

In Social Realms

COMING AND GOING

One of the chief events of the week was the luncheon of Wednesday, given at the Country club by Miss Loren, Leary in honor of two of the fall brides, Miss Bess McMillan and Miss Rae Bartch, and the members of their bridal parties. Besides the guests of honor were Mrs. W. H. Child, Mrs. Raymond Masson, Mrs. S. C. Adams, Mrs. L. L. Savage, Mrs. F. C. Hartshorn, Miss Olive Bartch, Miss Allen McMillan, Miss Louise Sullivan and Miss Betsy Woodward of Raleigh, S. C.

Mrs. William Reid and Miss Aften Young entertained at an elaborate luncheon at the Country club during the week in honor of Mrs. Robert Gwynn Officer of Berkeley, Cal., who is visiting here and Mrs. Le Grande Young, Jr. There were invited to meet the guests of honor, Mrs. Haslem of Nebraska, Mrs. William Cunningham, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. James Jennings, Mrs. Selden Clawson, Mrs. Bauer and Miss Marge Miller.

Miss Winnifred Brice was also hostess at a large affair on Wednesday at the Country club, given in honor of Miss Prudence Trimble of Kansas City, Mo. Those invited to meet Miss Trimble were, Miss Elsie McMillan, Mrs. B. J. Roberts, Miss Alice Wall, Miss Mary Halloran, Miss Vera Edwards, Miss Irene Hanson, Miss Lillian Lane, Miss Bryan Houston, Miss Leigh Whittemore of Los Angeles, Miss Frances Cowan, Miss Calla Crane, Miss Edna Rivera of Los Angeles, Miss Marion Oberdorfer, Mrs. George T. Brice, chaperoned the party.

The Misses Hanauer were hostesses at a luncheon at the Country club Wednesday.

Miss Ivy Erskine entertained at an Orpheum party this afternoon in honor of Miss Mary Pickering, whose marriage to Thomas Brighten takes place early in September. Her guests numbered eight. Later the party went to Franklin's.

Mrs. W. S. Zehring entertained at the Altus club Tuesday, followed by a box party at the Orpheum in honor of Miss Margaret Lee of Notre Dame, Ind.

Miss Ethel Nettleton and Miss Pearl Durnell entertained at a musicale at the home of the latter Thursday evening, in honor of Miss Zora Shaw, who leaves today for a year's absence in New York.

Mrs. T. J. Groesbeck was hostess at a "500" party given in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Frank Brazelton, of Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. Burnetta Oppenheimer entertained seven tables at "500" Thursday evening. Miss Helen Cain assisted the hostess. Prizes were won by Miss Lucile Friedman, Miss Virginia Shannon and Miss Adelaide Jacobson.

Mrs. George Denny of Minneapolis, who is visiting Mrs. A. H. Boxrud, was guest of honor at a delightful luncheon Thursday at the home of the latter. Covers were laid for 20.

The Misses Felt entertained this afternoon at luncheon, followed by an Orpheum party in honor of Miss Green of Denver, Colo., who is visiting in this city.

Mrs. John Axton, Sr., is entertaining this afternoon for Mrs. John T. Axton, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cain will entertain at dinner this evening.

The San Francisco Chronicle contains the following: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Colvin left this week for a trip through the Northwest. They will visit Portland and Seattle, returning by way of Lake City. The invidious announcement of Miss Nellie Calvin's engagement to Dr. Curtiss was quite contrary to the wishes of the young lady, as she had planned to go to the college of the news until her parents returned. In spite of the fact that she is being congratulated on every hand, she persists that she intends to cling to her original plan and announce her engagement officially at a tea in about two months. Meantime, she is not denying that she is engaged to the clever young physician from San Jose.

A large party of local railroad men are planning an all day cruise on the lake. They will charter the boat, and no pains will be spared to make it a most jolly day.

Rev. and Mrs. F. B. Short entertained at an elaborate dinner at their home Thursday evening in honor of Miss Joseph E. Berry of Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Rulon S. Wells held a reunion of the Benedict family at their home on Second avenue, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Thatcher of Logan, before their departure for Europe.

Wednesday evening Miss Margaret Whitney entertained about 20 of her friends in honor of Miss Gertrude East-horn of Chicago, who is spending the summer at the Whitney home on Fourth avenue.

