He will also visit the Cactus mine where he says inter-esting developments are on. As to what these interesting developments are, however, he is silent.

Sam Cocroft, an Ely mining man, is quoted as saying men are suffering from want in Rawhide. Cocroft says the camp is overpopulated, in fact, he says, there are twice as many persons in the district as it can accommodate. This leaves 50 per cent without means. Cocroft blames too much booming for the suffering. the suffering.

Manager Tony Jacobson, just back Manager Tony Jacobson, just back from the Columbus Con., says that property is shipping from ten to twen-ty tons of high grade ore a day, now that the wagon road from the loading station to rallway station is opened. One shift is being worked, but by the first of June, men may be given em-ployment. It is expected the South Columbus will be shipping June 1. President Cutler and others of the Soux Con. family feel that something Sioux Con. family feel that something is due to happen quickly at that prop-erty. Crystalized quartz has been en-countered in the whize and this is what has created great expectations. The whize was sunk from the west drift and experts acquainted with the geol-ogy of the country around the Sioux Con, say one bodies are usually topped by just such quartz formations. J. G. Huntington, president of the Seven Troughs Royal is in this city.
