But the Amalgamated Promoters Seem to be In Need of A Match.

AS TO A FIGHT THIS MONTH.

At Present the Outlook is Not Favorable for a Contest Until About The Middle of March.

man Francisco, the fight center of America, the place where the "fight trust" holds sway, is now in a bad way because there seems to be nothing doing this month.

Although February is a short month and is already under way, nothing has and is already under way, norming has yet been given out regarding the match to be staged by the fight trust. Promoter Coffroth, whose date it is, has been out of town for several days, and will not be back antil tomorrow. His liteutenants, together with those asso-clated with him in the big combination professible in the big combination.

Man, says hadro or many. Determined Britt." "This is not my month." says Willus. "See the big fellow, Coffroth." As "the big fellow, Coffroth." has been rusticating in the country for several days, a layman stands what might be called a "fat chance" of getting any information. One thing is certain. That is that Jimmy Britt will not be one end of the attraction. The redoubtable James Edward decided finally in the middle of the week that he would not fight for anybody during the month of valenanybody during the month of valen-tines. The strenuous session which he times. The strendous session which he held on the road (together with the physical and mental energy which he expended while trying to console "Phil-adelphia Jack" O'Brien for the shifty one's turn-down at New York's fash-fenable hostelries have left James very much in need of a vacation. So graspo imable hosteliies have left James very much in need of a vacation. So, grasp-ing opportunity by the tuft of hair which surrounds the bald spot, the pride of the Britts has hied himself away to the country. Jimmy did not get too far away, however, to hurl back a stinging re-buke to the aspirations of little Eddle Hanlen. According to James Edward bits Eddle would not be more than

"All I would need to beat Hanlon," said James, talking right over the top and james, taking right over the top of a modish but noisy tie, "would be a hair-cut and a shave. I am not passing up this match because I im-egine for a moment that I would be taking any risks. Don't anybody think that. I have all the money I need just ow and I will take a rest. I will be now and I will take a rest. I will be ready to talk fight with anybody for the March date." Little Eddie admitted last night that Britt's defi was eloquent, but he also maintained that it was not conclusive. "Brith has picked his more ever since he started fighting. I have gone right on meeting all the tough fellows that the club managers have asked rue to meet. The result is that I have been beaten. I have always wanted to meet

TO REGULATE SPEED.

The neatest and most effective auto-trap yet devised is that in use in the para district of New York. Three sentry-boxes are stationed a quarter of a mile apart on Broadway and a policeman is located in each. When an auto passes the One Hundred and Minaty-seventh street post the sentry telephones its number and time of fassing to post No. 2, and the latter times it for the quarter-mile between the two stations.

If the chauffeur has been driving faster than the law allows, the fact is telephoned to sentry box No. 3, and the policeman is out in the road to stop the auto by the time it arrives. The occupants are made to answer detailed questions and their replies are filed away as a formal notice of a first warning. The system aims at pre-vention rather than punishment.

In December, 3,200 automobiles passed he sentry-boxes, 140 warnings were is-The drivers and owners do not view the system as a device for trapping trem unawares. They are so friendly disposed toward it that many use the

ANOTHER AMATEUR TOURNEY.

Willard Bean Plans to Bring Together A Number of Boxers.

Willard Bean, manager of the Athenaeum club of this eity, who will give a boxing tournament in Pocatello on the night of the 13th, has decided to give another amateur tournament in this city, probably on Feb. 22. The show will take place at the Grand theater if that playhouse can be secured for that date.

Many prominent local fight fans have been after Bean to repeat the perform-ance he gave at the Sait Lake theater recently. The success of that tourna-ment has stirred up a great deal of Interest in such events, and they are anxious for Willard to put on another snow. Bean has many promising youngsters and says if nothing goes wrong he will give the best athletic entertainment ever seen here.

MAJOR MILLER PURCHASES AIRSHIP OF LEE STEVENS.

Major Charles J. S. Miller of Franklin, Pa., has purchased Lee Steven's airship. The inventor has contracted to deliver the airship to Major Miller before March 1. As soon as it can be floated Major Miller and Mr. Stevens will start in it from New York for Franklin.

The balloon will be able to make fourteen miles an hour against the wind, and at that rate the trip will require about thirty hours. Danger is reduced to a minimum in Mr. Stevens' alrship. The purpose of the gas bag is to counterbalance the weight of the equipment, and should it suddenly become deflated it would form into a parachute and permit the passengers to make an easy descent. The basket will hold two people. The ship will be equipped with a powerful searchlight.

He has won handicap after handicap this winter until he is now regarded as many pounds superior to any other horse at the Fair Grounds track.

But won't it be fat for the lawyers now that they've got all the present clubs in their clutches? It is pretty certain, however, that the respectable ones will go on if the le-gal gentry leave them enough with which to continue business.

JOB FOR SCHILS.

Now an "Ontlaw."

According to the Butte Inter Mountain, Bert Schils, who played second base for the DesMoines team of the Western league last season, has signed for the coming summer with the Johnstown (Pa.) club of the Tri-State league, or as it is usually called, the "outlaw" league of the east. Schils is spending the winter in Anaconda and Butte and other Mon tana towns, where he played as a member of the Anaconda team of the or State league and with the Butte tear National league. H also played with Boise for a while in the league that exploded last year, When he first came to Montana, Schils used to boot them around the diamond a little, but he was always a heavy hitter, and during the last two or three years his infield work has im-proved wonderfully. He is now con-sidered one of the best second basemen in the business, and he has to be, to break into the outlaw league. Another player who is with that organization and well known in this section is Jim-my Wiggs who is pitching for Altoona, Schils has a wonderful arm on him nd the Anaconda lodge of Elks propose making use of it this year. Jim-my McHale and Schils are both mem-bers of the Anaconda lodge, so the or-ganization has figured out a baseball team for the coming season. McHale will be in center field. Schils in the pitcher's her and Frailed Berlin the will be in center field. Schills in the pltcher's box, and Exalted Rujer Frank Clinton will catch the balls off the backstop. That's all the players they intend baying, and they account for Clinton by saying that he us exalted ruler, refused to sanction the seam un-less he was allowed to play. Patsy Sullivan city clerk of Anagonda will less he was allowed to play. Pathy Sullivan, city clerk of Anaconda, will be manager, and John M. "Go away," said Mr. Black. "I want nothing of that kind. You are a bad mon. Go away." "But the smoggler must have doubt-ed the sincerity of this repulse, for Senator Platt had finished testifying Senator Platt had finished testifying before the Insurance Investigating committee.

 "You did well," said a spectator.
 "I fear not," said the senator. "It is hard to shine as a witness. When-ever I am called on to give testimony, I think with envy of an old man of Owergo.

Commissioner James R. Garfield, at a dinner in Chicago, told a story of greatly exasperating a lawyer who

Adam Black, the founder of the wellknown publishing house. "One day a short time after Mr. Black had opened his book shop," he said. "a rough-looking man entered stealthily, leaned over the counter, winked, and whispered in Mr. Black's ear: "Tve got some fine smuggled whiskey that ye can have at a great bargain.
