

DESERET EVENING NEWS

WEATHER REPORT.

Report at the local office of the weather bureau for the 24 hours ending at 6 a. m. today:

Barometer reading at 6 a. m., 29.67; at 10 a. m., 29.65; at 2 p. m., 29.63; at 4 p. m., 29.61; at 6 p. m., 29.59; at 8 p. m., 29.57; at 10 p. m., 29.55; at 12 m., 29.53; at 2 a. m., 29.51; at 4 a. m., 29.49; at 6 a. m., 29.47.

Direction of daily mean temperature since the first of the month, 23 degrees; accumulated excess of daily mean temperature since January 1st, 221 degrees.

Total precipitation since first of month, 1.1 inch, which is 1.1 inch below the normal.

Accumulated excess in precipitation since January 1st, 1.14 inch.

FORECAST TILL 6 P. M. FRIDAY.

Local forecast for Salt Lake City and vicinity:

Fair and warmer tonight and Friday.

Forecast for Utah, made at San Francisco:

Fair tonight; cloudy Friday. Warmer tonight.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The area of high pressure now covers the northern Rocky Mountain slope. A slight depression has formed over the northern plateau region. Rain has fallen over Washington, northern Oregon, eastern Montana, the Dakotas, and the Mississippi valley. It is warmer over the northern plateau, and cooler over the southern plateau, and over the Mississippi valley.

L. H. MURDOCH,
Section Director.

Semi-Weekly News... Circulation Today 22,000

The largest circulation of any paper published between Denver and the Coast.

To-day's Metals.

SILVER, per 100, 59.50 cents
LEAD, $3.90
CASTING COPPER 10 cents lb.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The letter carriers, after examining several samples of white waives, have decided to postpone using them until next season.

The funeral of W. H. Benn was held this afternoon from the residence, 109 west Seventh South street. The interment was in Mt. Olivet.

Chief Clerk F. I. R. Moore of the railway mail service, located at Ogden, and Chief Clerk H. W. Lufkin of the same service, stationed at San Francisco, exchanged places today.

The Mayor this morning approved the sale of the issue of two hundred four per cent city bonds of $10,000 each to Carson, Leach & Co. as passed by the City Council on Tuesday evening.

Bert Stone, whom Sheriff Justice brought in from Idaho last week, yesterday afternoon before Judge Nilsen changed his plea of not guilty of horse stealing to guilty and was bound over to the district court. In default of $500 bail he went to the county jail.

The Butcher's Protective association met last night in the Scott-Auerbach building and agreed to close all the shops in the city at 2 o'clock every Thursday afternoon, except in weeks where a holiday occurs. An effort will be made to get the grocers and jobbers to take the same action.

No untoward circumstance having thwarted Governor Wells' intention of proceeding eastward on the morning train from Ogden, Secretary of State Hammond is now and for the next few weeks will be the chief executive of the state, and will be acting governor till Gov. Wells returns.

Henry W. Lawrence is arranging to attend the United States legislative convention, and National Association of Manufacturers, at Detroit. The former will be held on June 27th and the latter on June 27th to July 4th. L. E. Hall of Salt Lake and L. W. Shurtliff and S. S. Smith of Ogden will probably attend.

Attorney-General Braden has handed down an opinion to Mayor S. D. Underwood of Beaver City respecting the granting of franchises by municipal corporations. He maintains that municipal corporations have no right to grant franchises to companies which organize to construct and operate power plants on water without the corporate limits.

Civil service examinations will be held in this city on July 2nd and 3rd, for the position of photographer, division of forests, department of agriculture, with the following salaries: T. F. Harney, salary of $1,200; division of forests, salary of $1,200; division of forests, salary of $1,200; division of forests, salary of $1,200.

At the meeting of Foresters at the Labor Temple on Richards street last night, the following officers were elected: President, T. F. Harney; Secretary, T. F. Harney; Treasurer, T. F. Harney; Recording Secretary, T. F. Harney; Corresponding Secretary, T. F. Harney; and T. F. Harney.

The signs placed on city lots by land and Water Commissioner Westerfield, advertising the sale of the property by Mr. Westerfield, says that a majority of the signs have been broken or destroyed, and he has practically useless, notwithstanding the fact that they have not

ALMA O. TAYLOR

IS THE VICTOR.

Young Man From Thirteenth Ward Wins in Oratorical Contest.

OWEN IS A CLOSE SECOND.

