EXPLOSION OF KEROSENE.

Inflicts Serious Injuries Upon James Morris—Used It to Light the Fire.

Before Judge Holapp—Damage Suit and Other Cases—Lively Runaway—Supposed Embezzler Arrested.

A very severe and painful accident occurred yesterday morning at about 8 o'clock, in which a young man named James Morris, living at Marietta, nearly lost his life. Morris arose at the time mentioned and laid a fire in the stove, and touched it off with a match, but it did not seem to burn as quickly as he would like so he got some kerosene and poured it on the flames. The flames rushed forth and instant the oil which exploded, setting lighted on fire and burning his face and hands almost to a crisp, he ran about a hundred yards to a pool of water and jumped in to put out the fire. He was in the house alone with his wife and in the house aroused her, she ran for some neighbors a short distance away. They responded quickly, and immediately sent in to Ogden for Dr. Ezra Rich, who went to the scene of the accident and did all that was possible to relieve the pain and suffering of Mr. Morris. His burns were found to be of a very severe nature, but it is not thought they will prove fatal as a young man has only been married a few weeks.

BEFORE JUDGE ROLAPP.

In the case of Gorrings vs. Read, on motion of Thos. Maloney, the time of filing of bill of exceptions extended until April 1, 1900.

In the matter of the estate of Magdalena Jensen, deceased, hearing was continued until March 31, 1900.

The case of Joseph Abbe vs. D. A. Smith came on regularly for trial, a dispute was impounded and the testimony is being heard. The action is brought to recover $5,000 damages alleged to be due on the violation of a contract.

In the case of Albert M. Jensen vs. Oregon Short Line Railroad company a motion to retax costs of said action was filed.

In the case of Mrs. Annie Van Namee vs. Peoples' Building, Loan & Savings association in the defendant filed a demurrer alleging that said complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

In the case of Leonidas Parker vs. Oregon Short Line Railroad company the plaintiff moves for the return of the ground of errors in the former hearing.

LIVELY RUNAWAY.

There was a lively runaway at the Union depot yesterday morning in which two vehicles and horses participated. The team hitched to Smith's milk wagon became frightened at an incoming train and dashed along the track for about half a block, throwing milk in every direction. The wagon struck against a tree and a general smash up was the result. Just about the same time the Boston meat market was in the short run up 25th street, but did no damage.

SUPPOSED EMBEZZLER ARRESTED.

Deputy Sheriff Vivian Hatch arrested a man yesterday afternoon answering the description sent to the officers here from Le Mars, Plymouth county, Iowa, of a man named Ed. Kireboom, who was arrested at Le Mars and held for embezzlement—then escaped. The man gave his name as W. L. Collins, and says he came here from Salt Lake, where he has a wife and babe living. He has been selling some patent oil for sharpening razors, and got off on a sure here, and when arrested he was considered intoxicated. The Sheriff of Le Mars has been telegraphed, and if the arrested party should prove to be the man wanted, it will be quite a happy capture for Hatch, as there is a reward offered for Kireboom's arrest.

The council is called to have a big peace talk and to prepare to repel the invasion of the detested Washakies. Warriors come to the Sagamores that are the hunting ground of the Osceolas. The scalps of the Washakies will dangle in the Osceola tepees after April 2nd.

At the council Friday night a few war chiefs will be elected, and five squaw men will take the warriors to the degree and become warriors of the tribe.

MENDON.

Fatal Runaway Accident—John R. Walker is the Victim.

Special Correspondence.

Mendon, Cache Co., March 29.—A fatal runaway accident occurred in our quiet little town yesterday. While John R. Walker of this place and his son George were coming from the field, where they had been putting in grain, the team ran away, and as they crossed a ditch it threw the father out and he alighted on a large boulder. The team flew on and struck a distance farther the buggy struck a post, making a general smash-up of the vehicle, but strange to say the boy remained in the buggy and came off without injury, but the father received such injuries that he died today at 1 o'clock. He leaves a wife and five children, an aged mother and three sisters, and many relatives and friends to mourn his untimely end. He was a good citizen, an affectionate husband, a loving parent, an honest man and a good Latter-day Saint. The affair has cast a gloom over our quiet city.

Fractions Horse Injures a Little Child—Another Accident.

Special Correspondence.

Sandy, Salt Lake Co., Utah, March 29.—Yesterday morning while Edmund G. Lunnen of Crescent ward was driving his brother's wife and two small children to Sandy, his horse took fright just before the city and ran over a child, one of the lines broke and the horse became unmanageable and kicked over the dash board and struck one of the little ones about three years of age, over the left eye. The wound is not a serious one, but the little one had to be taken up to Dr. Robertson to have the wound sewed up.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT.

