

UTAH COAL MINE SITUATION TODAY.

Ninety-Eight Miners Are at work At Sunnyside, Making Increase of Fifteen.

THIRTY MORE ARMED GUARDS.

Additional Men Sent Down to Various Camps—Gov. Wells Does Some Investigating of Conditions.

(Special to the "News.")
Sunnyside, Utah, Nov. 19.— Ninety-eight miners at work today. Increase from Wednesday, 15. All quiet.

A gentleman who was at Sunnyside yesterday reports the situation there as improving. He says: An Italian named Demoli came there as an organizer of the United Mine Workers of America; and it was rumored that a large number of men and boys joined it. At present the strikers are peaceable, but the men on guard are alive to their duty.

MONEY FOR STRIKERS.

The strike leaders there assured the miners of Sunnyside, that $10,000 was sent them from Colorado to help fight the battle. But a hour or two yet, and the chances are against its ever coming. A committee has been appointed to visit strikers, to find out what they need in the line of food, and it will be shipped from Colorado to them.

EARNED OVER $100.

Monday, the 16th, was pay day. The men on strike were offered what was due for November, as well as October.
Some refused to take it, but a large number of them accepted it. It was nearly midnight when the last one was paid. Several of the miners earned over $100 in the month of October, but are now on strike.

NO CENSORSHIP.

The Salt Lake Tribune which came last Monday contained a statement that the Utah Fuel company had exercised a censorship over correspondence and telegrams and that many of the employees dare say anything for fear of being discharged. The man who wrote it is either very ignorant or a willful prevaricator.

The coke ovens are still working and shipping coke.

NON-UNION MEN WHO ARE WILLING TO MAKE GOOD WAGES AT SUNNYSIDE.

Gov. Wells is after the facts, and has sent the following communication to Sheriff Wilcox at Sunnyside: State of Utah, Executive Office, Salt Lake City, Nov. 17, 1903.

My Dear Sheriff:—Complaint has been lodged in this office to the effect that an outrage has been committed on the county road between Sunnyside and Price, in that said road had been chosen by the striking coal miners at Sunnyside to give certain other men who are called "organizers" a reception and were proceeding with a conveyance down said county road when at a point about 10 miles from Sunnyside they were met by armed men (supposed to be in the employ of the Utah Fuel company) and stopped at the point of view that one of the men was ordered from the wagon and made to state their destination and business; that they were there and then maltreated and ordered to enter the wagon and compelled to return to Sunnyside, thereby being deprived of their right to proceed on their business; and that two other citizens called "organizers" were denied the right of the county road and compelled to return to Price.

Other information in my possession is to the effect that the so-called strikers at Sunnyside have armed themselves and are seeking by threat and intimadation to prevent non-striking coal miners from peacefully pursuing their way and that firearms are being discharged and unlawful disturbances of the peace are common. I should be pleased to have you investigate these alleged occurrences and report to me at once the facts in the case and also whether or not the law is being violated.
It is sufficient to cope with the alleged lawlessness and protect life and property and maintain law and order.
Very respectfully,
HERBERT M. WELLS,
Governor.

ADDITIONAL ARMED GUARDS.

The 25 guards recently sent down to Sunnyside, do not seem to be enough, as walking delegates are being sent over from Colorado in bunches to try and get the Utah Fuel company's miners to quit work below the town. An afternoon parade was indulged in, and secret service men in the employ of the Utah Fuel company, rustled up 33 more men yesterday afternoon, who knew how to handle a Winchester, and with the promise of $5 per day, were sent down to the mines to act as pickets and skirmishers. A squad will drop off at Castle Gate for duty there, and if there is any trouble in either camp, the force now in service will be on the spot to take a hand in the game.

AT CASTLE GATE.

