The Breach of Contract Suit .-The case of the London. Bank of for alleged breach of contract, is still in progress in the District Court. A motion for a non suit was made arguments thereon have occupied the whole of the day up to last accounts.

Arizona Wheat and Barley .-Elder David P. Kimball, of Jonesville, Maricopa County, Arizona, sends us some very fine specimens of wheat and barley from the fields of that settlement. The wheat is of two kinds, the "Sonora" and the "Seven-headed" varieties, and was raised by a Papago Indian, a neighbor of Brother Kimball's. The barley is from his own field. Crops of all kinds look well. Grape vines and trees are flourishing. The wheat and barley sent us certainly speak well for the productive nature of the soil in Arizona. They are among the nicest specimens we have ever seen.

We are informed that at Weston, Idaho, before the last snow storm and freezing weather, myriads of crickets had hatched out, and threatened the entire destruction of the grain at that place, but since he storm scarcely any of the insects have been seen. "It's an ill wind that blows no one good."

The rolling stock of the U. &. N. R. R. is now being worked to its fullest capacity. All trains are running daily, and besides this, it has become necessary to frequently run special trains. Since the 6th inst. 350 car loads, of freight have been delivered at Red Rock, and a very uncommonly large local business has been carried on during this time.

Sub-Irrigation. — This morning, we had the pleasure of examining and witnessing the operation of an ingenious apparatus for sub-irrigation purposes, invented by a Mr. Hamilton of Los Angeles, California, and now sold by the Asbestine Sub-Irrigation Company of that city. Messrs. Hamilton and Grove, representing the company, are staying in Salt Lake a week or two for the purpose of exhibiting the machine, explaining their system of irrigation, and selling rights of use to parties desiring to purchase. Their machines may be seen at Morris and Evans' yard, at the rear of Z. C. M. I., and will well repay a visit of inspection.