In the afternoon of the same day the little boy, aged 3 years, of W. R. Willington, of Crescent ward, was playing around the milk wagon when one of the horses started up, and ran over the boy's head, cutting a deep gash in the little one's forehead. The child was also taken up to Dr. Robertson for treatment, and is resting as easy as can be expected. It is very fortunate that the father was present, as the child stopped while resting on the child's head.

BRAIN FOOD

Nearly everyone will admit that as a nation we eat too much meat and too little of vegetables and the grains.

For business men, office men and clerks, and in fact everyone engaged in sedentary or indoor occupations, grains, milk and vegetables are much more healthful.

Only men engaged in a severe outdoor manual labor can live on a heavy meat diet and continue in health.

As a general rule, meat once a day is sufficient for all classes of men, women and children, and grain, fruit and vegetables should constitute the bulk of food eaten.

But many of the most nutritious foods are difficult of digestion and it is of no use to eat them unless they are properly digested. The stomach and bowels must be kept in good order, and the digestion is too weak to assimilate them properly.

It is always best to get the best results from our food that some simple and harmless digestive should be taken after meals to assist the relaxed digestive organs, and several years' experience have proven Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to be a very safe, pleasant and effective digestive, and a remedy which may be taken daily with the best results.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can hardly be called a patent medicine, as they do not act on the bowels nor any particular organ, but only on the food eaten. They supply what weak stomachs lack, pepsin diastase and by stimulating the gastric glands increase the natural secretion of hydrochloric acid.

People who make a daily practice of taking one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal are sure to have perfect digestion, which means perfect health.

There is no danger of forming an injurious habit, the tablets contain absolutely nothing but natural digestive; cocaine, morphine and similar drugs have no place in a stomach remedy.

Ask your druggist for a fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and after a week's use note the improvement in health, appetite and nervous energy.

JUDGE CHARLES FOOTE.

Impressive Funeral Services Held in Stake Tabernacle—Politics.

Special Correspondence.

Nephi, Juab Co., March 28.—The funeral of Judge Chas. Foote was held from the Stake tabernacle today. The house was filled with friends and relatives of the deceased, who met to pay respect to the memory of one who in life had been esteemed for his many sterling qualities. The speakers were: W. C. A. Bryan, Bishop of W. O. Parkers, Chas. Sperry and Rev. John Wilson. All spoke feelingly of the honesty and integrity of Judge Foote, and of his public-spiritedness in all things tending to build up the community. The remains were followed to the cemetery by a large cortege.

Mr. Eldredge reports there are no taxes on cattle or sheep in Alberta and only 14 cents per acre on land. The market for beef and mutton is very good. Three-year-old steers sell on the range from $35 to $45 per head and 4-year-old steers bring from $45 to $55 per head.

The Alberta Railway and Coal Company has decided to put upon the Utah market several hundred thousand acres of land for ranching and farming purposes and to accommodate conference visitors have secured the services of the hotel, and have an office in the Utah National bank building, Salt Lake City, where visitors will be furnished with pamphlets and maps giving a full description of the resources of the country.

FINE PLACE FOR RAILWAY.

Cattle Feed Out All the Year, the Grass Curing Itself While Standing in Summer.

Mr. James Eldredge and Horton Eldredge have just returned from southern Alberta, Canada, where they have spent two weeks looking over the great cattle ranges of that district. These gentlemen seemed highly pleased with the country, for ranching purposes and report that cattle and sheep in the St. Mary's valley are rolling fat, and have never had a spear of hay during the winter. They feed on the nutritious grass and bunch grasses that entitle the district to the name of "Paradise for cattle." Thousands of them are as fat as corn fed beef. The grasses cure on the stem during the summer and fall, and the stock of all kinds winter well on the open range.

The large irrigation canal will be finished early this summer and will furnish water for the large number of Utah settlers that have moved into that region last year and that are going in this spring.

The Eldredge brothers contemplate making another visit to the great cattle range of southern Alberta in a few days, having in view the securing of a large ranch from the Alberta Railway and Coal Company, and stocking it with cattle during the coming season. While in the north these gentlemen visited a number of ranches, among which was the large ranch belonging to Mr. Wm. McIntyre, who moved his cattle from Tintic, Utah, to southern Alberta, Canada, several years ago, and has been eminently successful in ranching. He sold his last year 100 head of his herd for about $50,000. Mr. McIntyre was so well pleased with his former investment in the rich grass lands of the north, that he has recently purchased about 15,000 acres, making about 45,000 acres in all now owned by him. Mr. McIntyre contemplates fencing his property and when completed his cattle can run at large the entire year. The large ranch is situated on a tract of land owned by the Alberta Railway and Coal Company, and is situated on a tract of land owned by the Alberta Railway and Coal Company, and is situated on a tract of land owned by the Alberta Railway and Coal Company.
