Wants to Know.-Ellen Holmes, 227 Mount St., New Leeds, Bradford, Yorkshire, England, would like to know the whereabouts of her brother, Wardman Holmes, who emigrated to Utah 26 years ago. If any person can give any information of him to the above address it would be thankfully received.

The Right of Petition.-Petitions to Congress against threatened proacriptive legislation are being circulated throughout the Territory and receiving an immense number of signatures. There are three distinct documents, one for the names of citizens generally, another, those of the young men, and a third, those of the young ladies of the community, IAW H DINA

One of these days there will be a fearful flattening of those who are trying to have their names hoisted on the Utah Hobby.

How He Sees It .- W. J. Farr, a Baptist of Agusta, Georgia, writes to Dr. Murphy, of this city, about the present crusade against the against the "Mormons:" "The Lord is on your side. He may permit your people to be annoyed and perplexed for some time, but it will do more good than harm in the end. If the bigots go for you too hard I teel as if I would like to come out and help you."

Died at St. George.-Brother J W. Nixon, an old citizen of Utah, dled at St. George, at an early hour yesterday morning. The news came by private telegram to President W. Woodruff, The deceased was a moval of some tumors, which subsequently re-formed, and in all prothe operation did not at the time anticipate a permanent recovery.

Star of Jan. 80th: During the past year, the labors of the Elders in this Mission have been attended with satisfactory results-227 souls being added to our numbers during the last six months-126 of this number have been bap. tized in Germany, and 101 persons in Switzerland. There is much inquiry after the Gospel manifested but the authorities of the land are against us, and try to hinder the pel of Christ, and in consequence of this, the Elders laboring there have to be very prudent, and do most of their work in fireside teaching. Elder A. H. Cannon is now laboring in North Germany, including in his District the Branches of the Church existing in Berlin, Halberstade and Nurnberg, and he has also visited Hamburg, Kiel and Bremen. His labors have been altended with much success, many receiving the Gospel through his instrumentality, and through his teachings and exhortations the Saints of that district have become more united and alive to their duties than they had been.