Large Audience Listens to the Youthful Orators—All the Efforts Are Exceptionally Strong—Eliot Third.

In the oratorical contest held in the Assembly hall last night Alma O. Taylor was pronounced the winner and was given the Boyd-Rand cup. The young man, who is scarcely nineteen years of age, acquitted himself with a finish of rhetoric and oratorical style that was truly remarkable. That the audience seconded the decision of the judges was manifest in the applause that followed the announcement of the decision. The judges honored Rulon M. Owen by naming him as a close second and David H. Elton as a close third. Harrison E. Jenkins was given fourth place, and Eliot third.

The audience was large and enthusiastic. The contest was held in the Assembly hall last night. The judges were Rulon M. Owen, David H. Elton, Harrison E. Jenkins, and Eliot. The contest was held in the Assembly hall last night. The judges were Rulon M. Owen, David H. Elton, Harrison E. Jenkins, and Eliot.

THE STUDENTS MEETING.

Class Day at L. D. S. College Fittingly Observed.

The students had a real treat and surprise in store for the friends who visited the Latter-day Saints' College assembly room yesterday afternoon to witness their program. After the college song had been sung with great spirit and prayer offered, Mr. D. P. Smith made a thoughtful and eloquent address on life work and individual responsibility. Miss Hagar Jones rendered very sweetly the soprano solo, "Good Bye," which was the subject of the address.

THE STUDENTS MEETING.

Class Day at L. D. S. College Fittingly Observed.

The students had a real treat and surprise in store for the friends who visited the Latter-day Saints' College assembly room yesterday afternoon to witness their program. After the college song had been sung with great spirit and prayer offered, Mr. D. P. Smith made a thoughtful and eloquent address on life work and individual responsibility. Miss Hagar Jones rendered very sweetly the soprano solo, "Good Bye," which was the subject of the address.

THE STUDENTS MEETING.

Class Day at L. D. S. College Fittingly Observed.

The students had a real treat and surprise in store for the friends who visited the Latter-day Saints' College assembly room yesterday afternoon to witness their program. After the college song had been sung with great spirit and prayer offered, Mr. D. P. Smith made a thoughtful and eloquent address on life work and individual responsibility. Miss Hagar Jones rendered very sweetly the soprano solo, "Good Bye," which was the subject of the address.

THE STUDENTS MEETING.

Class Day at L. D. S. College Fittingly Observed.

The students had a real treat and surprise in store for the friends who visited the Latter-day Saints' College assembly room yesterday afternoon to witness their program. After the college song had been sung with great spirit and prayer offered, Mr. D. P. Smith made a thoughtful and eloquent address on life work and individual responsibility. Miss Hagar Jones rendered very sweetly the soprano solo, "Good Bye," which was the subject of the address.

THE STUDENTS MEETING.

Class Day at L. D. S. College Fittingly Observed.

The students had a real treat and surprise in store for the friends who visited the Latter-day Saints' College assembly room yesterday afternoon to witness their program. After the college song had been sung with great spirit and prayer offered, Mr. D. P. Smith made a thoughtful and eloquent address on life work and individual responsibility. Miss Hagar Jones rendered very sweetly the soprano solo, "Good Bye," which was the subject of the address.

THE STUDENTS MEETING.

Class Day at L. D. S. College Fittingly Observed.

The students had a real treat and surprise in store for the friends who visited the Latter-day Saints' College assembly room yesterday afternoon to witness their program. After the college song had been sung with great spirit and prayer offered, Mr. D. P. Smith made a thoughtful and eloquent address on life work and individual responsibility. Miss Hagar Jones rendered very sweetly the soprano solo, "Good Bye," which was the subject of the address.

THE STUDENTS MEETING.

Class Day at L. D. S. College Fittingly Observed.

The students had a real treat and surprise in store for the friends who visited the Latter-day Saints' College assembly room yesterday afternoon to witness their program. After the college song had been sung with great spirit and prayer offered, Mr. D. P. Smith made a thoughtful and eloquent address on life work and individual responsibility. Miss Hagar Jones rendered very sweetly the soprano solo, "Good Bye," which was the subject of the address.

THE STUDENTS MEETING.

Class Day at L. D. S. College Fittingly Observed.

