MOUNT PLEASANT.

SHOCKING DEATH ON RAIL.

Old Lady Killed Instantly by Locome tive-Successful Institute.

Mt. Pleasant, Nov. 24.—Yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock, Mrs. Maria Lindburg, an aged wifew of 77 years and 6 months, who resided in the northwest part of town, was ibstantly killed by being knocked from the railroad track by a locomotive of the D. & R. G. passenger train going north. The accident happened a half mile north of the Mt. Pleasant station.

Mrs. Mattie Nielsen, who resides east of the railroad track about 15 yards, was in her yards and saw Mrs. Lindburg walking about the center of the railroad track going south as the train was moving north, and she distinctly heard the engineer's warning whistle about 50 or 100 yards before the engine struck Mrs. Lindburg. From this eye-witness it is learned that Mrs. Lindburg made no effort to get off the track.

The body was thrown to the west side f the track, about 20 or 25 feet. The