Mrs. J. E. Berkeley received about 75 friends at a tea Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. R. L. Kirk, who has been visiting here from southern Utah, and Mrs. J. P. Berkeley, who will leave early in September with her husband, Rev. Berkeley, for Newton Center, Mass.

Miss Frances Cowan who leaves soon to enter her second year at Vassar college, was the guest of honor at a large "500" party Tuesday evening, given by the Misses Elizabeth and Mildred Lane, Mrs. Geo. Walker and Mrs. W. L. Nicol assisted the hostesses. Prizes were won by Mrs. Alvin Lee and Miss Calla Crane.

Mrs. W. H. Martin gave a prettily appointed breakfast at her home Tuesday for Miss Martha J. Johnson, one of the early autumn brides. A splendid musical program followed.

Mrs. Byron Cummings and the Misses McLaury entertained during the week for Miss Martha Johnson. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Harper J. Dinwiddie, Mrs. James M. Dart, Mrs. A.

Mrs. R. G. Wilson is home after six months spent in New York and other eastern cities.

Mrs. Ezra Thompson and daughter Corinne are spending a few days at Brighton.

Misses Margaret and Grace Critch have returned from a six weeks' visit with friends and relatives in Colorado and Wyoming.

J. A. Stimson and Jack Heywood returned during the week from a hunting and fishing trip through Wyoming made in the former's auto.

S. J. G. Griffin and family have returned from a two weeks' trip through Alaska and British Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Nichols have returned from a ten day visit to the northwest, in which they visited the fair at Seattle.

Thomas Carnahan of Tonopah, Nevada, is visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Carnahan, for a few days.

Tom Keogh, "mayor of Raft River," is in the city for a week's visit at his home.

Tuesday evening a large number of business men of the city went to Brigham City as the guests of the Commercial club of that city.

D. A. Smyth and son Walter have gone to Seattle to see the big fair. Before returning home they will visit in the northwest.

Mayor John Park of Rock Springs, accompanied by his wife, were Ogden visitors during the week.

P. J. Quinn has returned from a six months' visit to Ireland. He made a short stay on the continent before returning to America.

O. F. Brown of Sacramento, Cal., who has been visiting his parents in Ogden for two weeks, has returned to his home.

Thomas Grimes left Tuesday afternoon on the Overland limited for New York, where he will take a steamer for Ireland for a two months' visit.

J. H. F. Last has returned from an extended trip to New York and other eastern cities.

PROVO.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Kellogg entertained Thursday evening at a family reunion at their beautiful residence on Academy avenue. The rooms were elaborately decorated for the occasion. Yellow and green being followed out in the color scheme, golden red and golden glow being in evidence. A delightful musical evening was enjoyed and an elaborate lunch served.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Anderson spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Salt Lake.

Dr. V. W. Knowles has returned to Provo after a week's trip through Provo canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Chin of Wyoming are spending a couple of weeks in our city.

Mrs. Oscar Wolden entertained at a family dinner party at her home Sunday afternoon. Covers were laid for 12.

LeRoy Armstrong of the Salt Lake Herald-Republican spent Sunday in our city, the guest of Postmaster Gove.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hatfield of Lehi, spent a couple of days this week with Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hendricks, sister of Mr. Hatfield. They were returning from a pleasant visit with friends in Santaquin. Mr. Hendricks is a rural carrier of Lehi and is enjoying his vacation.

Mrs. B. H. Walters and Mrs. Kitty Hines have returned from a most enjoyable visit to Heber and Park City.

Miss Lou Nelson, who is employed at the Fair, Salt Lake, is spending her two weeks vacation with her mother and relatives in Provo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bernard Olsen spent a few days this week with friends in Payson.

Miss Lena Mickel of Salt Lake City, spent two weeks in Provo the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Penrod.

The Sorosis Juniors met Monday evening at the home of Miss Vivian Bonnett. An interesting paper on "Joan of Arc" was read by Miss Anna Newell. A very interesting and descriptive letter was read from Miss Fay Loose, who is visiting in Europe, and a member of the club. Miss Bonnett rendered a musical selection. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

Morrill and Willis Turner, formerly of this city, but now residing in Colorado, are visiting their many friends in this city.