The students had a real treat and surprise in store for the friends who visited the Latter-day Saints' College assembly room yesterday afternoon to witness their program. After the college song had been sung with great spirit and prayer offered, Mr. D. P. Smith made a thoughtful and eloquent address on life work and individual responsibility. Miss Hagar Jones rendered very sweetly the soprano solo, "Good Bye," which was the subject of the address.

ALMA O. TAYLOR

IS THE VICTOR.

Young Man From Thirteenth Ward Wins in Oratorical Contest.

OWEN IS A CLOSE SECOND.

Large Audience Listens to the Youthful Orators—All the Efforts Are Exceptionally Strong—Eliot Third.

In the oratorical contest held in the Assembly hall last night Alma O. Taylor was pronounced the winner and was given the Boyd-Rand cup. The young man, who is scarcely nineteen years of age, acquitted himself with a finish of rhetoric and oratorical style that was truly remarkable. That the audience seconded the decision of the judges was manifest in the applause that followed the announcement of the decision. The judges honored Rulon M. Owen by naming him as a close second and David H. Elton as a close third. Harrison E. Jenkins was given fourth place, and Eliot third.

THE STUDENTS MEETING.

Class Day at L. D. S. College Fittingly Observed.

The students had a real treat and surprise in store for the friends who visited the Latter-day Saints' College assembly room yesterday afternoon to witness their program. After the college song had been sung with great spirit and prayer offered, Mr. D. P. Smith made a thoughtful and eloquent address on life work and individual responsibility. Miss Hagar Jones rendered very sweetly the soprano solo, "Good Bye," which was the subject of the address.

THE STUDENTS MEETING.

Class Day at L. D. S. College Fittingly Observed.

The students had a real treat and surprise in store for the friends who visited the Latter-day Saints' College assembly room yesterday afternoon to witness their program. After the college song had been sung with great spirit and prayer offered, Mr. D. P. Smith made a thoughtful and eloquent address on life work and individual responsibility. Miss Hagar Jones rendered very sweetly the soprano solo, "Good Bye," which was the subject of the address.

THE STUDENTS MEETING.

Class Day at L. D. S. College Fittingly Observed.

The students had a real treat and surprise in store for the friends who visited the Latter-day Saints' College assembly room yesterday afternoon to witness their program. After the college song had been sung with great spirit and prayer offered, Mr. D. P. Smith made a thoughtful and eloquent address on life work and individual responsibility. Miss Hagar Jones rendered very sweetly the soprano solo, "Good Bye," which was the subject of the address.

THE STUDENTS MEETING.

Class Day at L. D. S. College Fittingly Observed.

The students had a real treat and surprise in store for the friends who visited the Latter-day Saints' College assembly room yesterday afternoon to witness their program. After the college song had been sung with great spirit and prayer offered, Mr. D. P. Smith made a thoughtful and eloquent address on life work and individual responsibility. Miss Hagar Jones rendered very sweetly the soprano solo, "Good Bye," which was the subject of the address.

THE STUDENTS MEETING.

Class Day at L. D. S. College Fittingly Observed.

The students had a real treat and surprise in store for the friends who visited the Latter-day Saints' College assembly room yesterday afternoon to witness their program. After the college song had been sung with great spirit and prayer offered, Mr. D. P. Smith made a thoughtful and eloquent address on life work and individual responsibility. Miss Hagar Jones rendered very sweetly the soprano solo, "Good Bye," which was the subject of the address.

THE STUDENTS MEETING.

Class Day at L. D. S. College Fittingly Observed.

The students had a real treat and surprise in store for the friends who visited the Latter-day Saints' College assembly room yesterday afternoon to witness their program. After the college song had been sung with great spirit and prayer offered, Mr. D. P. Smith made a thoughtful and eloquent address on life work and individual responsibility. Miss Hagar Jones rendered very sweetly the soprano solo, "Good Bye," which was the subject of the address.

THE STUDENTS MEETING.

Class Day at L. D. S. College Fittingly Observed.

The students had a real treat and surprise in store for the friends who visited the Latter-day Saints' College assembly room yesterday afternoon to witness their program. After the college song had been sung with great spirit and prayer offered, Mr. D. P. Smith made a thoughtful and eloquent address on life work and individual responsibility. Miss Hagar Jones rendered very sweetly the soprano solo, "Good Bye," which was the subject of the address.

THE STUDENTS MEETING.

Class Day at L. D. S. College Fittingly Observed.

