men. Christmas in the Schools — Supt. D. H. Christensen of the city schools announces that appropriate Christ-mas programs are being arranged in all the schools of the eity for ob-servance on next Friday, the last day of school prior to the Christmas holidays. And while the programs will be of a nature fitting to the occa-sion, yet great care will be taken that there will be nothing of a character to which any one could take excep-tions. The holiday season will ex-tend to Jan. 4, when the schools will resume their sessions. Masons Scient Officers—The ML

C. A. and Godbe-Pitts drug store. Identity Established—From a photo of David B. Davies sent to Imlay, Nev., it has been demonstrated that the former Sult Laiter was the man ground to pieces by a train during the night of No. 30. Friends of Davies here believed that he was still alive, and that a mistake had been made. With the picture went a complete description of Davies, and word came promptly back that the information tallied exactly with the man that had been buried at Winne-mucca. It is the intention to have the remains distinterred and sent here for final burial.

in his speech of werednic to the data tinguished guests. BEST PLACE ON EARTH. "Utah is the best place on earth for the best people on earth to live," said he in his opening remarks. "In my opinion," he continued, "the Elks' lodge, and I say this without dis-paragement to any other organization, has done more than any other frater-nal organization in Utah to make this state a great state, and make it the best place to live, to bring about har-mony among all its people, and to im-prove the condition not only of itz members but of every one else in the state. The members of this lodge have proved their title to being called 'the best people on earth." Gov. Cutler's speech was greeted with great applause and he was warmiy thanked for his kind words. In speaking of the grand lodge meet-ing which takes place in Los Angeles in July, Grand Exaited Ruler Holand said in part: "The session of the grand lodge in Los Angeles will be the biggest event in the history of the order. From every part of the United States plans are be-mg laid to run special trains carrying thousands upon thousands of Elks to the coast for the great meeting. The people of Los Angeles began to make arrangements to care for the Elks two years ago, and as soon as the ar-nouncement was made that the grand lodge would go to Los Angeles they be-gan to put their plans in operation. With the grand secretary and other officers of the grand lodge I have just been to Los Angeles, and have gone over carefully the plans made by the California Elks and their friends for the entertainment of the lodge, and I was surprised and delighted with the completeness of the arrangements and the practical manner of carrying them or the search we miss the best time. PREPARE FOR VISITORS. The local Elks have already begun preparations under the direction of Ex-alted Ruler A. J. Davis, who unfor-tunately was unable to attend the re-ception as he is out of town, for the entertainment of the thousands who will visit Salt Lake next summer on their way to the grand lodge meeting, "Salt Lake, the gateway to sumy southern California" is the keynote to the situation, and every effort will be made to provide public entertainment for the thousands who will pass through the city. Practically every train will come through Salt Lake, and the grand exaited ruler's special will come this way and go over the Salt Lake Route. His train will be one of the finest on wheels and will lack nothing that goes for comfort. Secy. Raybould went to Los Angeles a few days ago to make arrangements for the annual excursion and for the entertainment of Elks who and for the entertainment of Elks who will attend the annual gathering.