June Lund of Salt Lake is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Eliza Gedhill, for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gee entertained at a wedding reception Thursday evening at their home in honor of the marriage of their daughter Miss Adella, to Elton L. Jackson, which was solemnized in the Temple at Salt Lake. The bride was attired in an elegant gown of all-over embroidery. The groom wore the usual suit of black. The happy young couple received the congratulations of their many friends beneath an arch built of white and ting in accord. The dining room was brightened by the use of red and white. Dancing was indulged in on the lawn. The lights and chimes lanterns. An elaborate wedding supper was served. It is very doubtful if any young couple in this city ever received more costly and beautiful presents. May their future be as bright and happy as the prospects indicate.

Rev. George Townsend returned Wednesday from an extended trip to Europe. He reports a most profitable and enjoyable sojourn.

Dr. D. H. Calder entertained at dinner Thursday evening at the Mental hospital, Mr. John Hardy, secretary to the governor, Rev. P. A. Simpkins of Salt Lake, Postmaster of Clove and C. E. Louse of this city.

Mrs. J. E. Talmage of Salt Lake is visiting friends in this city, the guest of Mrs. J. E. Booth.

Misses Zella Farrer, Ferris Noyes and Eva Anderson and Messrs. Merrill Taylor, Lyman Noyes and Mrs. Taylor all spent Sunday in Provo Canyon.

Major Myton and Col. Booth of Salt Lake were the guests of C. E. Louse Wednesday.

The Friendly Society entertained at a tea Thursday afternoon in honor

BRAIDED BLOUSE OF CREPE.

This separate blouse shows an attractive use of braid as a trimming. Formal designs are seen on the entire blouse, and on the sleeves. The front part of the blouse is finished with black ribbon, white buttons and black jet. The neck is Dutch. A fluting of chiffon is seen at the end of the long sleeves, and there is a horizontal cuff showing a finish of the black jet. This blouse is worn with a black voile skirt.

week for a visit of several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. E. G. Steiner, of Vancouver, B. C. She will visit the Seattle fair before her return to this city.

Mr. Arthur Johnson, who has been the guest of Judge and Mrs. J. A. Marshall for the past two weeks, left during the week for his home in Cleveland, O.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Lynn and daughter are home after several weeks spent in Alaska and the Pacific Northwest.

Miss Prudence Trimble of Kansas City, Mo., is visiting Miss Elsie McMillan for a few weeks.

After five months' visit in Burlington, Vt., Mrs. C. R. Elliott returned during the week accompanied by Mrs. Parker and son who will be her guests for the remainder of the summer and early fall.

Mrs. R. H. Officer, Mrs. Sarah Boggs, Miss Virginia Beatty and Miss Florence Reynolds of Boston, Mass., are expected home today from a visit to the Yellowstone park.

Mr. and Mrs. Selden I. Clawson and children have gone to southern Idaho for a 10 days' visit.

Miss Jean Hyde has returned from a visit to Huntington Beach, Cal., and the Seattle fair.

Mrs. Emma Spencer and Miss Josephine Spencer left during the week for a two weeks' stay at the Seattle fair, Vancouver, Portland and other points of interest en route.

Mrs. Annie Eliason Thomas of Logan spent the first half of the week as the guest of Mrs. Walter T. Pyper.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Thatcher leave Monday for Holland, where Mr. Thatcher will take charge of the Mission for the next two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Young and family will arrive today from California. Mrs. Young will spend the remainder of the summer with her mother, Mrs. Henry W. Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hansen and child and Mr. Joe Tate are spending a week with friends in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Belcher of Fort Worth, Texas, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Belcher of this city.

Miss Winifred Millsbaugh has returned to her home in California.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Badger leave today for Los Angeles and the beaches, to be gone a week or ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Catrow have gone to the Seattle fair and other points of interest in the Pacific Northwest.

Mrs. R. L. Kirk and children who have been visiting Mrs. J. E. Berkeley for the past few weeks, have returned to their home in southern Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Graham and two sons are in Emigration canyon for a few days.

invitations for the marriage of his daughter, Miss Rose, to John Augustus Lloyd, the wedding to take place on Wednesday evening, Sept. 8, at the First Presbyterian church, at 8 o'clock.

Miss Maybell A. Crowley and William A. Silk of New York were married at St. Mary's cathedral Wednesday evening. Father W. K. Ryan officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Silk left immediately after the ceremony for New York, their future home.

