MAHER SAILS FOR ENGLAND.

Little Danny is to Ride King Edward's Horses This Season.

The Jockey Says He Enjoys Riding in England and Expects a Successful Seasons

New York, Feb. 19.-Danny Maher the jockey who will ride for King Edward VII this season, will sail today on the St. Paul to keep his engagement. On his arrival at Southampton he will go immediately to Newmarket heath to report to Richard March, King Edward's trainer. "I anticipate a successful season," said Maher. "I am not familiar with the horses in Marsh's charge, but I have been informed that they are all above the average. "I enjoy riding in England very much and will continue to ride abroad as long as I am successful. I always have been treated fairly by the officials, trainers, jockeys an othe public, and I feel at home there.

'King Edward has second call on my services, but I expect to do the greatest amount of riding for his majesty because J. Cooper, who has first con tract, owns only a few horses. Mr Marsh trains for several men and probably shall ride all the horses in his SECOND WARD LECTURES Another Large Audience Assembled on Tuesday Evening.

A large and very attentive audience greeted Elder C. W. Penrose in the Second ward meetinghouse on Tuesday evening to hear the ninth lecture of the series which has been delivered there on the doctrines of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The subject selected for him was "Divinity of the Book of Mormon; Scriptural and Doctrinal Evidences."

The speaker entered at once upon his subject without preliminaries; gave a brief account of the coming of Lehl and his family, under commandment of God, to this continent about six hundred years before the Christian era. they being descendants of Joseph the son of Jacob. Also of the coming of Jared and his brother and family to this land, at the time of the scattering of the people from the Tower of Babel. He then quoted coplously from the Bible to show that the seed of Joseph, through Ephraim and Mannasseh, were

o inherit a land greater than that of Palestine to the "utmost bound of the everlasting hills"; that the "great things of the law" of God were to be "written to Ephraim"; that the book was to be brought forth from the ground and given to the world through the instrumentality of an unlearned person. He showed the fulfillment of these numerous predictions in the com ing forth of the Book of Mormon with those of the Bible, and argued that these two books were "the stick of Judah" and the "stick of Joseph," spoken of by the Prophet Ezekiel, each of which corroborated the other. He read from both records in support of the divinity of each, and bore a strong testimony to the truth, value and bene-fits of the Book of Mormon both to the cause of science and that of religion.

This evening, Bishop O. F. Whitney will deliver the tenth lecture of the series. His subject being "What Mor-monism has Accomplished." A gen-eral invitation is extended to the pub-

J. H. MORRIS GOES TO PROVO

Exciting Scene During the Hearing Before County Clerk John James This Afternoon.

During the examination of James H Morris as to his sanity this afternoon very exciting scene occurred which, but for the quick action of County Clerk James, who was conducting the examination, might have resulted in a more or less serious injury to Dr. Mayo at the hands of the demented man, Morris is an inmate of the Utah tate prison, being convicted in November, 1900, on the charge of housebreaking and sentenced to five years' imprisonment, but for the last eight days e has shown unmistakeable signs of nsanity and was brought in to be ex-united by the county clerk, and Dr. Mayo and A. C. Young for commitment quietly until Dr. Mayo asked the guards, Phiness H. Young and L. D. Martin, who brought the man in, if they knew whether or not any of Morrelatives had ever been ted for insanity and answered that they did not know, whereupon he turned to Morris and him the same question, jumped to his feet and swore at the doctor and made a grab for a heavy ink well which was on the desk, out Mr. James was too quick for him, and seized the well himself, at the same time he pushed the man back into his seat, where he was held by the guards, If the man had succeeded in getting the inkwell, Dr. Mayo would probably have received a serious injury The man was committed to the asy-

Any article of food that is no thoroughly digested becomes a source of disease and discomfort whether be fried onions of beef steak.

The reason why any wholesome food is not promptly digested is because the stomach lacks some important element of digestion, some stomachs lack pepone, others are deficient in gastri-uice, still others lack hydrochloric acid The one thing necessary to do in any case of poor digestion is to supply those elements of digestion which the stomach lacks, and nothing does this so thoroughly and safely as Stuart's Dysepsia Tablets. Dr. Richardson in writing a thesis on reatment of dyspepsia and indigestion, loses his remarks by saying, "for those suffering from acid dyspepsia, shown by sour, watery risings, or for flatuient dyspepsia shown by gas on stomach causing heart trouble and difficult breathing, as well as for all other forms of stomach trouble, the safest treatment is to take one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia. epsia Tablets after each meal. I acrise them because they contain n harmful drugs, but are composed of valuable digestives, which act promptly upon the food eaten. I never knew a case of digestion or even chronic dyspepsia which Stuart's Tablets would not reach."
