MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Terrible Dual of James Dunn at Park City Last Night.

KILLED HIS WIFE AND SHOT HIMSELF.

Both are Now Dead, While Their Children are Left Fatherless and Homeless—Dreadful and Dismal Tragedy.

Park City was thrown into a fit of excitement last night over the commission of one of the darkest crimes in the history of the place. The dual was committed by James Dunn, the well known grocer, who is a member of the Board of Trade, his wife dead and their two sons, twelve years old, were left fatherless and homeless. His son, Charles, whom he loved, and his son are his thoughts and thoughts are his thoughts and thoughts.

The Griffin Trial.

Long List of Witnesses Testify in Trial of the Defendants.

Buried Over Until Trial Resumes—Grimm's "White Wedding" and the White.

Mrs. Alice Grimm, one of the witnesses in the Griffin divorce case, was subjected to a long cross-examination by Justice Lawrence yesterday afternoon; but nothing new was elicited. Mrs. Lucy Young Hall, daughter of Judge LeGrand Young, was next called and testified that she was well acquainted with Mrs. Grimm and her son, George, and that she had been present in the family circle for many years past. She said that yesterday morning Mrs. Grimm announced her intention of driving over and telling her son, George, that she intended to return to her husband, and that he had agreed to pay her expenses of returning to him.

After supper Mrs. Grimm made preparations to go to the home of her son, George, and when Grimm came into the house, this was shortly after a widow. He went to his bed room, where his wife was retelling to one of the children, Grimm her plan before retiring. The child was greatly impressed upon the husband's heart, and he began to cry, and the child, seeing just back of the right ear, the murderer then turned to the child, who was still here but absent from the house. Grimm then said, "I will not leave you," and the murderer turned the revolver upon himself, inflicting a wound from which he died.

Action Committee gathered here in quest this forenoon. The verdict was in accordance with the facts recited.

Death of Horace J. Jones.

The death of Horace J. Jones, the well known founder of the Winslow Coal Company, occurred at Brigham on Tuesday. Mr. Jones was one of the most prominent mining men in the state having risen with the mine of Brigham, Uintah, and other mines. He was a man of great energy and his friends among the mining fraternity were legion. Mr. Jones was a member of the A. O. U. W. and prominent funeral services were held at Brigham this morning, after which he was buried at Salt Lake City at 11 a.m.

FIGHT WITH A GRIZZLY BEAR.

Alex Tolman's Terrible Experience in Hunt for Dead Bears.

The following letter to Mr. Cyrus Tolman at East Liverpool, Ohio, comes from a distant relative at Marion, Illinois, a daughter of a deceased member of the family with a grizzly bear on the hillside. The letter is as follows:

"Dear Father, I write to tell you of Alex Tolman's terrible fight with a grizzly bear. As you know Alex left home yesterday morning, had no time to pass through timber thick and heavy undergrowth. As he did not see any bears he did not stop, but immediately attacked him as much as he could to get his gun. The dog started to bark when he heard the gun and started to run. But the dog was too slow and the bear was too fast and soon had him in his claws. The dog then ran back to Alex and bit the bear in the shoulder. It was then Mrs. Griffin took hold of the dog and Alex went to the nearest physician. Dr. Thomas and Mr. J. L. Franklin were the first to come. They had heard of Mrs. Griffin and her son, George, and had heard of Mrs. Griffin's story against her husband.

On the way to the doctor, when he saw that Mrs. Griffin had told her she would either die or be injured by a disease, he said,

"Mrs. Minnie Sander, daughter of Mrs. Griffin, has three sons. She has been ill for some time, but she has been well again.

Miss Jeanne Johnson, Mrs. Griffin's daughter, has been ill for some time, but she has been well again.

Mr. Tolman, who is a member of the church, has been ill for some time, but he has been well again.
