LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—This evening the attractive drama "A Hand of Cards" will be presented by the strength of the company, to be followed by the funny farce of "As Like as Two Peas." A programme that ought to find favor.

Miss Rose Evans concluded her engagement on Saturday evening in the Daughter of the Regiment, which she played with spirit and ability. Mr. C. F. Stetson and Neck and Neck are announced for Thursday evening.

TELEGRAMS.—There are messages at the Western Union Telegraph Office for Geo. Muir and J. W. Merritt. Call and get them.

MESSAGES.—There are messages at the Western Union Telegraph Office for John Eddy, C. Hampton, Geo. E. Whitney, J. B. Dallback and E. W. Grant.

A STATE.—Speaking of the petty opposition to the admission of Utah as a State, the Territorial Enterprise, never very friendly to Utah, says:

"We do not exactly understand the reason for this opposition to the admission of Utah as a State. Setting aside their marriage practices, there is nothing in their creed to challenge the attention of law or the hostility of society. A blind adhesion of the body of the Church to the instructions of its leaders may be regarded as dangerous and anti-republican; but this will not offend us. We do not believe in any Constitution which Congress would be willing to accept there will be no danger in admitting Utah into the Union as a State."

Let us see what sort of a State Constitution the Mormons will make, and then judge them by the work.

That's the way—judge them by their deeds done, and not by what it may be supposed they will do. Impartial judgment of deeds done is justice—with that the community here will compare favorably with any other existing. Justice comes, and we need and want it. But Justice comes first, and it is very difficult to get anything like that towards the 'Mormons.' Most of them would be well content with Justice, if they could get it, from their fellow creatures.

THE LECTURE.—The Tabernacle was full last night on the occasion of Prof. McDonald's lecture.

SERVICES AT THE TABERNACLE YESTERDAY.—Elder Moses Thatcher presided in the forenoon, and Elder Albert Carrington in the afternoon.

DINE.—At Logan, Cache County, Dec. 25th, 1871, of teething, Josephine, daughter of Samuel and Rhode Holt, aged 1 year and 6 months.

AT RICHARD'S HALL.—Before us lie complimentary tickets to a Grand Mid-Winter Ball, under the direction of Professor Sheldon, at Richard's Hall, January 30, when we trust a pleasant and profitable time will be enjoyed.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Dr. Tibbits was up before Alderman A. H. Raleigh, this morning, on a charge of having assaulted John Mahon on the 26th inst. It was stated in the evidence that Mahon had called upon the doctor for payment of a quantity of coal he had delivered to the latter, and that, instead of paying him, the doctor kicked him out of the house. The case being proved against the defendant, he was fined in the trifling sum of $10.

Mr. Lovell.—He was counsel for the defendant, argued for an alibi of the District Court. He was allowed to speak his piece, which lasted probably half an hour, when Alderman Raleigh, with a humorous twinkle in his eye, informed the defense counsel that he had been arguing the case for the prosecution, a criminal one, and had been tried under a city ordinance, and he (Mr. Lovell) had all the time been quoting from and basing his arguments upon Territorial statutes for the regulation of city cases.

On receiving this piece of information the counsel suddenly collapsed, realizing that he had been literally "wasting his sweetness on the desert air." On recovering his breath, he requested to be allowed till this evening this afternoon to prepare a new "apple" on another hypothesis, which was granted.

THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD BLOCKADE.—The following was received by W. U. T.:

Corinne, 27, 9 p.m.—No trains are moving on the Union Pacific Railroad. The passenger train that left Laramie yesterday morning can't be seen at Rawlins, fifteen miles east, where there is a station house. One passenger train is between Wyoming and Lookout, where it has been lying for the last five days. Five trains are delayed between Miser and Lookout. Other trains are delayed, but we can't locate their whereabouts. It is reported that the roads are more effectively blocked than ever before.

The storm that has been raging for the past four days has been so severe that this winter, and can't be seen towards getting the trains running until the weather abates. The cuts are reported filled with snow, and that there are between two and three feet of snow on the plains. It will be impossible for trains to run regularly until the snow melts. Superintendent Fillmore returned last night worn out by exposure and fatigue. There are now only forty passengers in Laramie. The citizens are almost entirely out of fuel. There are but four car loads in the yards, and no more can be obtained until the road is opened.

LATR. Corinne, 28, 9 p.m.—There is little change in the situation of the Union Pacific trains. Every effort is being made to clear the track, but so long as the weather continues so stormy, very little headway can be made. The weather has moderated somewhat, and is more favorable, but it is very cold.

A passenger train due at Cheyenne yesterday arrived there at one o'clock to-day, from the east.

Snow plows and a working party arrived at Rawlins this afternoon. At Bryan it is now snowing, and a high wind has prevailed. The weather is threatening further east.

STOLEN GOODS.—There is an institution on East Temple Street, near Squires' barber shop, where second hand goods are bought and sold, and which is generally known as "the poor man's friend." The place is kept by a man named C. Bernard, and suspicious had been directed to it for some time as a place to which stolen goods found their way. On Saturday afternoon an affidavit was made before Justice Richards, and a search warrant was issued by him. A search made by the officers resulted in the discovery of a large number of several stolen articles, in the form of clothing and other things. Accordingly Bernard was arrested and the store taken possession of by the officers.

This morning a number of persons handed to Captain B. a deposit of articles which had been stolen from them at different times, and the place, up till this afternoon, was thronged by an exorbitant crowd of visitors in search of missing property, some of whom were very successful in finding various missing articles.

The following is a list of articles identified and the names of parties to whom they belonged:

One overcoat, Mr. Robinson; 1 overcoat, Mr. Shetler; 2 silver bars and other specimens taken from Woodhall Bros.; mens' shaw pipe, 10 oz.; 2 overcoats; Dr. Fowler; pair of blankets, H. G. Bell; overcoat, C. H. White; pair of pants, Geo. A. Black; overcoat, R. S. Mudge; overcoat, Mr. G. Chapman; dress coat, vest and pair of pants, Mr. G. Chapman; coat, C. O. Morgan; coat, R. S. Mudge; knife, M. H. Hartigan; overcoat, H. S. Dan; 2 coats, G. Stark; overcoat, H. G. Mudge; 2 coats, Capt. T. H. Baker; overcoat, Mr. Holden; vest, Mr. Joseph Willer; pistol, Joseph Barker; pair of blankets, E. Chaplin; and a case of surveyor's instruments, the name of the owner of which we did not get.

Councilor Jessie N. Smith moved that the committee on claims and appropriations be directed to incorporate the sum of $2500 for the purpose of building a new bridge across the Sevier river on the main road connecting Middle and Southern Utah.

Councilor Thatcher, from committees on Roads, Bridges, &c., reported back "An Act further defining the duties of Superintendents of State and Town and Wagon-road on road and in crossing State boundaries," with amendments and recommended its passage. Ordered printed.
