

AN ARMED REVOLT IN IRELAND.

John Redmond Would Advise His Countrymen to Start One if It
Had a Chance of Success.

THE HOME RULE QUESTION.

Irish Unionist Member Brought It Up
To Develop the Liberal Position
On the Same.

London, April 12.—Home rule for Ireland was the subject of discussion at tonight's session of the house of commons. It came up on the motion of an Irish Unionist member, framed with the purpose of drawing out Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman (Liberal), and with the expectation that the opposition would evade the issue, as the government has the fiscal question. For the last few weeks the ministerial benches have been empty on private members' night, but tonight the government was represented. Premier Balfour was greeted with ironical cheers when he entered the house.

It was the first time this session that an Irish Unionist had secured a chance to introduce a home rule motion. The opposition declined to dodge the issue and to imitate the government's recent attitude toward private motions on the fiscal question, and when Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman rose to speak the opposition shouted in unison: "He didn't run away."

Mr. Tuft (Conservative) called the attention of the house to the record of the government's policy on the question of home rule for Ireland, and moved that "in view of the conflicting statements by various leaders on the subject of home rule, the house do deem it expedient for the member for Strilburg (Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman), to explicitly declare whether or not it is his intention to recommend to the electors at the United Kingdom the policy of establishing a parliament in Ireland." The motion was later seconded.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman spoke at some length, and sarcastically and caustically touched the sore spots of the government, and congratulated Mr. Balfour on his presence in the house tonight, when an abstract motion was being introduced, which would not come before this parliament.

The speaker declined to give a direct reply to the motion. He said it was not necessary to relate the record of the Liberal party, which for 20 years had labored unceasingly to secure good government for Ireland.

He said the principle underlying these efforts was that self government should be granted. He would endeavor to bring this to a successful issue, but in what way and by what plan it was preposterous to ask him to say. He believed the present situation of the motion was to afford the Unionists an opportunity to disport themselves with some evidence of unity.

John E. Redmond, who followed, declared that Ireland demanded home rule, not as a favor, but as a right. If there were the smallest reasonable chance of success he would not hesitate to advise his countrymen to end the present situation by an armed revolt, but they desired to terminate the ancient quarrel upon terms satisfactory and honorable to both nations. He thanked Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman for his declaration, but said the Radical party would find this question an urgent and insistent one, which would knock loudly at the door of the next parliament.

Premier Balfour spoke briefly, alluding ironically to the dissensions of the opposition leaders on the Irish policy, and declaring that if the Liberals returned a large majority at the next elections Irishmen might whistle, but if they emerged with a small majority they would cry in heaven's name for justice to Ireland.

It being now midnight, Mr. Tuft invoked closure, which the speaker refused to apply, and the debate was adjourned.

ERLANGER DENIES BELASCO'S STATEMENT

New York, April 12.—The charge made by David Belasco, the playwright, in the trial of his suit to establish his partnership with Kluge & Erlanger was his real partners in the co-partnership that starred David Warfield in "The Auctioneer," that Abraham L. Erlanger had threatened to drive him out of the theatrical business and crush him, was denied today by Erlanger, who said:

"I had Belasco come to my house one Sunday afternoon. He said: 'Mr. Frohman is trying to crush me and

Suffering

Will Not Help Your Disease, but Will Weaken Your Nerves.

Folk who think it is better to bear pain than soothe it—are wrong. Old-fashioned doctors used to say it was better, because they had nothing with which to ease pain but dangerous, heart-paralyzing drugs.

But now, that a safe remedy has been found, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, it is wrong to suffer, for nothing can be gained but weakened nerves.

A safe rule to remember is: When in pain, take an Anti-Pain Pill. This will soothe your quivering nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve pain by restoring the natural secretions, in which they differ from opium and similar narcotic drugs, which relieve pain by checking the action of the glands.

They are sure and harmless, and are the latest medical treatment for the cure of Headache, Neuralgia, Backache, Rheumatism, Dizziness, Toothache, Stomachache, Menstrual (Monthly) Pains. Also nerve irritations like Sea-Sickness, Car-Sickness, Sleeplessness, Indigestion, etc.

