrepid explorers blazed the pathway of civilization through trackless forests and explored lakes and rivers in territory which is now within the jurisdiction of the United States. Names associated with the early history of Quebec are landmarks in our geography and are indelibly impressed upon our civilization."

"Three hundred years is but a brief period in the history of England or France, but it is all history of Quebec, and all of Anglo-Saxon America. Here has been written an interesting story. Here have been the triumphs and the defeats of war and the triumphs of peace. The battleships of three great nations rest yonder upon the bosom of the St. Lawrence. The representatives of these powers assembled here are recalling past differences but only to emphasize the present prevalence of a spirit of genuine friendship."

"It is with unusual pleasure I bring you greetings from the president and the people of the United States who rejoice with you in the progress you have made in the manifold ways which make for the strength and honor of a great people. We are not indifferent to our. The blood of a common ancestor flows in our veins. We have much in common. We glory in many of the same traditions and we have the same jurisprudence. SUFFERED WITH ITCHING RASH

On Hands and Arms in Blisters as Large as Hazelnuts—Face Became Badly Swollen and Could Not Work—Grew Worse But Was

SOON CURED BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Last summer I was troubled with an itching rash on my hands; some people called it poison ivy. I guess I must have scratched it during the night for it got worse. The hands and forearms got all full of little blisters as large as hazelnuts. I went to a doctor. He gave me a salve and talcum powder and told me to take a needle and open the blisters, but instead of getting better it all got worse. Then he gave me some medicine and my hands and face got all swollen. I could not work any more. After lingering around for weeks, I tried the Cuticura Remedies. I bought a set of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent Pills, and in one week I saw that I was no longer so bad. I kept on using Cuticura and the trouble continued to grow better. In five weeks it was entirely cured. I had suffered for weeks before I tried the Cuticura Remedies and I can recommend them as the best for all skin diseases. I use the Cuticura Resolvent Pills now and then as the blood purifier. Matthew Ganter, 21 Fayette St., Brooklyn, N. Y., Apr. 8 and 13, '08."

died before the prince was a remarkable assemblage of groups, representing various periods, including Jacques Cartier and his crew, King Francis I and his court, King Henry IV and the court of France, Champlain and the crew of the Don de Dieu, the discoverers, La Salle, Joliette, Marquette, the armies of Montcalm and Wolfe and many other historical characters. At 11 o'clock the Prince of Wales went aboard the United States battleship New Hampshire. As his launch, flying the royal standard, approached the battleship, the latter fired the royal salute of 21 guns. The bluejackets and marines ranged along the decks and tops, and rousing cheers were given as the prince stepped aboard. He was received on the after-deck by Admiral Cowles and Capt. Winslow, who introduced the prince to the American officers and escorted him about the ship. As a naval officer and expert, he showed great interest in the details of the New Hampshire, examining the big 12-inch guns and the secondary battery of eight and six inch guns circling the lower deck. The prince complimented the American officers on the handsome appearance of the ship, the perfection of her equipment and the trim bearing of the crew and personnel. He spent half an hour aboard the battleship and departed amid another roar of the ship's guns.

T. E. WATSON OPENS POPULIST CAMPAIGN

MACON, Ga., July 23.—Thomas E. Watson, Populist candidate for president, opened his campaign here tonight in a speech of one hour to an audience that taxed the capacity of the Grand Opera house. He asked for criticism, but he said, and that if necessary he would give them to Bryan to defeat Taft. His attacks were mild to the point of being complimentary to Bryan, however, and his praise for Roosevelt and Taft. His charge against Bryan of refusing to vote for Critter for speaker in the democracy caucus because of his being a confederate was heard in silence, but his attack on the Nebraska for its attitude in giving the negroes comfort in the Brownsville matter was repeatedly applauded.

DEATH OF MARY ROBB REMAINS A MYSTERY

Blackfoot, Idaho, July 23.—Nearly the whole day was consumed with cross-examination of Nettle Sayer in the attempt to unravel the mystery surrounding the death of Mary Robb. Attempts were made to connect Dr. Anderson of Idaho Falls with the criminal operation for abortion, but no connection could be made throwing suspicion upon his alleged disappearance since her death is about all there is against him.

Alma Hogan of Louisville, a sweetheart of the dead girl, gave her $25 the day she started for Blackfoot, but nobody attempts to show any criminal intention on his part.

