SUNDAY SERVICES.

The congregation was addressed by Elder H. W. Naisbit. He hoped for the spirit of God and the faith and prayers of the Saints to enable and prayers of the Saints to enable him to speak that which would be interesting and beneficial. Most of those present have had, with the speaker, that pleasant experience which belongs to the services of the Church; by the droppings of the sanctuary we have been fitted for the duties of life, and its difficulties and temptations have been sur-mounted by the spiritual food pro-vided of the Spirit through the Priesthood of God. There is a vast-ness and variety of human experiness and variety of human experi-ence—of personal history—which is of intense interest to the individual, and yet there are salient points in each which relieves it from sameness and causes in each to each that sympathy which is the bond of union and of peace. Many have received power to meet the future and cope with the present, from reflections upon the past. Our con-gregations surpass all other religious bodies in this personal experience and consequent spiritual knowledge.

Yet, if anything had been needed to confirm his faith, it had been afforded in travel cast and west from this Territory, also filling a mission in his native land, meet-ing old teachers, class leaders, min-isters and associates; these had fur-nished comparison; he had been able to contrast, and also to realize how much the people here are misunder-stood, how much belied even by those who claim to be well informed. In thus showing by experience that the Lord can bring a man "by a way which he hath not known to a city which he hath not known to a city which he hath roundations," he was cognizant of the fact that there are hosts in this Territory who have had greater manifestations and prob-ably ficher experience, yet he could testify that God lives and that His Son Jesus lives and a "the mathor, and finisher of our faith," that Joseph Smith was sent of God, a prophet to the nations and a re-storer of the ancient gospel with its ordinances, powers, bleasings, orga-nization and fruits. RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of Wm. J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a vIOLENT BLEMDING OF THE LUNGS followed by a se-vere cough I soon began to hose my appetite and fleeh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as Dig as a half dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.