Word from Castle Gate states that the Colorado agitators who have been at work on the miners there have met with poor success. A meeting was called for yesterday morning, but not over 50 attended, and of these were boys and persons not miners. There were not over five English speaking people in the whole outfit. The agitators have their camp a mile below the town. An afternoon parade was indulged in, and that was about as successful as the first attempt. Of the men in line, none had families. The English speaking operatives are against any strike, and are satisfied with their jobs. Agitator Con Kellher has gone east, leaving an Italian to do his work as far as possible. There are several cases of disorder, but the county attorney is attending to the disturbers of the peace.

(Special to the "News.")

Castle Gate, Utah, Nov. 19.—The strikers of this camp made a parade at 1:30 o'clock this morning, there being about 125 in line. They marched through the town with a band and the American flag at their head. Counting out those who were paid off, along the line of march the boys attracted by the noise the crowds consisted of not more than 150 who were actual employees of the company. There are now in the camp 457 employees. The mines are working today as usual and up to 11 o'clock this morning there were 15 trips out, indicating that the output for today will be up to the average. The strikers have now are under the leadership of the Italian Demoli, and Schilling's Best tea and coffee are not extremes; good enough; as good as you care to pay for probably.

are all foreigners, there being no English speaking miners in line. Meetings are being held in the lower end of the town and it is likely another parade will be made this afternoon.

It is believed that the strikers have reached their full force in numbers and that the parade of this afternoon will be no larger, if as great, as this morning. Additional guards were put on this morning by the company to look after its property in the camp.

Everything is orderly, there will be no disturbance of any kind. Priest, Geo. W. Kramer and General Manager Williams, now in Salt Lake, will leave there at 1 o'clock for this place.

MYSTERY LIES BEHIND A TRAGEDY

The Rev. Lepore-Sorice Shooting In Denver May Have Been Result of an Old Quarrel.

PRIEST'S DYING STATEMENT.

Says He Believes His Assailant Was Sent to Denver for Purpose Of Killing Him.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 19.—Rev. Father Felix Mariano Lepore, pastor of Mount Carmel Catholic church in this city, and Joseph Sorice, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who shot each other after a game of cards in the priest's apartments at the rear of the church last night, are both reported to be in a dying condition this morning.

In an ante-mortem statement made to Judge Salsbery of the district attorney's office, Father Lepore said that he believed his assailant had been sent out to Denver for the purpose of killing him. Since his first conversation with Sorice when he came to this city about a month ago, Father Lepore said he had feared the man and had thought that his life was in danger. Sorice refused to say a word either to the district attorney's representative or to the detectives.

Before coming to Denver in 1892, Father Lepore conducted a banking business in New York where, it is said, he failed for a considerable amount. Among the creditors, it is said, was Giuseppe Pasquel, a partner of Joseph Sorice who came to Denver with the latter about a month and a half ago.

Frank Lepore, a nephew of the priest, said that Pasquel had made a demand on Father Lepore a few days ago for $240 which he claimed the priest owed him. Young Lepore advised his uncle to give the man the money but he did not do so. However, he provided a house and employment for both men.
Frank Lepore said that his uncle and Joseph Sorice and Pasquel in Italy.
Efforts are being made to find Pasquel.
It is believed that behind the tragedy lies a mystery extending back to old times in Italy, which, it is feared, will never be solved because of the secretive nature of the Italians.

TOM HORN MAKES A CONFESSION.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 19.—A special to the Times from Cheyenne, Wyo., says that Tom Horn confessed to Rev. Ira D. Williams that he is guilty of the murder of Willie Nickell, the crime for which he was condemned to be hanged tomorrow.

LATE LOCALS.

TOUGH GANG IS BROKEN UP.

Ogden Officers Trace Recent Reign Of Terror to Its Proper Source.

LOCAL MAN HAD HAND IN IT.

Series of Holdups, Burglaries, etc., Now Fully Accounted For—An Interesting Story.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, Utah, Nov. 19.—Through efficient work on the part of the sheriff's office, the police department and Special Officer Sullivan of the Southern Pacific, the reign of terror which has existed in Ogden for the past six months or more, has been traced to its proper source and a number of the parties responsible are now in durance vile with the same fate awaiting several others, at present in custody.

