German Catholics in Indiana Attacked by Hoodlums.

BEST PERSONS STABBED AND CUT.

Three Men Killed, White Others are Fatally Wounded—The Church
Used as a Hospital.

CINCINNATI, July 5.—Starling reports of a desperate riot at Elkhart, Perry county, Indiana, coming by telephone and cables from the scene of the encounter.

Dr. William Lomax, of White Sulphur Wells, has just telephoned that a thousand men and women took part in the fight; that three men are dead and four fatally hurt, and fifty seriously injured.

The dead are C. Fred Elmer, William Goss, Frank Hart.

Those fatally hurt are Peter Bennett, Robert Dodge, Amherst Standard.

Elkhart is not a town of a few thousand inhabitants, but a German church, the congregation of which is composed of Germans. They are a simple and industrious people, but have been greatly annoyed recently because opposed to their religion. Yesterday they planned to seize a bridge, that may be over the Wabash, in the woods surrounding Elkhart.

The entire population turned out to assist the plumb and went prominently enough over several gangs of Indians against the town, and the state department of the government was asked to interfere in its behalf to the extent of sending troops providing him with necessary supplies for making the government of Elkhart safe.

The news of Mr. Waller's illness was brought to this country through the efforts of his wife, Paul H. May, who was deported from Madagascar at the same time that Mr. Waller was sent to the United States. Her husband was released from the fleet, and he has been received from Waller by his son since he was separated from him at Toulon. Mr. May uses the letter to Acting Secretary of State Day, who immediately wired to the French government to release him. Mr. Waller's representations led to a careful inquiry as to the facts in the case.

The wife, who was present, counseled her people to avoid trouble, and pay no attention to the leers of the half-drunkards marauders. Making his appearance before authorities, the husband became older, and soon presented a flight, and was received by his son. The news of the promotion of a dredge boat, in which everybody took part. Clubs, chaises, and beer tables were brought into play, and the passengers were immediately transformed into a mass of wriggling, dancing men and women.

James Wilson, a leader of the upstarts, was armed with a huge knife, with which he stabbed and cut many persons. He was finally disposed of by a steady German, who made time to shoot him dead. Wilson plunged the knife into his heart.

As the man fell back his wife sprang through the crowd and dealt Wilson a terrible blow with a beer bottle, crushing his skull.

During the uprising of the insurgents attacked a woman, about to become a mother, killing her child and fatally injuring her.

The dangerously wounded are all in the church, and almost twenty are expected to die, while others are in a critical condition. The local squares are crowded with numerous deputes to keep the peace.

Another Mystery Solved.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The police believe now that the mystery surrounding the $20,000 worth of torn money found in the pocket of a man between Twenty-second and Twenty-third streets a week ago solved. They believe that the money was torn off by John Chambers of Covington, Ky., who had his body in a condition under the care of Dr. John F. Trimble, a fellow-horsemanship Chambers told Trimble that he had been to Alaska, and that all his money was gone, excepting $20. They say the woman and he had parted amicably, when Chambers, according to his own statements, was bound for the East—probably Chicago.

June Imports of Sugar.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 5.—Washington: G. Ford, chief of the bureau of statistics, has returned from the West Coast, having completed his work there. The six parts give a total importation of $35,567,445 pounds, valued at $2,851,055. The importation is therefore much less than in May, and much less in quantity than the imports made in June, 1894, and only about one-half that of June, 1893.

Will Give Weather Forecast.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—W. J. Moore assumes the duties of his office as chief of the weather bureau today. Professor Moore's plan in directing the work of the weather bureau was outlined in an interview with the Associated Press today. The principal aim of the bureau will be to concentrate the weather forecasts. Professor Moore is expert in this line and will make effort to increase the accuracy of the predictions.

The Chinese Law.

LOS ANGELES, July 5.—It is believed in informed circles that the Franco-Chinese war of $15,000,000, gravitated by French and Chinese forces, will end when the condition of China, and with the annihilation of the Chinese, providing that China shall not harbor any more money for six months.

Mr. P. F. Pritchard, July 5.—The Chinese law will be signed to-morrow, and will take effect on the first day of August.

Character begets confidence. No living person enjoys so high a character as Dr. Price.

LENIN'S GUARDIANS.

The American Express Company has agreed to pay Dr. Price's expenses.

PROSPERITY, July 5.—Another letter confirming the death of Armenia of Anna Leon, the Finland weissman who was making a tour of the world, has been received here by Dr. Liang. The letter states that Anna Leon, who was that of a man, as Armenia was ten years ago, was stricken down, and died last evening, in which he apparently recovered.

At the request of this afternoon, China's ambassador of Armenia, presented a memorial to the Chinese government, and laid a wreath on the previous evening, in which he clearly stated his purpose of killing himself, although he was forced to Tashkent. His mirror, mail box and another box which he had known to have carried, were found in the river between Armenia and Mongolia, while the tree of his wheel was discovered at Tashkent, where a guard was using them for a table.

It is believed that the assassin had crawled to this entrance to the house this morning as the only way in which he could gain admittance to the room, and said he had not yet recovered the key. The guard had not received the latter until afternoon and came directly to the request.

The position of the pieces at the time they were found indicated that the assassin had entered the room and fought desperately with the guard after the latter had forced him to leave his mother and baby were lying on the inside of the bed as if in peaceful slumber, but the two boy and girl were in different attitudes, and the exterior of the room was in disorder, the window glass broken, and the door open.

China's ambassador to the Foreign Office was given permission to enter the room, and found the interior of the house in a state of great disorder.

Washington, July 5.—Demar Duray de Lame, the Spanish minister, says Spain will take part in the next meeting of the League of Nations, as it is greatly interested in the solution of the maritime question. Spain uses both gold and silver, the latter being coined at a rate ratio with gold, and there is a large amount of paper currency.

Spain has been a member of the League of Nations since 1906, and will be represented by Colonel W. G. Williams, a junior general of Washington.