Pleasant to take, quick in results. "I have used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for sick, nervous headache, and have received the best results. I heartily recommend their curative properties, for they are successful."—REV. RAY A. WATSON, D. D., Iowa City, Ia. Sold by druggists at 25c. Money back if first box does not help. NO TONGUE CAN TELL How I Suffered with Itching and Bleeding Eczema UNTIL CURED BY CUTICURA

"No tongue can tell how I suffered for five years with a terribly painful, itching, and bleeding eczema, my body and face being covered with sores. Never in my life did I experience such awful suffering, and I longed for death, which I felt was near. I had tried doctors and medicines without success, but my mother insisted that I try Cuticura. I felt better after the first bath with Cuticura Soap, and one application of Cuticura Ointment, and was soon entirely well. (signed) Mrs. A. Etson, Bellevue, Mich."

drive me out of the theatrical business. I told him that he must begin with me. I did not want to be discourteous to him in my own house, but that I would not allow him to traduce one of my partners. I told him, 'The trouble with you, Belasco, is that you never get along with the people with whom you form associations.' Erlanger said he told Belasco that he had no confidence in David Warfield as a star. He denied that he ever said that he was the 'great mogul of the theatrical profession.' He insisted that Belasco should have no trouble in booking his stars in independent theatres and taking down Hackett as an illustration, named theatres in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, New Orleans, Chicago and San Francisco not controlled by the combination where Hackett could be placed for a season's run.

NEGRO ASSAULTS WHITE WOMAN AT COFFEYVILLE

Coffeyville, Kan., April 12.—A race war has narrowly been averted here as the result of an assault by a negro upon Mrs. John Griffith, white, the wife of a machinist, and serious trouble is still likely. Negroes of the worst class have been ordered to leave town before night. In anticipation of a clash between the two races, the mayor today issued a proclamation ordering that all citizens disarm, and at the same time many special officers were sworn in. Since the negro's attack upon Mrs. Griffith, fellow negroes have been arming themselves, the lynching of any innocent negro, as seemed likely, and early today an attempt to disarm a number of blacks resulted in a dozen revolvers being leveled at Chief of Police Smith's head. Other negroes rushed to the scene, when a body of whites stopped them with leveled rifles. The leader among the negroes was choked into insensibility and the others were subdued, trouble being averted for the time being. Many arrests were made. The negro who assaulted Mrs. Griffith is still at large.

After the arrest of nine of their ringleaders the negroes began to leave the streets. Six more negroes were later arrested without trouble. Four hundred deputies were sworn in today with order to shoot on the slightest provocation. No negro was to be found on the streets after 6 o'clock. White people are patrolling the streets tonight and they say they are determined to rid the town of bad negroes.

A report comes late tonight from Lenape, 12 miles south of here in the Indian Territory, that the negro who assaulted Mrs. Griffith Tuesday morning has been run down and captured. The news causes much excitement here, and a renewal of lynching threats has been made.

Woman Makes Murderous Attack

Spokane, Wash., April 12.—Mrs. Bertha Fowler is under arrest at St. Andrews, Wash., accused of a murderous attack upon Miss Bertha Fowler, whom she accused of secretly meeting her husband. Mrs. Fowler met the girl in the postoffice at St. Andrews after lunch, and attacked her with a sharp case knife, stabbing her five times near the heart. The girl may die. The woman, it is understood, was not related.

Heavy Rain in Arizona

Phoenix, Ariz., April 12.—For two or three days it has been raining heavily in Arizona. Early this morning 300 feet of the pile structure built to repair the Phoenix & Eastern Railway bridge over Salt river at Tempe was washed away. Salt river is still high tonight and some fear it expressed for the Maricopa & Phoenix Railway bridge at Tempe. Reports from the Roosevelt dam site are that the river is higher than at any time this year and is fully as high at the Arizona canal dam as at any previous time.

Bryan in a New Role.

Lincoln, Neb., April 12.—W. J. Bryan assumed a new role at the auditorium when he appeared as one of the attractions of the musical spectacular piece "Americana," which was put on by the Lincoln band, now on tour to the Portland exposition.

Mr. Bryan rendered the argument preceding "Americana," which is a history of the song of the Civil War. He was liberally applauded by an audience that packed the auditorium. "Americana" is Innes' latest composition and is to be a feature of the exposition at Portland.

Munsterberg Declines Call.

Cambridge, Mass., April 12.—Prof. Hugo Munsterberg, professor of psychology at Harvard university, today announced to the Associated Press that he had declined a call to the chair of philosophy and psychology at the University of Konigsberg, Germany.

Portland Woodmen Off.

Portland, Or., April 13.—A large delegation of members of the Woodmen of the World left this city to be present at the head camp of the order which meets at Los Angeles, April 18. The Woodmen occupy a special section of seven cars. The members of the uniform rank which accompany the Woodmen are among the best drilled of the order.

Shot Mother and Son.

St. Paul, Minn., April 13.—William Williams, 38 years of age, a steam fitter, entered the home of Frederick S. Keller early today and after some parleying shot John Keller, 16 years old, as he lay in bed, and then turned his revolver on the boy's mother. Both victims are fatally hurt. No reason for the shooting is known.