The students had a real treat and surprise in store for the friends who visited the Latter-day Saints' College assembly room yesterday afternoon to witness their program. After the college song had been sung with great spirit and prayer offered, Mr. D. P. Smith made a thoughtful and eloquent address on life work and individual responsibility. Miss Hagar Jones rendered very sweetly the soprano solo, "Good Bye," which was the subject of the address.

MRS. BARRATT HONORED.

Students of L. D. S. College Serenade Their Benefactress.

Yesterday afternoon at half past four several hundred students of the Latter-day Saints' College, marched in line from the college building to the residence of Mrs. Barratt home, and sang the college song, ending with the words addressed to their Alma Mater: "Thy sons and daughters, we'll march on." We're true to thee and thee; Under the song of victory we'll march on. "Thy sons and daughters, we'll march on." We're true to thee and thee; Under the song of victory we'll march on.

GOES TO CANADIAN LINE.

Great Northern Acquires Control of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Fields and Vast Timber Interests.

Great Falls, Mont., June 6.—The organization of the Montana and Great Northern Railway company, articles of incorporation of which were filed today, confirms the rumors of the past six months that the Great Northern had acquired control of the Crow's Nest Pass coal fields, across the line and of vast timber interests in the northwest part of this state. James N. Hill, T. T. Sawyer and M. D. Grover, of Minnesota, and G. T. Gross and I. Parker Veasey, of Montana, are the incorporators of the new road, which is practically an extension of the Great Northern into its newly acquired possession. The capital stock is $10,000,000 divided into 100,000 shares of a par value of $100 each, full paid and non-assessable. The proposed road is to extend from Jennings, Mont., on the Great Northern main line, north in the direction of the Canadian boundary and thence to the Crow's Nest country.

VARIOUS COURT CASES.

B. B. Quinn has commenced suit against Mrs. S. W. Riddle and Elsie Riddle, proprietors of "The Halls" for $200. Quinn claims that the Riddles made a contract with W. J. Bagan, to pay him a commission of $500 for finding a purchaser for hotel and furniture. When a purchaser was produced, however, the Riddles refused to pay Bagan's claim, passed into Quinn's hands, and he is now calling in the aid of the district court to aid him to collect the amount.

VARIOUS COURT CASES.

The will of Rufus Forbush, who died at Union on May 29th, was filed for probate yesterday afternoon by his son, Hyrum, who is named as executor. The estate is valued at $8,000, of which $5,000 is in real estate, and is left to be equally divided among two sons, Hyrum H. and Loren E. Forbush. Loren E. Forbush, a grandson, Rufus F. Forbush. The petition will be heard on June 21st.

VARIOUS COURT CASES.

Eliza Beverley's damage suit for $5,000 against the Rio Grand Western Railway company for the death of her husband, has been compromised by the defendant company, who agreed to pay Mrs. Beverley $700 and $100 costs.

VARIOUS COURT CASES.

Annie Burrows was yesterday afternoon granted a divorce from Elbert T. Burrows on recommendation of Referee Armstrong, who took the testimony of Judge Hall. The divorce was granted on the ground that the husband had deserted his wife two years ago and refused to support her or his child. The marriage was in Salt Lake on April 12, 1897.

VARIOUS COURT CASES.

The senior class of the High School entertained its friends last evening in the assembly hall of the high school building. The hall was tastefully decorated with the senior colors, blue and white, and a few suggestions of the most of the class were present. The program was most excellent. After an opening song Class President Frank Edgingfield presided. The program was most excellent. After an opening song Class President Frank Edgingfield presided.

VARIOUS COURT CASES.

Now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a certain remedy for all ailments of the bowels, and is a character for its safety and effectiveness. It is a character for its safety and effectiveness. It is a character for its safety and effectiveness.

VARIOUS COURT CASES.

Now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a certain remedy for all ailments of the bowels, and is a character for its safety and effectiveness. It is a character for its safety and effectiveness. It is a character for its safety and effectiveness.

VARIOUS COURT CASES.

Now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a certain remedy for all ailments of the bowels, and is a character for its safety and effectiveness. It is a character for its safety and effectiveness. It is a character for its safety and effectiveness.

VARIOUS COURT CASES.

Now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a certain remedy for all ailments of the bowels, and is a character for its safety and effectiveness. It is a character for its safety and effectiveness. It is a character for its safety and effectiveness.

VARIOUS COURT CASES.

Now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a certain remedy for all ailments of the bowels, and is a character for its safety and effectiveness. It is a character for its safety and effectiveness. It is a character for its safety and effectiveness.

