CEN. CHAFFEE WILL ADVANCE AT ONCE

His Independent Command—Will Not Wait for Allies-British to Support Him, and Probably Others.

London that the British and American troops at Tien Tkin are preparing for an advance within 48 hours aroused much interest here, says the Washingon correspondent of the Times.

The announcement seems to have best made just before the arrival of Gen Chaffee at Tuku and gives rise to the effect of the commander's presence. It is generaly believed that if the London report is correct the arrival of Gen Chaffee at Tien Tsin will mean the instant cutting loose of the British and American forces from the other troops and their advance under Gen, Chaffee's

The report from London Indicates to people who are aware of this state of affairs that the British are ready to fail in with Gen. It is concluded from all this that Gen, Chaffee will be the commander of the American and British forces when he marches out of Tien Tsin. Perhaps by the time he arrives there some of the

New York, July 31.—The effect of all the re-assuring dispatches from China during the man 24 hours, avers the London correspondent of the Tribune, has impressed the members of parliament impressed the members of parliament with the fact that the survivors were virtually held as nostages. It was no longer asserted that the Chinese officials were lying in order to gain time for insidious attempts to divide the powers and for the removal of the seat of government from Pekin to Segan, a mountain stronghold far more inaccessible than Mr. Kruger's Lydenburg in the Transvaal.

The theory of a small group of optimists had suddenly been taken up by the majority of the best-informed men in parliament and in the clubs, namely, that the legations, after a siege of several weeks, during which many had been killed and wounded, had passed under the protection of the imperial government, which was holding the survivors at its mercy and endeavthe survivers at its mercy and endeav-oring to induce the powers to suspend the advance of the army from Tien Tain, and to negotiate a settlement on the basis of heavy financial indemni-

One fact of supreme importance is the helplessness of the legations if the Chinese government chooses to renew the attack while the ailled forces are marching toward Pekin.
