PIOCHE, 6.—This a.m. a row took place, in which a man named Harrington, just from Arizona, was shot through the head. Mr. Lynch, a proprietor of Lynche's restaurant, and whose death is now hourly expected, was also shot. Mr. O'Neal, who, it is said, cannot live, was also shot. Frank Schooumaker, a well-known citizen of Pioche, was also, a ball entering his breast. His wound is not considered dangerous. A Mr. Sullivan was also shot, a ball entering his hip; his wound is not considered dangerous. The arrival of Sheriff Traves and officers on the ground prevented further bloodshed. It is impossible, at present, to give a correct version or particulars, but it is said to have been commenced by Harrington, who was intoxicated, picking up and throwing across the street a dog belonging to Schoonmaker. Harrington is now in jail.