On Oct. 17 the Turf Exchange saloon on Twenty-fourth street was held up by three men, those implicated in the affair being R. T. Hickey, a.k.a. "Dad," and the irrepressible John Doe and Richard Roe. Hickey was arrested in Salt Lake on Monday last on information furnished the police there by Sheriff Bailey, Chief of Police Browning and Officer Sullivan. He was brought to Ogden Tuesday by Sheriff Bailey and is now in the county jail awaiting a hearing on the charge of robbery. The other two are still at large, and are at present supposed to be in the vicinity of Denver. The officers also have information as to where the guns were cached shortly after the robbery, and where the men went and slept. They also know that at least one of the guns and possibly two of them were given to one John Monroe by George H. Wells, proprietor of the Oak saloon in this city. Monroe turning over the guns to Hickey. This information has led to the arrest of Monroe, Wells and a man named James Baine, all of them for being implicated in the holdup. Baine to the extent of furnishing a coat and hat to one of the culprits. The men were charged with having a full knowledge of the affair and with waiting in the O K saloon until the return of the robbers after the holdup. Monroe is said to be the man who went to the wine room door of the O K while the three robbers were within counting the spoils.
He it was also who gave them the tip that "the dick" was making the rounds. The three men, Hickey, Roe, and Baine, were present, while Wells told the latter that the men in the wine room were parties who had been playing cards there all day.

THE ZANG HOLDUP.

On the night of Oct. 20 the Zang saloon on Grant avenue was held up by four men, these men being R. T.
Hickey, John Halling, Richard Poe and John Doe. The two former are now under arrest. Halling having been caught the night of the holdup in a room of the Ogden house, whether robbers had fled after turning the trick referred to. The others jumped out of a second-story window and made their escape. Hickey, in jumping, fell on his back, severely injuring himself, and under a physician's care when arrested in Salt Lake. He is also supposed to have been connected with the burglary of Jon's store at Kelton, and to have been mixed up in the attempt to rob the postoffice at the same place.

SOME IN STATE PRISON.

The five men, Kennedy, Williams, Burke, Sullivan and Campbell, who are now serving time in the state prison for similar depredations, are also members of the same gang, and the four recently caught are being held in the first degree at Winnetka—Fred Reed, John F. Sevier, Al Linderman and I. T.
Gorman—are also confederates in crime, along with a score of others who have fled after the party responsible for the holdups, robberies and burglaries which have occurred in this section within the past year or so. Gorman, who was arrested in Salt Lake, charged with having held up the Port-anton saloon in that city, is also one of the same crowd. Among them are men known to have served terms in the Kansas and Oregon state prisons.

WELLS' CAREER.

George H. Wells, one of the men now under arrest here, came to Ogden three years ago from Cheyenne, Wyo., where he ran till last April, when he sold it and started the O K saloon.
This place has been a rendezvous for holdups and other lawless characters ever since it was opened, and it is understood that there was an arrangement between Wells and the holdups that they could make his place their headquarters, provided they would spend their ill-gotten gains there. He also stood in readiness to prove an alibi for them in case of their apprehension.

Wells was arraigned before Judge Holling today and placed under $5,000 bonds. The others' bonds were fixed at $1,000 each. Halling was given his preliminary hearing and was bound over to the district court in the sum named.

SERIOUS RUNAWAY.

A serious runaway occurred here at 9:30 this morning when the horse attached to T. D. Evans' delivery wagon ran away on Washington avenue and dashed into the sidewalk, striking Fred Piggott, a barber, and knocking him down and dragging him a distance of 20 feet. The gentleman was quite badly bruised and will be laid up for some time as a result. The rig then dashed into a buggy belonging to Mr. Beus demolishing it and breaking the wheels from the delivery wagon.

WEATHER OUTLOOK.

