CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Washington, 23.—Conflicting reports regarding the relations reported with amendments the House joint resolution, suggesting the intercession of the President in the case of M. C. Jones, now confined in an English prison. He asked for present consideration.

Edwards said he would like to examine it, and asked that it be laid over until tomorrow. So ordered.

The report on a number of bills of unimportant character, the Senate resumed the consideration of the articles of impeachment against Belknap with closed doors.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 23.—Immediately after the reading of the journals, the House adjourned until tomorrow, when, in the chair, on the naval appropriation bill.

Piper offered an amendment to the bill, to be read in the morning, in favor of the nomination of M. C. Jones, for general purposes, and the House adjourned until tomorrow, when the bill will be taken up.

Luttrell enumerated the advantages of the proposed amendment, offering the amendment, which he knew he (Luttrell) intended to offer, in the House.

Piper said he knew nothing of the kind.

Wait opposed the discontinuance of the bill, and the House adjourned until tomorrow, when the bill will be taken up.

Mr. Lewis also spoke in support of his amendment offered yesterday. Randall proposed a substitute to the section proposing to hold certain navy yard commissions, to consist of five naval officers to examine and report what yards, if any, can be dispensed with, and report the same to the House.

This was carried by a large majority.

The bill to amend the act relating to the appropriation bill was then discussed for a time.

EASTERN.

CHICAGO, 23.—

In the whiskey trial, Mr. Ayer concluded his argument for the prosecution, and the jury were excused until tomorrow morning, when Judge Blodgett will deliver his charge.

A young man, named Mays, living in Boston, succeeded in procuring a passport for himself, by passing himself off as a member of the Grand Pacific Hotel, while engaged in adjusting the bill.

THE WHISKEY TRIAL.

CHICAGO, 23.—The trial of the whiskey trial, Mr. Ayer concluded his argument for the prosecution, and the jury were excused until tomorrow morning, when Judge Blodgett will deliver his charge.

A young man, named Mays, living in Boston, succeeded in procuring a passport for himself, by passing himself off as a member of the Grand Pacific Hotel, while engaged in adjusting the bill.

WASHINGTON, 23.—

Ferguson was examined at great length today on the Louisiana matter, but nothing new was elicited. The testimony of Ferguson, Casey, Herring and others, declaring and showing that Ferguson's claim was not a bona fide one, and that the Louisiana matter was a mere scheme to defraud the Treasury Department with witness to identify the bogus pay rolls, and reported that although about six hundred dollars were paid out by the Treasury Department and examined by a witness, he was unable to identify the pay rolls.

At the outset session today the duration of the trial was nearly three hours, the reply of Fish to the Derby note was read. It is a document of great length and thoroughness, and is believed to be the best taken by the government upon the subject of the Winslow extradition. There was discussion on the general principle involved in the case. The cabinet decided to give extent the situation of affairs in the Black Hills country. Assurance has been given that an industrial bill of stock will be introduced which demands there and there is a rate in the Indian territory. All correspondence of that particular was referred to the Secretary of the Interior.

Alaska Seal Fishery.

The committee on ways and means will tomorrow hear the arguments of counsel on the seal fishery. The testimony of the various parties interested in the investigation of matters relative to the lease and present management of the Alaska Seal Fishery, which Mr. Orinman furnishes a detailed statement of the present possibilities of the fishery, and the committee will tomorrow give you a faithful and accurate delineation of the future of our own fishery, as well as every other one how existing, and how it can be best managed.