J. J. HILL IS STILL

LAUNCHING OUT.

Organizes Another $10,000,000 Railroad Co. in Montana.

GOES TO CANADIAN LINE.

Great Northern Acquires Control of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Fields and Vast Timber Interests.

Great Falls, Mont., June 6.—The organization of the Montana and Great Northern Railway company, articles of incorporation of which were filed today, confirms the rumors of the past six months that the Great Northern had acquired control of the Crow's Nest Pass coal fields, across the line and of vast timber interests in the northwest part of this state. James N. Hill, T. T. Sawyer and M. D. Grover, of Minnesota, and G. T. Gross and I. Parker Veasey, of Montana, are the incorporators of the new road, which is practically an extension of the Great Northern into its newly acquired possession. The capital stock is $10,000,000 divided into 100,000 shares of a par value of $100 each, full paid and non-assessable. The proposed road is to extend from Jennings, Mont., on the Great Northern main line, north in the direction of the Canadian boundary and thence to the Crow's Nest country.

GOES TO CANADIAN LINE.

Great Northern Acquires Control of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Fields and Vast Timber Interests.

Great Falls, Mont., June 6.—The organization of the Montana and Great Northern Railway company, articles of incorporation of which were filed today, confirms the rumors of the past six months that the Great Northern had acquired control of the Crow's Nest Pass coal fields, across the line and of vast timber interests in the northwest part of this state. James N. Hill, T. T. Sawyer and M. D. Grover, of Minnesota, and G. T. Gross and I. Parker Veasey, of Montana, are the incorporators of the new road, which is practically an extension of the Great Northern into its newly acquired possession. The capital stock is $10,000,000 divided into 100,000 shares of a par value of $100 each, full paid and non-assessable. The proposed road is to extend from Jennings, Mont., on the Great Northern main line, north in the direction of the Canadian boundary and thence to the Crow's Nest country.

GOES TO CANADIAN LINE.

Great Northern Acquires Control of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Fields and Vast Timber Interests.

Great Falls, Mont., June 6.—The organization of the Montana and Great Northern Railway company, articles of incorporation of which were filed today, confirms the rumors of the past six months that the Great Northern had acquired control of the Crow's Nest Pass coal fields, across the line and of vast timber interests in the northwest part of this state. James N. Hill, T. T. Sawyer and M. D. Grover, of Minnesota, and G. T. Gross and I. Parker Veasey, of Montana, are the incorporators of the new road, which is practically an extension of the Great Northern into its newly acquired possession. The capital stock is $10,000,000 divided into 100,000 shares of a par value of $100 each, full paid and non-assessable. The proposed road is to extend from Jennings, Mont., on the Great Northern main line, north in the direction of the Canadian boundary and thence to the Crow's Nest country.

GOES TO CANADIAN LINE.

Great Northern Acquires Control of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Fields and Vast Timber Interests.

Great Falls, Mont., June 6.—The organization of the Montana and Great Northern Railway company, articles of incorporation of which were filed today, confirms the rumors of the past six months that the Great Northern had acquired control of the Crow's Nest Pass coal fields, across the line and of vast timber interests in the northwest part of this state. James N. Hill, T. T. Sawyer and M. D. Grover, of Minnesota, and G. T. Gross and I. Parker Veasey, of Montana, are the incorporators of the new road, which is practically an extension of the Great Northern into its newly acquired possession. The capital stock is $10,000,000 divided into 100,000 shares of a par value of $100 each, full paid and non-assessable. The proposed road is to extend from Jennings, Mont., on the Great Northern main line, north in the direction of the Canadian boundary and thence to the Crow's Nest country.

GOES TO CANADIAN LINE.

Great Northern Acquires Control of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Fields and Vast Timber Interests.

Great Falls, Mont., June 6.—The organization of the Montana and Great Northern Railway company, articles of incorporation of which were filed today, confirms the rumors of the past six months that the Great Northern had acquired control of the Crow's Nest Pass coal fields, across the line and of vast timber interests in the northwest part of this state. James N. Hill, T. T. Sawyer and M. D. Grover, of Minnesota, and G. T. Gross and I. Parker Veasey, of Montana, are the incorporators of the new road, which is practically an extension of the Great Northern into its newly acquired possession. The capital stock is $10,000,000 divided into 100,000 shares of a par value of $100 each, full paid and non-assessable. The proposed road is to extend from Jennings, Mont., on the Great Northern main line, north in the direction of the Canadian boundary and thence to the Crow's Nest country.