The meteorological prospects continue uncertain, although, as was predicted yesterday, today is "fair and warmer." An increased temperature is promised for tonight, so people will not sleep so cold, and rain or a wet snow is looked for tomorrow. The cold continues more intense than ever up north, and at Hayden, Mont., it was 30 degrees below zero last night. At Modena, it was 14 degrees above zero, at Pocatello 16, and in this city 21 degrees above. There is a general low range of the mercury over today, in the south as well as in the north, the record in central New Mexico being 8 above, and in western Texas it was 24.

EIGHT THOUSAND FOR HIS EYESIGHT

Dennis Murphy is Awarded This Sum in His Suit Against The Annie Laurie.

WAS BLINDED BY AN EXPLOSION

Case of Martha Snipes vs The Southern Pacific Dismissed by Consent In The Federal Court.

Dennis Murphy, who some time ago filed a suit against the Annie Laurie Mining Co. for damages, having had his eyes blown out in an explosion in the company's mine on Gold Mountain, was this morning awarded judgment for $8,000 in the federal court.

PLAINTIFFS NON-SUITED.

Defendants' Motion Sustained in Case of O. D. McGuire vs Hegney and Foulks.

Judge Stewart has sustained defendants' motion for a non-suit in the case of O. D. McGuire against James Hegney and John R. Foulks, the trial of which was held before Judge Stewart in his court on Tuesday. The action was brought to recover $10,000 damages for false imprisonment. It appears that in 1901 plaintiff boarded at the Albany hotel, which is owned by Hegney and Foulks, and had plaintiff apprehended that he owed a board bill of $35. He undertook to go back east to bring his wife out here, but Hegney swore out a complaint against him in Justice Kroeger's court and had plaintiff arrested and remained in custody until the sheriff arrived from Salt Lake to bring him back.
After being brought back here and remaining in jail for a day and a night the case against him was dismissed and he was released. This action was then brought to recover damages in the above sum and also $47 for the loss of work and the loss of his railroad ticket. After the testimony was introduced in behalf of plaintiff, the attorneys for defendants moved for a non-suit which was granted.

Dayton Sequires Divorce.

Judge Hall this morning granted William C. Dayton a divorce from Josephphine Dayton on the ground of desertion. They were married at Cedar Port, Utah, on Dec. 16, 1880, and have three children. Plaintiff is awarded the custody of Elliot V. Dayton, who is now an inmate of the state mental hospital, and the other two children were awarded to the defendant.

Suit for Divorce.

Nellie Hows has filed suit for divorce in the district court against Lehi Hows on the grounds of non-support and habitual drunkenness. They were married in this city on June 6, 1891, and have four children of whom plaintiff asks the custody.

WORLD'S LARGEST CORN GROWER

In his article on "The Corn Growers" in the November World's Work, Prof. T. N.
Carver of Harvard university describes the corn operations of David Rankin of Tarkio, Mo., the largest corn grower in the world. Mr. Rankin operates 14 ranches, with a total acreage of more than 25,000 acres. The following is a summary of his farming operations for the year 1901:

Number of cattle fed	6,003
Number of hogs fed	1,000
Net proceeds per head for hogs	$10,000.00
Number of hogs fed	1,000
Expense per acre for corn	$11.43
Expense per acre for other crops	1.50
Expense per acre for labor, material, etc., not including interest on the value of the land, horse-drawn and tools	5.19
Corn bought (in addition to what was raised on his 14 ranches, 220,328 bushels)

ELKS' PARADE A WEIRD AFFAIR.

Distinguished Citizens Made Merry While the Plebians Lined The Route and Howled.

HORSES WERE PANIC STRICKEN.

Ben Her and Ben Him in Great Chariot Scene—Freaks and Calliope Strike Terror.

The circus parade of the Elks this noon was the most "picturesque" street pageant the town has seen since the Liberal-People's Party campaign in the winter of 1890 and 1891. It was picturesque linked sweetness long drawn out, bunched up and then drawn out again, rolled up and spread out over the face of nature as only the Elks know how to work the game. The portals yawned and the procession proceeded from the Elks' headquarters promptly at high noon, through the principal streets of the city, before the admiring glances of the curious multitude which lined up on the sidewalks and in the streets to witness the imposing array to the annoyance and delay of numerous streetcar motemen. There was enough noise in the show to win the unmeasured approbation of all the college men in town, and the racket at times threatened the several and collective eardrums of timid citizens.

