THE EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, . . . December 24, 1870.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY.—Christmas, and its jollification, holidays and rejoicing al delight and expect to participate in. This year, falling on a Sunday, will prevent re creation and amusement on Christmas day; and as it is a generally expressed wish to have the usual holiday on Monday, we have concluded to close this office on that day, and not to issue next week until Tuesday. We believe our subscribers will good naturedly see the point of allowing typos and all hands to have a day's enjoyment while they are doing the same; and so, wishing all the compliments of the season, we bid them adieu until the 27th instant.

THE CONCERT AT FAUST'S HALL.—The second of the Cushman concerts was given last evening. Prof. Cushman was as effective and droll as usual and Mr. Burke and Miss Lottie were very entertaining. The last of their concerts will be given to-night, when all who wish to see the musical trio had better attend.

FOUND.—A reticule and money found; the owner can have it by applying to Elder W. Woodruff.

ST. GEORGE.—The following telegram was received last night, too late for publication:

St. George. Dec. 23rd.

GEO. Q. CANNON.—The thermometer was at 12, at sunrise; weather very pleasant. Last evening Elder Henry Eyring delivered a very instructive address to the St. George lyceum; subject "Germany."

GEO. A. SMITH.

TYROLEAN TROUPE.—This excellent company of artists gave another of their performances at the Theatre last night. All present seemed to enjoy the musical feast, as was evidenced by the frequent encoring of the singers. The entertainment has the freshness of novelty, as the Tyrolean music has strong peculiarities. It is of the wild and grand kind, although it does not possess the plaintive pathos of the Scotch or the deep feeling of the English. The Troupe is well worth seeing. To-night it will give its last performance in this city when, as an additional attraction, the entertainment will close with a farce, in which Mr. John C. Graham will appear.

Z. C. M. I.—During the past week there has been a constant stream of purchasing visitors to the Bazaar, at the Eagle Emporium. Those wishing to obtain Christmas goods should call there this evening. The various departments will be closed on Monday in order to allow everybody connected with the Institution to enjoy a holiday. This is as it should be. An occasional day's recreation is an excellent thing for people who are cooped up in stores and offices from Monday morning till Saturday night.

THANKS.—The typos return thanks to President Joseph Young for the dessert he distributed among them to-day in the shape of some excellent apples. Long may he live.

W. U. TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—On Monday, 27th inst., and Monday, the 2d proximo, the Western Union Telegraph Office will not be open except at the usual holiday hours.

PUBLIC SURVEYS.—We are indebted to B. M. A. Froiseth, Esq., of this city, for the following information respecting public surveys, made this fall in Southern Utah:

"The Surveyor General has this week turned over to the United States Register's Office, in this city, the following Township Plats of exterior and subdivisional lines of a survey made this fall in the Southern portion of Utah, viz.:

Township 33 South, Range 10 West,
" 33 " " 11 "
" 34 " " 9 "
" 35 " " 10 & 11 West,
containing the settlement of Fort Johnson or Morrill.

Township 35 South, Range 12 West,
" 36 " " 12 "
containing the settlement of Shirt's Creek or Fort Hamilton.

Township 37 South, Range 11 West,
" 38 " " 12 "
" 39 " " 12 & 13 West,
" 41 " " 13 West,
containing the settlements of Tokerville and Leeds, making twelve townships, containing an area of eighty-two thousand, six hundred and fifty-three acres of land which is now ready for entry by the settlers thereon.

HER "LOSS BIG ENOUGH ALREADY."—A Bohemian woman, residing in Milwaukee, Wis., went from her house for a short time on the 17th inst., leaving a baby of eight months asleep in the cradle, in charge of two other children, one six the other eight years old. While absent, a hog owned by the family entered the opened door of the place, and literally tore the infant to pieces. A police officer, hearing of the horrible event, proceeded to the spot and was about to shoot the hog, but was prevented by the mother of the baby, who declared that her loss was heavy enough already.

SECOND ADVENT.—The Alta California, of last Tuesday, contains a notice of the arrival, in San Francisco, of Elder Miles Grant, of the Second Advent sect, who was about to preach and was prepared to discuss the tenets of his co-religionists to and with the people of the Pacific Coast. The second advent of the Savior is regarded by the religious world as an event of the greatest importance to mankind generally, and many, vague and erroneous have been and are the notions promulgated by the sects in relation to it. In to-day's NEWS will appear a discourse delivered by Elder Orson Pratt in the Tabernacle last Sunday afternoon, which will be found to contain so much real scripture doctrine on this subject that all who are interested in it, if they have the light and the love of the truth within them can not but be interested, edified and benefited by its perusal.

"THE FOOTLIGHTS."—No. 1 of "The Footlights," a programme of the entertainments at the Theatre, to be issued every night performances are given, is issued today. Besides being of use to those attending the Theatre, it is also an admirable advertising medium, and for this purpose we believe it will command a large share of patronage from the business men of the city. The publishers of "The Footlights" are Messrs. Graham and W. T. Harris, names which are a sufficient guarantee of reliability to the public of this city. All business communications are to be addressed to the above named gentlemen, P. O. Box 307, S. L. City.