Col. Nicholas Pike Dead.

New York, April 13.—Col. Nicholas Pike, a naturalist, author of a "Life of George Washington" and many scientific works, is dead from paralysis. He was 87 years old. For many years he served as consul of the island of Mauritius, and later was consul general to Portugal.

On his travels, Col. Pike made a noted collection of flora and fauna and turned his Brooklyn home into a veritable museum. He was a relative of Capt. Pike, for whom Pike's peak was named.

REFORM LEAGUE FOR RUSSIA.

Lawyers, Doctors, Teachers, Engineers, and Other Professional Classes Propose to Form One.

ITS OBJECTS ARE POLITICAL.

Democratization of Government and
Institution of a Representative Parliament.

St. Petersburg, April 12, 1:15 a. m.—The formation of a national professional reform league to unite the activities of lawyers, doctors, teachers, engineers and other professional classes of Russia to bring about the democratization of the government and the institution of a representative parliament and a responsible ministry, is the ambitious project set on foot by the National Congress of Lawyers, which finished its work here last night. The plan proposed is the formation of national associations of the various professional classes, each of which shall elect delegates to a central bureau, which is to direct and co-ordinate the efforts of the "intellectuals" in the direction of reforms.

The leaders of the movement declare that their plans do not contemplate any assault on the monarchical form of government or disloyalty to the emperor, but the elimination of absolutism and the establishment of participation by the governed in the direction of affairs, and especially in certain matters, as the budget and taxation; and the point of the rejection, though by a small majority, of a resolution committing the assembly to extra legal measures to overthrow the existing order, and bring about a democratic and legal mode of government in Russia.

The delegates met, in accordance with secret arrangements, at different private houses, assembling before the arrival of the police, and disregarding orders to cease their sessions. At yesterday's session, however, the police promptly placed a cordon around the house in which the delegates were to meet, and prevented all but 15 from entering, and sent word to those that all delegates not residents of St. Petersburg must leave the city immediately.

As the congress had finished its program, adjournment sine die was pronounced, the lawyers, as a final thrust, drafting a statement to the effect that the delegates from each provincial zemstvo have been invited. It is reported that an endeavor will be made to align the moderates with the nobility in favor of reforms without going to the length of the constitutionalism of western Europe.

Another zemstvo congress has been called to meet in Moscow on May 8, in which representatives of the nobility also will participate. From three to five delegates from each provincial zemstvo have been invited. It is reported that an endeavor will be made to align the moderates with the nobility in favor of reforms without going to the length of the constitutionalism of western Europe.

MEAT PRICES GO UP.

Packers Advance It Two Cents a Pound.

New York, April 13.—Prices of all kinds of meat have begun to rise in New York because of a reported increase cost to dealers of about two cents a pound. This advance in dressing of beef by the packers means a corresponding increase of from four to six cents per pound at retail on the average grade of sirloin steak, porterhouse steak and prime ribs of roast beef.

Retail dealers say they received notice of the first advance ten days ago but postponed an advance to their customers. However, on receiving notice of a further raise next week, it was found necessary to make a change in retail prices.

Meetings of the Retail Butchers and Meat Dealers' Protective association will be held in all the boroughs, to take action. The Brooklyn branch of the association already has met and discussed the situation. Several speakers bitterly denounced the packers who were alleged to be taking concerted action. It was declared that, while the advance of retail prices was attributed to falling off in supplies of cattle at the Chicago stock yards, no such falling off had taken place, and that the raising of prices was entirely unjustified.

"BACK TO THE PEOPLE."

That is to be New Battle Cry of Democratic Party.

New York, April 12.—Congressman Henry T. Rainey of Illinois has been the chief speaker at a Jefferson dinner given here by the Harlem Democratic club. He declared the new battle cry of the Democratic party to be "Back to the people," and applied it to the regulation of all public utilities. In this connection he said: "It is found impossible to regulate and control these public utilities, so that they are the servants, not the masters, of the people. Chicago has pointed out the way. Rather than submit to railroad ownership of the instruments of government the people will demand and have government ownership of the railroads."

STRUCK OUT.

Ball Player Ruptures Blood Vessel When Striking at Ball.

New York, April 13.—William Garrison is dead at his home in Camden, N. J., from a peculiar injury received while playing ball. Last Saturday Garrison made a swing at a pitched ball. He missed, and his momentum was so great that he spun around three times. Apparently, Garrison felt no ill effects until several days later when he was taken ill and the physicians found that one of the main blood vessels of the stomach had been ruptured. Nothing could be done then to save his life.