Ben Heywood as Buffalo Bill, valiantly led the way, wearing a determined look although out of deference to the weather he was dressed in a suit and wornly attire. H. G. Sheridan, in a picturesque extravaganza of "The finest in the world," marshaled the parade from time to time, and at other times, in his usual off-hand and happy fashion, "Big Bill" Devery in all his glory was not arrayed into the likes of him.
The mayor that is, and the mayor that is to be, rode in the front of the turnout, accompanied by "Our Jim" Leary tucked out in all the glories of a stove pipe hat, a waxed moustache and a pleasant smile. A new overcoat, "bought expressly for the occasion," concealed his length of limb from admiring throngs. The trio were "warmly welcomed." A detail of mounted artillerymen who had escaped from the fort, with the knowledge and consent of the commanding officer, for this express occasion, headed the cavalcade, backed by the might of Heid's band, and the boys looked very well. By special request they were not to run into the guard house on their return to the fort. A touching feature of the extravaganza was the giraffe, whose head just escaped touching the trolley wires, and therefore avoided a shock.
Dana T. Smith and E. C. Coffin were incarnated into this beast, and they worked the racket to perfection. Several old ladies in the crowds of spectators were touched by the pathetic appearance of the giraffe, and really believed it had been imported from some genuine circus-menagerie. Ben-Her and Ben-Him, who were historically, and hysterically represented by Parley Patrick Christensen, and B. F. Redmond in their classic chariots, terrible to the sight and imagination. The crowd gave them a great hooray, and these noble characters smiled affably and benignly upon the Ho! Polloi. Colonel Van Blarcom of the Herald officiated as the old lady in a one-horse show. The "mammoth" was the wreck of a milk route, and when in front of the Herald office, thought it recognized an old-time customer in the manager as he stood amiably in front, and made a wild dash across the street. Fred Wood, as the Old Farmer, gallantly recited the agricultural lode, and the old lady in the one-horse show, with the smile that has made him famous over two continents, steered the ancient outfit back into its place in the parade.

The champion woman shot of the world and the planet Jupiter, Miss Annie Oakley, was duly and fearfully personified in A. A. Hedburg, who shot off his gun and great applause here and there, as his foot floated on the imposing pageant. The hearts of numerous impressive swain in the crowds were much affected by the young woman's noble bearing and courage amid all this fringe. "Fiji Jim" alias "the wild man from Bora-neo" was most effectively personated in the ever charming personality of Ben Loane. He was in a cage to prevent his belt loose. Billy Barnett and Tom D. PRT represented the Circussian beauty and the most adorable fat lady so charmingly that several local swells were with difficulty prevented from storming the outer works, and carrying off these demitasse body, boots and baggage. George Ames was the spirituelle Man Entering Zulu, Fred C. Derr the Harking question of the Snakes, W. L. Haskel tumbled all over himself and the spectators as the clown, and the cavalcade of scap hunting Indians and the knights of the tenth century were, like Caesar's wife, above suspicion. But the gem combination was Pat Moran and the road roller with a most demonic chord of steam whistles, and the boys. Blood curdling in the superlative degree, fairly gouging out a man's soul and creating incipient runaways on route.

The burlesque circus holds the boards at the Salt Lake theater tonight and tomorrow night.

THE PLEASURES OF IMAGINATION

"It is not so much what a thing is as what we think it is that influences us." I imagine, earnestly, for I believed in looking on the bright side of things.
"True," replied the unsentimentalist.
"Nothing adds so much to the bouquet of the wine as the right label on the bottle."—Judge.

AN OLD ONE.

Clubb—When I explained to her that I had been detained at the office until midnight, she declared it was a barefaced lie.

Newitt—How ridiculous of her to say that. Why, that he had whiskers years ago.—Philadelphia Press.
