UNION MEETINGS.

The Newly Organized Stakes Put Forth Their Best Efforts to Continue the Good Work

LNSIGN HOLDS FIRST SESSION.

Stake Board Presented and Sustained -Sa': Lake Stake Holds Its Second Meeting.

An enthusiastic and interesting meeting of the Ensign Stake Sunday School Union was held last night in the Twenty-first ward meetinghouse,

A strong representation of all the wards of the stake was present, and a commendable feature of the meeting was the promptness with which it was commenced and closed.

President Richard W. Young and Counselors Joseph S. Wells and John M. Knight of the stake presidency were present, also a number of the members of the High Council. After the openeing exercises Supt. George H. Wallace made an address of welcome to the officers and teachers of the President Young addressed the meeting on Sabbath school work. He said: "There is no part of the work of the Church in which we ought to be more interested. We are living in an age of progression and the time is here when system and order is to be established." He urged the teachers to encourage others to attend these meetings.

Elder Josiah Burrows of the General Sunday School Union board was the next speaker. He said he felt very much gratified to see such a large at-tendance an dspoke of the progression of Sunday school work. "Although our schools are all ready in an advanced state of progression," said he, "we have no doubt that the schools in this stake will flourish and progress still further." Supt. Wallace presented the names of those chosen to positions on the stake board as follows: W. N. Shepherd, Andrew Jackson, J.

Percy Goddard, Wm. R. Plummer, Al-bert Toronto, Phares W. Dunyon, Margaret C. Hull, Etta Felt, Jane Cuiler and Ellis R. Shipp. All were unaninously sustained.

The department work was then taken ip. In the superintendents' department t was recommended by the stake superintendency and unanimously agreed upon to hold weekly officers' and teachers' meetings. The work pertaining to the various other departments was considered, outlined, etc. The meeting clos-ed promptly at 9 o'clock.

The Twenty-first ward meetinghouse was decided upon as the place of holding the regular union meetings. SALT LAKE STAKE.

The second meeting of the Sunday chool Union of the Salt Lake stake of Zion was held last evening in the assembly rooms of the Sixteenth ward, all the schools of the stake save North Point responding at roll call.

The meeting was presided over by the Stake Superintendency, First Assistant S Burton conducting The opening song was "Zion stands with hills surrounded," and prayer with hills surrounded," and prayer was offered by Elder John L. Johnson, followed by singing, "Today,

First Assistant Superintendent W. C. Earton briefly commented on the suc-cess of the last union meeting, thank-ing the officers and teachers for their operation and liberal support to the Sabbath school cause.

The departments were conducted as usual, taking up class work and a general discussion of the work in the several departments. In the superintend-ents' department a paper was presented on "The Weekly Local Board Meetings" by Supt. R.H. Bradford of Center ward, the paper being discussed by Supts, Henry Gardner and Brigham Haslam of the Twenty-second and Twentyighth wards.

In the secretary's department the subject, "The Best Method of Obtaining the Necessary Statistical Information from the Teachers" was discussed. and the Seventeenth ward was asked to prepare a paper on the subject to be presented and discussed at the June

In the theological and intermediate In the theological and intermediate departments papers were presented on the subject, "Home Preparation by the Teachers." Lessons for the coming month were taken up and discussed while in the primary and kindergarten departments the lesson work for the month was reviewed, after which papers were presented dealing with "Home Preparation by the Teachers." The departments re-assembled at 8:45 The departments re-assembled at 8:45 hen Supt. Felt expressed his pleasure it seeing so many of the officers and eachers of the stake present. He an-counced that in the near future a social entertainment would be given by the stake Sunda; school workers and trusted that when the call is made up-on the several wards for the organiz-ing of committees that all will respond cheerfully. He stated the of the social was that the aim and purpose of the social was that the members of the union board, the superntendency and officers become better acquainted with each other.

The meeting closed after singing, "The Cause of Truth." Benediction by Supt. Theodore Nystrom of the Fourteenth ward.

PIONEER STAKE.

The first meeting of the Pioneer stake Sunday school union was held last night in the Seventh ward assembly rooms, all the schools of the stake be-lag represented.

After the opening exercises Supt.

James N. Lambert bade all a hearty welcome and expressed the hope that they would continue to work harmoni-ously together to the end that the Sunday school cause might grow and pros-per and the children be brought up in a knowledge of the laws of God. He then presented the names of the stake board, all of whom were unanimously

Class work was then taken up, the different departments retiring to their respective rooms and discussing the nature of the work before them. In the superintendents' department the mat-ter of weekly officers' and teachers' meetings was discussed, but action was deferred for one month in order that the officers might consult with the teachers. It was also announced that arrangements were under way for s Sunday school outing, to take place in the mar future.

On reassembling the meeting was addressed by Stake President William McLachlan, who spoke words of en couragement to those presert and pointed out the importance of Sunday school work. After agreeing to meet hereafter a 77% the session adjourned with singing and benediction,

LIBERTY STAKE,

The first Sunday School Union meet ing of Liberty stake was held last night in the Second ward meetinghouse, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. The en-tire stake board, and both counselors in the stake presidency were present; and all of the wards, with one exception, were represented.

After roll call all joined in singing "Beautiful Day." Prayer by Second Asst. Supt. Joseph R. Squires. Continued by singing "Thanks for the Sabbath School." The following concert recitation was conducted by First Asst. Supt. Hugh B. Folsom, being the words of Dr. Arnold. vere represented. Dr. Arnold: "I wish my children to drink from a running stream and not from a stagnant pool. The meeting practised singing "Day of Rest." under the direction of Stake Chorister Edward E. Pike, after which Supt. John H. Coombs made a few Supt. John H. Coombs made a few opening remarks, stating that it was the intention of the superintendency to begin all union meetings at 7:3¢ p. m. and close at 9 p. m., or as nearly there-to as possible. He then presented the names of the stke board members in their respective departments, all of whom were unanimously sustained. Cupt. Coombs also stated that the special object of the board members in visiting the different schools, was in visiting the different schools, was in the capacity of helpers, not as critics. Supt. Hugh B. Folsom followed, expressing his gratitude at seeing so many present, and on time, and urging them to always be so in everything connected with the Sunday school work. Supt. Joseph R. Squires added a few words of encouragement along similar lines, craving the hearty support of the workers in the various schools.

President Arnold H. Schulthess next resident Arnold H. Schulthess next spoke, expressing his pleasure in being present with such a noble band of workers, and assuring all a the confidence, respect and support of the stake superintendency in all things affecting the welfare of the Sunday schools.

President Philip S. Maycock added a few suggestions on the qualifications of good Sunday School teachers. In part he said: "I believe that the best quali-he said: "I believe that the best quali-fication for a real teacher is the capa-city for hard work, and a love for that work. And while it may be measurably true that "teachers are born, not made," in my opinion that teacher is most interesting, and has the interest of his class, who studies most and is best prepared and does not rely on his general knowledge of what he learned years ago, but who is especially pre-pared on every lesson that he may present to his class. Such a one cannot help interesting and benefitting his stu-

Secy. Julian F. Smith assigned the department rooms and conducted the marching to such rooms, where general department work was carried out. On re-assembling, at 9:05. Coombs asked for an expression of the meeting as to the time and place for holding the union meetings. The third Monday in each month, at 7: 30 p. m., in the Second ward meetinghouse, was unanimously agreed upon. After singing "Lord accept our true devotion," Elder Andrew F. Smith offered the benediction.