GOES TO CANADIAN LINE.

Great Northern Acquires Control of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Fields and Vast Timber Interests.

Great Falls, Mont., June 6.—The organization of the Montana and Great Northern Railway company, articles of incorporation of which were filed today, confirms the rumors of the past six months that the Great Northern had acquired control of the Crow's Nest Pass coal fields, across the line and of vast timber interests in the northwest part of this state. James N. Hill, T. T. Sawyer and M. D. Grover, of Minnesota, and G. T. Gross and I. Parker Veasey, of Montana, are the incorporators of the new road, which is practically an extension of the Great Northern into its newly acquired possession. The capital stock is $10,000,000 divided into 100,000 shares of a par value of $100 each, full paid and non-assessable. The proposed road is to extend from Jennings, Mont., on the Great Northern main line, north in the direction of the Canadian boundary and thence to the Crow's Nest country.

GOES TO CANADIAN LINE.

Great Northern Acquires Control of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Fields and Vast Timber Interests.

Great Falls, Mont., June 6.—The organization of the Montana and Great Northern Railway company, articles of incorporation of which were filed today, confirms the rumors of the past six months that the Great Northern had acquired control of the Crow's Nest Pass coal fields, across the line and of vast timber interests in the northwest part of this state. James N. Hill, T. T. Sawyer and M. D. Grover, of Minnesota, and G. T. Gross and I. Parker Veasey, of Montana, are the incorporators of the new road, which is practically an extension of the Great Northern into its newly acquired possession. The capital stock is $10,000,000 divided into 100,000 shares of a par value of $100 each, full paid and non-assessable. The proposed road is to extend from Jennings, Mont., on the Great Northern main line, north in the direction of the Canadian boundary and thence to the Crow's Nest country.

GOES TO CANADIAN LINE.

Great Northern Acquires Control of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Fields and Vast Timber Interests.

Great Falls, Mont., June 6.—The organization of the Montana and Great Northern Railway company, articles of incorporation of which were filed today, confirms the rumors of the past six months that the Great Northern had acquired control of the Crow's Nest Pass coal fields, across the line and of vast timber interests in the northwest part of this state. James N. Hill, T. T. Sawyer and M. D. Grover, of Minnesota, and G. T. Gross and I. Parker Veasey, of Montana, are the incorporators of the new road, which is practically an extension of the Great Northern into its newly acquired possession. The capital stock is $10,000,000 divided into 100,000 shares of a par value of $100 each, full paid and non-assessable. The proposed road is to extend from Jennings, Mont., on the Great Northern main line, north in the direction of the Canadian boundary and thence to the Crow's Nest country.

GOES TO CANADIAN LINE.

Great Northern Acquires Control of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Fields and Vast Timber Interests.

Great Falls, Mont., June 6.—The organization of the Montana and Great Northern Railway company, articles of incorporation of which were filed today, confirms the rumors of the past six months that the Great Northern had acquired control of the Crow's Nest Pass coal fields, across the line and of vast timber interests in the northwest part of this state. James N. Hill, T. T. Sawyer and M. D. Grover, of Minnesota, and G. T. Gross and I. Parker Veasey, of Montana, are the incorporators of the new road, which is practically an extension of the Great Northern into its newly acquired possession. The capital stock is $10,000,000 divided into 100,000 shares of a par value of $100 each, full paid and non-assessable. The proposed road is to extend from Jennings, Mont., on the Great Northern main line, north in the direction of the Canadian boundary and thence to the Crow's Nest country.

PRIESTHOOD MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the Priesthood of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion will convene in the Assembly Hall, Salt Lake City, on Friday, June 7th, 1891, at 7 o'clock p. m.

SALT LAKE TEMPLE.

The Salt Lake Temple will close Friday evening, June 29th, and reopen on Monday, Aug. 5th, 1891.

Wise Words from Wise Minds.

He who invests one dollar in business should invest one dollar in advertising that business.

Write them on the Lining of your brain.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.

FARMS IN SALT LAKE CO., ONE TO trade County property. H. M. Pearson, real estate agent, Sandy, Utah.

LOW RATES TO BUFFALO EXPOSITION.

Via the Nickel Plate Road. Three through trains daily, with vestibule sleeping cars and excellent dining