Grace Cherry, a Blackfoot telephone operator who is at Boise on vacation, was subpoenaed to bring into court a letter which she had received from Mrs. J. K. K. Cherry, who refused to come, but later telephoned that she would come to escape punishment.

At 4:30 p. m. Elizabeth Robb, sister of Mary Robb, was sworn and testified to the death of her sister at the home of Mrs. J. K. K. Cherry.

She has Mary's dying declaration, but has not been permitted to give the sentence showing that she was responsible for her death. So far as given it is "Feel of my heart. Do you think I am dying? Do you know the whole truth about my trouble? My Helen I am going to tell you. There are coming for me. Sister, promise me that you will never taste of beer, no matter who offers it. Promise me. I want to tell you who is to blame for my death. It is—"

The state objected, and the defense insisted that she tell it all. A spirited legal battle followed, which will be concluded in the morning.

POOR THING!

Stenographer Sues for Heavy Damages

Because Chair Was Too High.
RENO, Nev., July 23.—Miss Katherine Collins of this city is suing the Nat. C. Goodwin Brokerage company for damages amounting to $5,125 for not providing her with the proper kind of chair. She was employed by the brokerage company and worked from Feb. 22 to March 22, and during that time used a chair much too high.

On account of her feet not touching the floor, she claims, serious spinal trouble was superinduced so that she had to have two operations performed. For the damage to her health, expense of hospital treatment, etc., she claims the above amount.

Salthair is the most popular resort for today's outing.

KILLED BY POLICEMAN.

DENVER, July 23.—Policeman Frank Campbell today shot and killed a man who ran away after being arrested and who was held by F. L. Everett as one of two highwaymen who robbed him last night. Entries in a diary found on the dead man showed that he left Portland, N. H., March 15, 1896, and was arrested in case of accident that Mrs. William McKelvey, 12 Langdon street, Portland, Me., notified.

Worked at Wolhurst, Thomas F. Walsh's country place in Denver, and was a party during the Democratic national convention and had some entries in his diary relating to some of the guests.

NO PEACE FOR STANDARD OIL CO.

President Announces Determination of Government to Proceed Against It.

BELIEVES IN MERITS OF CASE

Attorney General is Directed Immediately to Take Steps for a Retrial of It.

Oyster Bay, July 23.—President Roosevelt tonight announced in unmistakable terms the determination of the administration to proceed with the prosecution of the Standard Oil case, despite the decision adverse to the government handed down by the United States circuit court of appeals yesterday. This decision, the president thinks, in no way affects the merits of the case, and he makes known his decision to cause the action to be brought again before the courts in such shape, if possible, as to prevent technicalities interfering with a decision based upon the actual issues involved. The statement in the matter made public tonight by Secy. Leach follows:

"The president has directed the attorney-general to immediately take steps for retrial of the Standard Oil case. The reversal of the decision of the lower court does not in any shape or way touch the merits of the case, except insofar as the size of the fine is concerned. There is absolutely no question of the guilt of the defendants or of the exceptionally grave character of the offense. The president would regard it as a gross miscarriage of justice if, through any technicalities of any kind, the defendant escaped the punishment which would have unquestionably been meted out to any weaker defendant who had been guilty of such offense. The president will do everything in his power to avert or prevent such miscarriages of justice. With this purpose in view, the president has directed the attorney-general to bring into consultation Frank B. Kellogg in the matter and do everything possible to bring the offenders to justice."

KILLED GIRL AND HIMSELF.

Pendleton, Or., July 23.—Elsie Kenison, an 18-year-old girl residing at Echo, was shot in the mouth and killed at her home today by her sweetheart, B. E. Stoeffler, who afterwards committed suicide. There was no witnesses to the tragedy, but an 8-year-old girl playing in the yard rushed into the house when she heard the shots and gave the alarm. Stoeffler ran from the place, pursued into the hills by a posse. He finally doubled back to the scene of the killing and hanged himself.

STANLEY WAS A WAIF.

It is not generally known that Stanley, the famous actor, was a waif. The fact that his original name was not Stanley at all, says the Delinquent. The little boy's "real name" was John Rowlands. He was born in Newburgh, N. Y., in 1840. When he was three years old he was put in the poorhouse at St. Asaph. It was ten years later that he sailed away to America as a cabin boy. In New Orleans a merchant by the name of Henry Morton Stanley adopted him and the little boy was given his name. The "John Rowlands" was discarded from that day and it was Henry M. Stanley, Jr., who served in the United States navy, won fame as a war correspondent in Turkey and with the