Miss Julia A. Tullidge and Albert A. Watkins were quietly married Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Shurtliff. Rev. P. A. Simpkins performed the ceremony.

Miss Edna M. Tibby and William H. Kidder were married Tuesday evening at the parsonage of the Phillips Congregational church. Rev. P. A. Simpkins officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Kidder will be at home to their friends at 178 E street after Sept. 10.

Miss Margaret Malich and Louis Dergance were married Tuesday at St. Mary's cathedral. The ceremony was performed by Father Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Dergance will make their home in Silver City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ruml announce the engagement of their daughter Mabel, to Dr. J. O. Pitt, the marriage to take place Sept. 8.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES
OGDEN.

Ogden, Aug. 28.—The Mutual Improvement associations of the North Weber stake, held their annual outing at the Hermitage, Wednesday afternoon and evening of this week which were very largely attended. In the evening a grand ball was given. This afternoon and evening the M. I. A. of the Ogden stake are holding their annual outing at the Hermitage with a large attendance.

Thursday afternoon the annual outing of the employees of Wright's stores was held at the Hermitage. The afternoon was devoted to contests of various kinds and a dance was given in the evening.

Mrs. H. H. Spencer and son, H. H. Spencer, Jr., have returned from Spencer, Idaho, where they have been spending the summer. They spent the early part of August at the fair at Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Porter, Jr., announce the engagement of their sister, Maggie Cotton, to John R. Moses, the wedding to take place in the near future.

Miss Jennie Calvert visited her brother, J. R. Calvert in Evanston during the past week.

A. B. Vance, wife and son, have gone to Idaho for a short visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Carrie E. Blair has returned

KEITH O'BRIEN CO.

The Big Shoe Sale

Which Opened Saturday Will Be in Full Force Monday--the Final and the Most Striking Reductions of the Season.

If you will come down Monday morning you will be as delighted with your purchases as the customers were who responded Saturday.

For it is the biggest shoe sale so far this year.

It is simply the closing out of Summer footwear.

The stock is fine.

More than two months yet in which to wear Oxfords. So, if you are not fully supplied, it's a good chance to save some money.

By this sale we will do you a favor—you'll realize it when you see how much good your shoe money will do you.

OXFORDS FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN—QUALITY FOOTWEAR, SNAPPY STYLES AND YET MADE TO FIT COMFORTABLE. BEST ATTENTION IN FITTING SHOES.

Men's Oxford $3.45

You know our reputation for men's fine foot wear, we carry only one grade, $5.00, and we know they are the best made, the balance of our summer oxfords at $3.45, during sale.

$1.95 Women's and Misses' Oxfords.

Worth $3.00 and $3.50. Many pretty styles in oxfords and pumps.

$1.95 Women's oxfords in Tans, Patents, Calfskins, Vici Kids. The cheapest oxford we carry is $3.50 so you know the values you must get and many of them in at this price are worth $4.00 and $5.00.

"I want my Mamma!"

She is down at Keith-O'Brien's.

Here she comes.

Misses' and Children's Oxfords, Pumps, Slippers.

$1.95, your choice of any pair of our $2.50 and $3.00 grades.

$1.45, any pair of our $2.00 and $2.25 oxfords or pumps.

$1.00, a great assortment on bargain tables, of footwear for the children.

$2.95 Wright & Peters, and Murry Shoe Co.

Latteman Shoe Co., and other well known makers. Oxfords that sell for $4.00, $5.00, $6.00 and $7.00, with very few exceptions, every pair of oxfords in our stock included at this price and a price you will not miss buying a pair.

Fall Suits! At Popular Prices :::

Distinctive styles in Fall Suits, including all the fashionable homespun, plain and fancy serges, mannish worsteds and broadcloths. Their quality is evidenced, not only in their modish shaping, but also in the splendid materials, trimmings and reliable tailoring. New effects in semi-fitted 3-4 length coats, jaunty pleated skirts; strictly tailored, close fitting coat suits, in all the staple as well as high shades. Some are Lotus, Catawba, Ash, Blue, Wistaria, Mulberry, Sapphire and Manila. Also a wide range of styles in black. Sizes 32 to 46.

Prices ranging from $19.75 to $22.50 and up.