STAKE EVENTS ANNOUNCED.

There Are Twenty-five, Aggregating $56,000 in Values. San Francisco, July 30,-The new California Jockey club has announced its stake events for next winter's racing. There are 25 stakes, aggregating $56,000 in values. The increase in the number of stakes is due to the fac that the new club will not divide dates with any other club, a departure from the custom for several years past. The principal new stakes are the California Derby for $3,000, the California Oaks, for $2,500; the Waterhouse handicap of $2,500 at two miles, the Bell stake for two-year-olds for $2,000, and the Adam Andrew selling stake, the Crocker handicap and the Christmas handicap of $3,000 at one and one-eight miles. There will also be special races at intervals at $500 to $1,000 added. The racing season is to begin over the Tanforan track on Saturday, November 2
