

YULETIDE IN GREAT BRITAIN

Something of the English "Yuletide" as it is in the home and away from home. Christmas is the most important festival of the year in Great Britain. It is a time of joy and merriment, and is celebrated with great enthusiasm throughout the country. The festival is marked by the exchange of gifts, the singing of carols, and the lighting of fires. The Yuletide is a time of peace and goodwill, and is a time when the hearts of men are drawn together.
